Within thirty (30) days after such a petition has been filed with the state conservation commission, it shall cause due notice to be given of a proposed hearing upon the question of the desirability and necessity, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, of the creation of such district, upon the question of the appropriate boundaries to be assigned to such district, upon the propriety of the petition and other proceedings taken under this act, and upon all questions relevant to such inquiries. All qualified electors within the limits of the territory described in the petition, and of lands within any territory considered for addition to such described territory, and all other interested parties, shall have the right to attend such hearings and to be heard. If it shall appear upon the hearing that it may be desirable to include within the proposed district territory outside of the area within which due notice of the hearing has been given, the hearing shall be adjourned and due notice of further hearing shall be given throughout the entire area considered for inclusion in the district, and such further hearing held. After such hearing, if the commission shall determine, upon the facts presented at such hearing and upon such other relevant facts and information as may be available, that there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety and welfare, for a conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing, it shall make and record such determination, and shall define, by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions, the boundaries of such district. In making such determinations and in defining such boundaries, the commission shall give due weight and consideration to the topography of the area considered and of the state, the composition of soils therein, the distribution of erosion, the prevailing land-use practices, the desirability and necessity of including within the boundaries the particular lands under consideration and the benefits such lands may receive from being included within such boundaries, the relation of the proposed area to existing watersheds and agricultural regions, and to other conservation districts already organized or proposed for organization under the provisions of this act, and such other physical, geographical, and economic factors as are relevant, having due regard to the legislative determination set forth in section 76-102. The territory to be included within such boundaries need not be contiguous. If the commission shall determine after such hearing, after due consideration of the said relevant facts, that there is no need for a conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing, it shall make and record such determination and shall deny the petition. After six (6) months shall have expired from the date of the denial of any such petition, subsequent petitions covering the same or substantially the same territory may be filed as aforesaid and new hearing held and determinations made thereon.

C. After the commission has made and recorded a determination that there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, for the organization of a district in a particular territory and has defined the boundaries thereof, it shall consider the question whether the operation of a district within such boundaries with the powers conferred upon conservation districts in this act is administratively practicable and feasible. To assist the commission in the determination of such administrative practicability and feasibility, it shall be the duty of the commission, within a reasonable time after entry of the finding that there is need for the organization of the proposed district and the determination of the boundaries thereof, to hold a referendum within the proposed district upon the proposition of the creation of the district, and to cause due notice of such referendum to be given. The question shall be submitted by ballots upon which the words "For creation of a conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county(ies) of ————, ————, and ————" and "Against creation of a conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county(ies) of ———— and ————" shall appear, with a square before each proposition and a direction to insert an "X" mark in the square before one or the other of said propositions as the voter may favor or oppose creation of such district. The ballot shall set forth the boundaries of such proposed district as determined by the commission. All qualified electors within the boundaries of the territory, as determined by the state conservation commission, shall be eligible to vote in such referendum.

D. The commission shall pay all expenses for the issuance of such notices and the conduct of such hearings and referenda, and shall supervise the conduct of such hearings and referenda. It shall issue appropriate regulations governing the conduct of such hearings and referenda, and providing for the registration prior to the date of the referendum of all eligible voters, or prescribing some other appropriate procedure for the determination of those eligible as voters in such referendum. No informalities in the conduct of such referendum or in any matters relating thereto shall invalidate said referendum or the result thereof if notice thereof shall have been given substantially as herein provided and said referendum shall have been fairly conducted.

E. The commission shall publish the result of such referendum and shall thereafter consider and determine whether the operation of the district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible. If the commission shall determine that the operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible, it shall record such determination and deny the petition. If the commission shall determine that the operation of such district is administratively practicable and feasible, it shall record such determination and shall proceed with the organization of the district in the manner hereinafter provided. In making such determination the commission shall give due regard and weight to the attitudes of the qualified electors within the defined boundaries, the number of qualified electors eligible to vote in such referendum who shall have voted, the proportion of the votes cast in such referendum in favor of the creation of the district to the total number of votes cast, the approximate wealth and income of the qualified electors of the proposed district, the probable expense of carrying on erosion-control operations within such district, and such other economic and social factors as may be relevant to such determination, having due regard to the legislative determinations set forth in section 76-102; provided, however, that the commission shall not have authority to determine that the operation of the proposed district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible unless a majority of the votes cast in the referendum upon the proposition of creation of the district shall have been cast in favor of the creation of such district.

F. If the commission shall determine that the operation of the proposed district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible, it shall appoint two (2) supervisors to act with the three (3) supervisors elected as provided hereinafter, as the governing body of the district. Such district shall be a governmental subdivision of this state and a public body corporate and politic, upon the taking of the following proceedings:

The two (2) appointed supervisors shall present to the secretary of state an application signed by them, which shall set forth (and such application need contain no detail other than the mere recitals): (1) That a petition for the creation of the district was filed with the state conservation commission pursuant to the provisions of this act, and that the proceedings specified in this act were taken pursuant to such petition; that the application is being filed in order to complete the organization of the district as a governmental subdivision and a public body, corporate and politic, under this act; and that the commission has appointed them as supervisors; (2) the name and official residence of each of the supervisors, together with a certified copy of the appointments evidencing their right to office; (3) the term of office of each of the supervisors; (4) the name which is proposed for the district; and (5) the location of the principal offices of the supervisors of the district. The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by each of the said supervisors before an officer authorized by the laws of this state to take and certify oaths, who shall certify upon the application that he personally knows the supervisors and knows them to be the officers as affirmed in the application, and that each has subscribed thereto in the officer's presence. The application shall be accompanied by a statement by the state conservation commission, which shall certify (and such statement need contain no detail other than the mere recitals) that a petition was filed, notice issued, and hearing held as aforesaid; that the commission did duly determine that there is need, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, for a conservation district to function in the proposed territory and did define the boundaries thereof; that notice was given and a referendum held on the question of the creation of such district, and that the result of such referendum showed a majority of the votes cast in such referendum to be in favor of the creation of the district; that thereafter the commission did duly determine that the operation of the proposed district is administratively practicable and feasible; the said statement shall set forth the boundaries of the district as they have been defined by the commission.

The secretary of state shall examine the application and statement and, if he finds that the name proposed for the district is not identical with that of any other conservation district of this state or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion or uncertainty, he shall receive and file them and shall record them in an appropriate book of record in his office. If the secretary of state shall find that the name proposed for the district is identical with that of any other conservation district of this state, or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion and uncertainty, he shall certify such fact to the state conservation commission, which shall thereupon submit to the secretary of state a new name for the said district, which shall not be subject to such defects. Upon receipt of such new name, free of such defects, the secretary of state shall record the application and statement, with the name so modified, in an appropriate book of record in his office. When the application and statement have been made, filed, and recorded, as herein provided, the district shall constitute a governmental subdivision of this state and a public body corporate and politic. The secretary of state shall make and issue to the said supervisors without cost a certificate, under the seal of the state, of the due organization of the said district, and shall record such certificate with the application and statement. The boundaries of such district shall include the territory as determined by the state conservation commission as aforesaid, but in no event shall they include any area included within the boundaries of another conservation district organized under the provisions of this act.

G. After six (6) months shall have expired from the date of entry of a determination by the state conservation commission that operation of a proposed district is not administratively practicable and feasible, and denial of a petition pursuant to such determination, subsequent petitions may be filed as aforesaid and action taken thereon in accordance with the provisions of this act.

H. Petitions for including additional territory within an existing district may be filed with the state conservation commission, and the proceedings herein provided for in the case of petitions to organize a district shall be observed in the case of petitions for such inclusion. The commission shall prescribe the form for such petitions, which shall be as nearly as may be in the form prescribed in this act for petitions to organize a district. Where the total number of qualified electors in the area proposed for inclusion shall be less than ten (10), the petition may be filed when signed by a majority of the qualified electors of such area, and in such case no referendum need be held. In referenda upon petitions for such inclusion, all qualified electors within the proposed additional area shall be eligible to vote.

76-106. Election of supervisors for each district. Within thirty (30) days after the date of issuance by the secretary of state of a certificate of organization of a conservation district, nominating petitions may be filed with the state conservation commission to nominate candidates for supervisors of such districts. The commission shall have authority to extend the time within which nominating petitions may be filed. No such nominating petition shall be accepted by the commission unless it shall be subscribed by ten (10) or more qualified electors within the boundaries of such district. Qualified electors may sign more than one (1) such nominating petition to nominate more than one (1) candidate for supervisor. The commission shall give due notice of an election to be held for the election of three (3) supervisors for the district. The names of all nominees on behalf of whom such nominating petitions have been filed within the time herein designated, shall be printed, arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames, upon ballots, with a square before each name and a direction to insert an "X" mark in the square before any three (3) names to indicate the voter's preference. All qualified electors within the district shall be eligible to vote in such election. The three (3) candidates who shall receive the largest number, respectively, of the votes cast in such election shall be the elected supervisors for such district. The commission shall pay all the expenses of such election, shall supervise the conduct thereof, shall prescribe regulations governing the conduct of such election and the determination of the eligibility of votes therein, and shall publish the results thereof.

(A) The supervisors of any district shall have authority to formulate regulations governing the use of lands within the district in the interest of conserving soil and water resources and preventing and controlling erosion. The supervisors may conduct such public meetings and public hearings upon tentative regulations as may be necessary to assist them in this work. The supervisors shall not have authority to enact such land-use regulations into law until after they shall have caused due notice to be given of their intention to conduct a referendum for submission of such regulations to the qualified electors within the boundaries of the district for their indication of approval or disapproval of such proposed regulations, and until after the supervisors have considered the result of such referendum.

(B) The proposed regulations shall be embodied in a proposed ordinance. The notices of the referendum shall recite the contents of such proposed ordinance, or shall state where copies of such proposed ordinance may be examined. (2) Where the supervisors of any district shall find that any of the provisions of land-use regulations prescribed in any ordinance adopted in accordance with the provisions of section 76-109 are not being observed on particular lands, and that such nonobservance tends to increase erosion on such lands, and is interfering with the prevention or control of erosion on other lands within the district, the supervisors may present to the district court of the county in which the lands of the defendant may lie, a petition, duly verified, setting forth the adoption of the ordinance prescribing land-use regulations, the failure of the defendant to observe such regulations, and to perform particular work, operations, or avoidances as required thereby, and that such nonobservances tends to increase erosion on such lands and is interfering with the prevention or control of erosion on other lands within the district, and praying the court to require the defendant to perform the work, operations, or avoidances within a reasonable time and to order that if the defendant shall fail so to perform

Where the supervisors of any district organized under the provisions of this act shall adopt an ordinance prescribing land-use regulations in accordance with the provisions of section 76-109, they shall further provide by ordinance for the establishment of a board of adjustment. Such board of adjustment shall consist of three (3) members, each to be appointed for a term of three (3) years, except that the members first appointed shall be appointed for terms of 1, 2, and 3 years, respectively. The members of each such board of adjustment shall be appointed by the state conservation commission, with the advice and approval of the supervisors of the district for which such board has been established, and shall be removable, upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other reason, such hearing to be conducted jointly by the state conservation commission and the supervisors of the district. Vacancies in the board of adjustment shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments and shall be for the unexpired term of the member whose term becomes vacant. Members of the state conservation commission and the supervisors of the district shall be ineligible to appointment as members of the board of adjustment during their tenure of such other office. The members of the board of adjustment shall receive compensation for their services at the rate of four dollars ($4) per diem for time spent on the work of the board, in addition to expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties. The supervisors shall pay the necessary administrative and other expenses of operaton incurred by the board, upon the certificate of the chairman of the board.

Copies of such petition shall be served by the petitioner upon the chairman of the supervisors of the district within which his lands are located and upon the chairman of the state conservation commission. The board of adjustment shall fix a time for the hearing of the petition and cause due notice of such hearing to be given. The supervisors of the district and the state conservation commission shall have the right to appear and be heard at such hearing. Any qualified elector within the district who shall object to the authorizing of the variance prayed for may intervene and become a party to the proceedings. Any party to the hearing before the board may appear in person, by agent, or by attorney. If, upon the facts presented at such hearing the board shall determine that there are great practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship in the way of applying the strict letter of any of the land-use regulations upon the lands of the petitioner, it shall make and record such determination and shall make and record findings of fact as to the specific conditions which establish such great practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship. Upon the basis of such findings and determination, the board shall have power by order to authorize such variance from the terms of the land-use regulations, in their application to the lands of the petitioner, as will relieve such great practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship and will not be contrary to the public interest, and such that the spirit of the land-use regulations shall be observed, the public health, safety, and welfare secured, and substantial justice done.

The 1971 amendment substituted "state conservation commission" for "state soil conservation committee" throughout the section; substituted "qualified elector" for "land occupier" in the first sentence, and for "occupiers of land lying" in the fifth sentence, of subsection C; and made minor changes in style and punctuation.

76-114. Discontinuance of districts. (1) At any time after five (5) years after the organization of a district under the provisions of this act, any ten (10) qualified electors within the boundaries of such district may file a petition with the state conservation commission, praying that the operations of the district be terminated and the existence of the district discontinued. The commission may conduct such public meetings and public hearings upon such petition as may be necessary to assist it in the consideration thereof.

(2) Within sixty (60) days after such a petition has been received by the commission it shall give due notice of the holding of a referendum, and shall supervise such referendum, and issue appropriate regulations governing the conduct thereof, the question to be submitted by ballots upon which the words "For terminating the existence of the ———— (name of the conservation district to be here inserted)" and "Against terminating the existence of the ———— (name of the conservation district to be here inserted)" shall appear, with the square before each proposition and a direction to insert an "X" mark in the square before one or the other of said propositions as the voter may favor or oppose discontinuance of such district. All qualified electors within the boundaries of the district shall be eligible to vote in such referendum. No informalities in the conduct of such referendum or in any matters relative thereto shall invalidate said referendum or the result thereof if notice thereof shall have been given substantially as herein provided and said referendum shall have been fairly conducted.

(3) The commission shall publish the result of such referendum and shall thereafter consider and determine whether the continued operation of the district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible. If the commission shall determine that the continued operation of such district is administratively practicable and feasible, it shall record such determination and deny the petition. If the commission shall determine that the continued operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible, it shall record such determination and shall certify such determination to the supervisors of the district.

(4) In making such determination the commission shall give due regard and weight to the attitudes of the qualified electors lying within the district, the number of land occupiers qualified electors eligible to vote in such referendum who shall have voted, the proportion of the votes cast in such referendum in favor of the discontinuance of the district to the total number of votes cast, the approximate wealth and income of the qualified electors of the district, the probable expense of carrying on erosion control operations within such district, and such other economic and social factors as may be relevant to such determination, having due regard to the legislative findings set forth in section 76-102; provided, however, that the commission shall not have authority to determine that the continued operation of the district is administratively practicable and feasible unless at least a majority of the votes cast in the referendum shall have been cast in favor of the continuance of such district.

(5) Upon receipt from the state conservation commission of a certification that the commission has determined that the continued operation of the district is not administratively practicable and feasible, pursuant to the provisions of this section, the supervisors shall forthwith proceed to terminate the affairs of the district. The supervisors shall dispose of all property belonging to the district at public auction and shall pay over the proceeds of such sale to be covered into the state treasury. The supervisors shall thereupon file an application, duly verified, with the secretary of state for the discontinuance of such district, and shall transmit with such application the certificate of the state conservation commission, setting forth the determination of the commission that the continued operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible. The application shall recite that the property of the district has been disposed of and the proceeds paid over as in this section provided, and shall set forth a full accounting of such properties and proceeds of the sale. The secretary of state shall issue to the supervisors a certificate of dissolution and shall record such certificate in an appropriate book of record in his office.

(6) Upon issuance of a certificate of dissolution under the provisions of this section, all ordinances and regulations theretofore adopted and in force within such districts shall be of no further force and effect. All contracts theretofore entered into, to which the district or supervisors are parties, shall remain in force and effect for the period provided in such contracts. The state conservation commission shall be substituted for the district or supervisors as party to such contracts. The commission shall be entitled to all benefits and subject to all liabilities under such contracts and shall have the same right and liability to perform, to require performance, to sue and be sued thereon, and to modify or terminate such contracts by mutual consent or otherwise, as the supervisors of the district would have had. Such dissolution shall not affect the lien of any judgment entered under the provisions of section 76-110, nor the pendency of any action instituted under the provisions of such section, and the commission shall succeed to all rights and obligations of the district or supervisors as to such liens and actions.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 72, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 431, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "qualified electors" for "occupiers of land lying" in the first sentence of subsection (1), for "occupiers of lands lying" in the second sentence of subsection (2), for "occupiers of lands" near the beginning of subsection (4), and for "land occupiers" near the middle of subsection (4); substituted "state conservation commission" for "state soil conservation committee" throughout the section; substituted "commission" for "committee" throughout the section; deleted "soil" before "conservation" twice in the first sentence of subsection (2); and deleted a former third sentence of subsection (2) reading, "Only such land occupiers shall be eligible to vote."

76-115. Disposition of funds. A. Unless otherwise provided by law, all moneys which may from time to time be appropriated out of the state treasury to pay the administrative and other expenses of conservation districts organized under the provisions of this act shall be allocated by the state soil conservation commission among the districts already organized, or to be organized, during the ensuing biennial fiscal period, in accordance with the procedure specified in subsection B of this section. All moneys allocated to any district by the said commission shall be available to the supervisors of such district for all administrative and other expenses of the district under this act and for all administrative and other expenses of the board of adjustment established or to be established by said district.

B. Seventy-five per cent (75%) of all moneys which may be appropriated to pay the administrative and other expenses of conservation districts shall be allocated by the state conservation commission among all the districts organized, or to be organized, within the ensuing biennial fiscal period, under this act, in direct proportion to the total acreage of land within each district. The remaining twenty-five per cent (25%) of said moneys shall be allocated by the state commission among the districts on such basis of allocation as shall be fair, reasonable, and in the public interest, giving due consideration to the greater relative expense of carrying on operations within the particular districts because of such factors as unusual topography, unusual severity of erosion, special difficulty of carrying on operations, special volume of work to be done, and the special importance of instituting erosion control operations immediately. In making allocations of such moneys, the commission shall retain an amount estimated by it to be adequate to enable it to make subsequent allocations in accordance with the provisions of this section from time to time among districts which may be organized after the initial allocations are made, but within the ensuing biennial fiscal period.

C. The state conservation commission shall submit to the state board of examiners, on or before the first (1st) day of November of each year preceding a regular session of the legislative assembly a request for an appropriation as provided in the budget act. The request for an appropriation shall state, in addition to the requirements of the budget act, the following:

The number and acreages of districts in existence or in process of organization, together with an estimate of the number and probable acreages of the districts which may be organized during the ensuing biennial fiscal period; a statement of the balance of funds, if any, available to the commission and to the districts; and the estimates of the commission as to the sums needed for its administrative and other expenses and for allocation among the several districts during the ensuing biennial fiscal period.

76-117. Change of district name—division and combination of districts. (1) Petitions for changing the name of a district organized under this act may be filed with the state conservation commission. Any such petition shall be signed by a majority of the district supervisors and shall state the present name of the district and the proposed new name. If the commission determines that the proposed new name is not identical with or so similar to that of any other district in the state as to lead to confusion or uncertainty, it shall present a statement of such determination to the secretary of state, who shall issue to the district a certificate, under the seal of the state, evidencing the change of name of the district. Upon the issuance of such certificate, the supervisors of the district shall cause due notice to be given of the change of the name of the district.

(2) A petition may be filed with the state commission for the division of any district or the combination of any two (2) or more districts, or for the division of a district and the combination of any divided part thereof with any other district. Any or all of such actions may be initiated by the filing of a single petition with the commission. Any such petition shall be signed by a majority of the members of each of the governing bodies of the affected districts. The commission shall prescribe the form for such petition. Upon the filing of any such petition, the commission shall within thirty (30) days give due notice of public hearing upon such petition. All qualified electors within the affected districts, and all other interested parties, shall have the right to attend such hearing and to be heard. After such hearing, the commission shall determine whether the proposed division, the combination or division and combination of territory is administratively practicable and feasible. In making such determination the commission shall give due regard to the legislative determinations set forth in section 76-102 and to the considerations enumerated in section 76-105, to the extent applicable, relative to determining the practicability and feasibility of creating a district.

(3) If the commission shall determine that the proposed division or combination, or division and combination, is administratively practicable and feasible, the commission shall effect such proposed division, combination, or division and combination by filing with the secretary of state a statement certifying the changes made in the boundaries of the affected districts, together with any change in the name of such districts. If such determination is in the negative the commission shall make and record such determination and shall deny the petition. After six (6) months from the denial of such petition, a new petition may be filed involving any of such proposals.

(4) Upon the division of a district, the supervisors thereof shall allocate the property, rights and liabilities, including contractual obligations, of the district among the resulting parts of the district, giving due consideration to the proportionate size of each such divided part, the number of qualified electors and operating units and the degree and extent of soil erosion therein, and other relevant factors. A statement of such allocation shall be filed with the state commission within thirty (30) days after the notification of the commission's determination in favor of the division of the district. Upon the failure of the supervisors to make, or to agree upon, such allocation, it shall be made by the commission after such hearing as the commission may deem necessary, and with due regard for the standards set out in this paragraph for making such allocations.

77-1501. Citation of act. This act may be cited as the "Post-attack Resource Management Act."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 297, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act to provide for the emergency management of resources.

77-1502. Legislative findings—policy of state. (1) The legislature recognizes that an attack upon the United States is a possibility; that such attack might be of unprecedented size and destructiveness; that a considerable period of time may elapse after an attack before federal operational control over the management of resources can be instituted; and that federal planning and activities with respect to post-attack recovery and rehabilitation necessarily are predicated on the ability of the states and their political subdivisions to prepare for, and respond promptly to, the problems created by an attack. Therefore, it is hereby found and declared to be necessary:

(a) To create an office of emergency resource management for the execution of a plan for emergency resource management;

(b) To confer upon the governor and upon the executive heads of governing bodies of political subdivisions of the state the emergency powers provided herein.

(2) It is further declared to be the purpose of this act and the policy of this state that all resource management functions of this state be coordinated to the maximum extent with the comparable functions of the federal government, of other states and localities, and of private agencies to the end that the most effective preparation and use may be made of available man power, resources, and facilities in an emergency.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 297, L. 1967.

77-1503. Definition of terms. As used in this act, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Emergency Resources Management Plan" shall mean that plan prepared by the state emergency resources planning committee, approved by the federal office of emergency planning and adopted by the governor, which sets forth the organization, administration, and functions for the emergency management by the state government of essential resources and economic stabilization within the state. The plan shall provide an emergency organization and emergency administrative policies and procedures for the conservation, allocation, distribution, and use of essential resources available to the state following a civil defense emergency such as an attack upon the United States. It shall be supplemental to the national plan for emergency preparedness adopted by the president of the United States, and shall become operative upon the establishment of a civil defense emergency. To the extent that the federal government is either incapable of or not prepared to conduct its emergency resources management program, the state plan will substitute for and replace the federal program until such time as the federal program becomes effective in the state.

(2) "Enemy attack" means an actual attack by a foreign nation by hostile air raids, or other forms of warfare, upon this state or any other state or territory of the United States.

(3) "Political subdivision" shall mean any county, city, town, or township of the state.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 297, L. 1967.

77-1504. State emergency resource planning committee—composition. (1) The governor may establish a state emergency resource planning committee (hereinafter referred to as the "state committee") and the office of state emergency planning director (hereinafter referred to as the "director"), and appoint to serve at his pleasure the members of such state committee and the director.

(2) The state committee shall consist of the governor, who shall be chairman, the director, other state officials designated by the governor, and persons representative of industry, commerce, labor, agriculture, civic, governmental, and professional groups designated by the governor. In the absence of the governor, the director shall act as chairman.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 297, L. 1967.

77-1505. Governor's powers and duties under act. (1) The governor shall have general direction and control of the emergency resources management within this state and all officers, boards, agencies, individuals, or groups established under the emergency resource management plan.

(2) In performing his duties under this act, the governor is authorized to co-operate with the federal government, with other states, and with private agencies in all matters pertaining to the emergency management of resources.

(3) In performing his duties under this act, and to effect its policies and purpose, the governor is further authorized and empowered to make, amend, and rescind the necessary orders, rules, and regulations to carry out the provisions of this act within the limits of authority conferred upon him herein, with due consideration of the emergency resources management plans of the federal government.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 297, L. 1967.

77-1506. Proclamation of emergency—governor's powers during emergency. (1) Following an attack, the governor, if he finds such action necessary to deal with the danger to the public safety caused thereby or to aid in the post-attack recovery or rehabilitation of the United States or any part thereof, shall declare by proclamation the existence of a post-attack recovery and rehabilitation emergency. Any such proclamation shall be ineffectual, unless the legislature is then in session or the governor simultaneously issues an order convening the legislature in special session within forty-five (45) days.

(2) During the period when the proclamation issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is in force, or during the continuance of any emergency declared by the president of the United States or the congress calling for post-attack recovery and rehabilitation activities, subject to the limitations set forth in this act, and in a manner consistent with any rules, regulations, or orders and policy guidance issued by the federal government, the governor may issue, amend and enforce rules, regulations, and orders to:

(a) Control, restrict, and regulate by rationing, freezing, use of quotas, prohibitions on shipments, price fixing, allocation or other means, the use, sale or distribution of food, feed, fuel, clothing and other commodities, materials, goods or services;

(b) Prescribe and direct activities in connection with but not limited to use, conservation, salvage, and prevention of waste of materials, services, and facilities, including production, transportation, power, and communication facilities, training and supply of labor, utilization of industrial plants, health and medical care, nutrition, housing, including the use of existing and private facilities, rehabilitation, education, welfare, child care, recreation, consumer protection, and other essential civil needs; and

(c) Take such other action as may be necessary for the management of resources following an attack.

(3) All rules, regulations, and orders issued pursuant to authority conferred by this act shall have the full force and effect of law during the continuance of a proclamation or declaration of emergency as contemplated by this section, when a copy of the rule, regulation, or order is filed in the office of the secretary of state or, if issued by a local or area official, when filed in the office or offices of the county clerk and recorder. If, by reason of destruction or disruption attendant upon or resulting from attack, the filing requirements of this subsection cannot be met, public notice by such means as may be available shall be deemed a complete and sufficient substitute. All existing laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and orders inconsistent with the provisions of this act, or any rule, regulation or order issued under the authority thereof, shall be inoperative during the period of time and to the extent such inconsistency exists.

(4) Any authority exercised pursuant to a proclamation or emergency contemplated by this section may be exercised with respect to the entire territory over which the governor or other official, as the case may be, has jurisdiction, or as to any specified part thereof.

(5) The governor's power and authority to issue a proclamation following an attack shall be terminated by the passage of a joint resolution of the legislature or by declaration of the termination of the emergency by the president or by the congress; provided that the proclamation shall terminate automatically six (6) months after issuance and a similar proclamation may not be issued unless concurrence is given thereto by a joint resolution of the legislature.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 297, L. 1967.

77-1507. Judicial inquiry as to emergency proclamation and facts. Every proclamation and the facts related therein issued under this act shall be subject to judicial inquiry by the state supreme court as to the existence of the facts underlying the issuance of the proclamation and whether such action was reasonable under the circumstances.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 297, L. 1967.

77-1508. Penalty for violation of rules and regulations. Any person violating any of the rules, regulations or orders adopted and promulgated under section 6 [77-1506] of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or to a term of imprisonment of not to exceed five (5) years, or both.

79-2202. Long-range building program bonds. (1) When authorized by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of each house of the legislature, or of a majority of the electors voting thereon if so provided by law, and within the limits of such authorization and the further limitations in this section, the board may issue and sell bonds of the state of Montana in such manner as it shall deem necessary and proper to provide funds to finance the long-range building program. Bonds may be issued hereunder to provide funds for the payment or redemption of the outstanding War Veterans' Compensation Bonds and World War I Veterans' Compensation Bonds issued pursuant to Initiative No. 54, and the amendment thereof, chapter 270, Laws of 1963, and long-range building program bonds issued under this section. The full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state of Montana shall be pledged for the payment of all bonds issued pursuant to this chapter after January 1, 1973, with all interest thereon and premiums payable upon the redemption thereof.

(2) Each series of such bonds shall be issued by the board upon request of the department of administration, in such denominations and form, whether payable to bearer or registered as to principal or both principal and interest, with such provisions for conversion or exchange and for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the execution and delivery of definitive bonds, bearing interest at such rate or rates, maturing at such times not exceeding thirty (30) years from date of issue, subject to redemption at such earlier times and prices and upon such notice, and payable at the office of such fiscal agency of the state of Montana, as the board shall determine subject to the limitations contained in this section.

(3) In the issuance of each series of such bonds, the amount, maturities and interest rates thereof shall be fixed in such manner that the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due in any subsequent fiscal year, on all such bonds then outstanding and on the series so to be issued, will not exceed fifty per centum (50%) of the average annual amount collected during the three (3) then next preceding fiscal years, from the special taxes pledged by law to the sinking fund account at the time of such issuance; except that this provision shall not constitute a covenant of the state for the security of the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter after January 1, 1973, and the state reserves the right to amend this subsection (3) in any manner after all bonds issued prior to that date, and the interest thereon, have been fully paid or the state's liability thereon has been otherwise fully discharged.

(4). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(5) All proceeds of bonds issued hereunder shall be deposited in the clearance fund account, except that any premiums and accrued interest received shall be deposited in the sinking fund account. For the purposes set forth in subdivision (1) hereof, the state treasurer acting by and with the approval of the state board of examiners may set aside such funds as may be necessary to assure the redemption, or payment at maturity, of all of the outstanding War Veterans' Compensation Bonds and World War I Veterans' Compensation Bonds and as may be necessary or required to fulfill the obligations of the state of Montana by virtue thereof. With such funds the state treasurer with the approval of the state board of examiners is hereby authorized to call said bonds for redemption in accordance with the provisions thereof, at any redemption date, to pay said bonds on the maturity dates thereof, to deposit securities in escrow for the purpose of assuring such payments at future dates, and to take such other steps as may be necessary to fulfill all of the obligations of the state of Montana existing under the provisions of said bonds and the laws and resolutions authorizing the same.

(6) The state board of examiners is hereby authorized to employ a fiscal agent to assist in the performance of its duties hereunder.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment added what is now the second sentence of subsection (1); added the second and third sentences of subsection (5); and added subsection (6).

The 1969 amendment increased the maximum interest rate specified in subsection (2) from five per cent to five and one-half per cent per annum.

The 1971 amendment deleted from subsection (2) the clause limiting interest rates to five and one-half per cent per annum; and made a minor change in phraseology.

The 1973 amendment substituted "by the vote of two-thirds (⅔) of the members of each house of the legislature, or of a majority of the electors voting thereon if so provided by law" near the beginning of subsection (1) for "by the legislative assembly"; substituted the final sentence of subsection (1) for a second sentence providing that the bonds should never become a debt of the state; substituted a reference to the department of administration in subsection (2) for a reference to the controller; added the final part of subsection (3), beginning "except that this provision shall not constitute a covenant"; and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

79-2203. Sinking fund account. (1) From and after the pledge and appropriation of any special tax to the sinking fund account, as provided and contemplated in this section, such tax shall continue in force and shall be available and shall be pledged and appropriated for the payment of long-range building program bonds, and all moneys received from the collection thereof shall be deposited by the treasurer to the credit of the sinking fund account. No special taxes pledged to the sinking fund account on January 1, 1973, shall be discontinued or diverted to other funds until all bonds issued pursuant to this chapter prior to that date and the interest thereon have been fully paid or the state's liability thereon has been fully discharged, except to the extent, if any, that the right so to do has been reserved in the resolutions authorizing the issuance of such bonds. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this subsection (1), the state reserves the right to modify from time to time the nature and amount of special taxes to be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund account.

(2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(3) Money at any time received in the sinking fund account in excess of the principal, interest and reserve requirements stated in subsection (2) shall be transferred by the treasurer to the general fund. If the balance at any time on hand in the sinking fund account is not sufficient for compliance with subsection (2), the treasurer shall credit to said account an amount sufficient to restore said balance from the next collections of the special taxes appropriated to said account, and from any other collections of taxes appropriated to the general fund, not exceeding the aggregate amount theretofore transferred from the sinking fund account to the general fund.

(4) The state reserves the power, by enactment of the legislative assembly or the people, to levy, impose and assess and to pledge and appropriate to the sinking fund account any tax specially designated therein, or any specified amount or percentage of the collections of such special tax. The state also reserves the power to appropriate any funds designated by enactment of the legislative assembly or the people for the redemption and prepayment of any long-range building program bonds, or to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds for the purpose of refunding any such outstanding bonds or interest thereon, upon such terms and conditions as may be provided in said enactments and consistent with covenants and agreements made for the security of the outstanding bonds. Refunding bonds issued in advance of the maturity of the bonds refunded shall be issued only subject to the conditions stated in subsection (3) of section 79-2202, substituting for this purpose the principal and interest requirements of the refunding bonds for those of the bonds refunded. Nothing herein shall prevent the board from issuing and selling refunding bonds, payable from the sinking fund account, to provide funds for payment of principal or interest due on long-range building program bonds, when and if and to the extent that the sinking fund account is insufficient for this purpose.

(5) The state pledges and appropriates, and directs to be credited as received to the sinking fund account, eleven per centum (11%) of all money received from the collection of the income tax and the corporation license tax referred to in section 84-1901, and such additional amount of said taxes, if any, as may at any time be needed to comply with the principal and interest and reserve requirements stated in subsection (2) of this section; provided that no more than eleven per centum (11%) of such tax collections shall be deemed to be pledged for the purpose of subsection (3) of section 79-2202. The pledge and appropriation herein made shall be and remain at all times a first and prior charge upon all money received from the collection of said taxes.

(6) The state pledges and appropriates and directs to be credited to the sinking fund account fifteen per centum (15%) of all money received from the collection of the nine cents (9¢) excise tax on cigarettes which is levied, imposed and assessed by section 84-5606, subdivision (2). The state also pledges and appropriates and directs to be credited as received to the sinking fund account all money received from the collection of each of the excise taxes on cigarettes which are levied, imposed and assessed by section 84-5606, subdivisions (3) and (4), as amended, after the payment and redemption in full of the outstanding bonds for which said taxes have heretofore been pledged and appropriated, or after the necessary funds have been set aside for such payment and redemption as provided in this chapter. The state also pledges and appropriates and directs to be credited as received to the sinking fund account all money received from the collection of the taxes on other tobacco products which are or may hereafter be levied, imposed and assessed by law for that purpose including the tax levied, imposed and assessed by section 84-6802, R.C.M 1947. Nothing herein shall impair or otherwise affect the provisions and covenants contained in the resolutions authorizing the War Veterans' Compensation Bonds, the World War I Veterans' Compensation Bonds or the presently outstanding long-range building program bonds. Subject to the provisions of the preceding sentence, the pledge and appropriation herein made shall be and remain at all times a first and prior charge upon all money received from the collection of all taxes referred to in this subdivision (6).

The 1967 amendment, in subsection (5), increased appropriations to the sinking fund from 5 per centum to 11 per centum; in subsection (6), deleted "After approval through initiative or referendum by a majority of the electors voting at an election prior to January 1, 1967," at the beginning of the subsection; deleted "upon such approval also" before "pledges"; substituted "said taxes have" for "any such tax has" before "heretofore"; added "or after the necessary funds * * * in this act" at the end of the first sentence, now the second sentence; and added the last three sentences.

The 1971 amendment inserted a new first sentence in subsection (6); deleted "and other tobacco products" following "cigarettes" in the second sentence of subsection (6); added at the end of the third sentence of subsection (6) the clause referring to the tax imposed by section 84-6802; and made minor changes in phraseology.

The 1973 amendment deleted "irrevocably" before "pledged and appropriated" in the first sentence of subsection (1); deleted "so long as any such bonds or the interest thereon remains unpaid" from the end of the first sentence of subsection (1); added the second and third sentences to subsection (1); deleted "and not including ad valorem taxes on property" from the end of subsection (3); deleted "except an ad valorem tax on property" after "any tax specially designated therein" in the first sentence of subsection (4); deleted "provided that this power shall not be construed to constitute a pledge of the general credit of the state of Montana" from the end of the first sentence of subsection (4); and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Approval by Voters

Because portions of the proceeds of the income tax, corporation license tax and tobacco tax are pledged for the security of bonds issued under this chapter, the issuance of new bonds would create a liability within the meaning of section 2, article XIII of the 1889 constitution, and such bonds may not be issued without approval by a vote of the people. State ex rel. Ward v. Anderson, — M —, 491 P 2d 868, distinguishing Cottingham v. State Board of Examiners, 134 M 1, 328 P 2d 907.

A holding that bonds issued under this chapter must be approved by the people will not be given retroactive effect; bonds issued in good faith before November 23, 1971, but without approval by a vote of the electors pursuant to section 2 of article XIII of the 1889 constitution, are valid. State ex rel. Ward v. Anderson, — M —, 491 P 2d 868.

79-2204. Waiver of security provisions. If so stated in any series of bonds issued hereunder, the purchasers and holders thereof may by their purchase and retention of the same waive in whole or in part the security otherwise made available for such bonds by any provision of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 276, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 510, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "retention" for "redemption"; and made a minor change in style.

79-2205. Authorization of bonds. The board is authorized to issue and sell long-range building program bonds in an amount not exceeding two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000), over and above the amount of the long-range building program bonds outstanding January 1, 1973, upon the conditions and in the manner stated in this chapter. The board is also authorized to issue and sell long-range building program bonds in such amount as may be required to provide funds for the payment or redemption of outstanding bonds as contemplated in section 79-2202, subdivisions (1) and (5) and section 72-2203, subdivision (4).

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 276, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 318, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 146, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 222, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 510, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "over and above the amount of the long-range building program bonds outstanding January 1, 1967," before "upon the conditions"; and added the last sentence.

The 1969 amendment substituted "eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000)" for "thirteen million five hundred thousand dollars ($13,500,000)" and substituted "previously authorized" for "outstanding January 1, 1967" before "upon the conditions" in the first sentence.

The 1971 amendment substituted "five million, five hundred thousand dollars ($5,500,000) over and above the amount of the long-range building program bonds outstanding January 1, 1971" in the first sentence for "eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000), over and above the amount of the long-range building program bonds previously authorized."

The 1973 amendment changed the authorization in the first sentence from $5,500,000 above the amount outstanding on January 1, 1971, to $2,500,000 above the amount outstanding on January 1, 1973; and added to the end of the section the reference to subdivision (4), section 72-2203.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 146, Laws 1969 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 27, 1969.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

It is the intent of this act that each agency of state government be audited for the purpose of furnishing the legislative assembly with factual information vital to the discharge of its legislative duties.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

Title of Act

"The Legislative Audit Act" creating a legislative audit committee and the office of legislative auditor and providing for the audit of state agencies by the legislative auditor; amending sections 82-1002, 82-1005, 82-1007, 82-1009, 82-110, 71-206, 4-347, 4-230, and 5-910, R. 79-2302. Definitions. In this act

(1) "State agency" means all offices, departments, boards, commissions, institutions, universities, colleges, and any other person or any other administrative unit of state government that spends or encumbers public moneys by virtue of an appropriation from the legislative assembly, or that handles money on behalf of the state, or that holds any trust or agency moneys from any source.

79-2303. Legislative audit committee—appointment and term of members—officers. The legislative audit committee consists of four (4) members of the Senate and four (4) members of the House of Representatives appointed before the sixtieth legislative day in the same manner as standing committees of the respective houses are appointed. A vacancy on the committee occurring when the legislative assembly is not in session shall be filled by the selection of a member of the legislative assembly by the remaining members of the committee. No more than two (2) of the appointees of each house shall be members of the same political party. Membership on the committee shall terminate with the termination of each member's term of office, or on December 31 of the year following the year in which the appointment was made, whichever event first occurs. The committee shall elect one of its members as chairman and such other officers as it deems necessary.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

79-2304. Meetings. The committee shall meet once each quarter to advise and consult with the legislative auditor. Committee members shall be reimbursed from the appropriation to the office of the legislative auditor for their actual and necessary expenses incurred as a result of such interim meetings.

The legislative auditor shall hold a degree from an accredited college or university with a major in accounting or an allied field and shall have at least two (2) years experience in the field of governmental accounting and auditing.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

79-2306. Appointment of employees. The legislative auditor may appoint whatever employees are necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, within the limitations of legislative appropriations.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

79-2307. Term and removal of legislative auditor. The legislative auditor is solely responsible to the legislative assembly. He shall hold office for a term of two (2) years beginning with July 1 of each odd-numbered year. The committee may remove him for misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance in office at any time after notice and hearing.

(3) Report immediately in writing to the attorney general any apparent violation of penal statutes disclosed by the audit of a state agency, and furnish the attorney general all information in his possession relative to the violation.

(4) Report immediately in writing to the governor any instances of misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance by a state officer or employee disclosed by the audit of a state agency.

(5) Report immediately to the surety upon the bond of any official or employee when an audit discloses a shortage in the accounts of the official or employee. The failure to notify the surety does not release the surety from any obligation under the bond.

(6) Report to the legislative assembly during the first week of each regular session. Each biennial report shall contain, among other things, copies of, or summaries of audit reports on state agencies and any recommendations relating to such reports.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

(1) The agency is carrying out only those activities or programs authorized by the legislative assembly and is conducting them efficiently and effectively.

(2) Expenditures are made only in furtherance of authorized activities and in accordance with the requirements of applicable laws and regulations.

(3) The agency collects and accounts properly for all revenues and receipts arising from its activities.

(4) The assets of the agency or in its custody are adequately safeguarded and controlled and utilized in an efficient manner.

(5) Reports and financial statements by the agency to the governor, the legislative assembly, and central control agencies disclose fully the nature and scope of the activities conducted, and provide a proper basis for evaluating the agency's operations.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

79-2310. Recommendations of legislative auditor. The reports of the legislative auditor may include comments, recommendations and suggestions, but he shall have no power to enforce them nor shall he otherwise influence or direct executive or legislative action.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

79-2311. Legislative auditor to assist legislative assembly during sessions. During sessions of the legislative assembly, the legislative auditor and his staff, when requested, shall assist the legislative assembly, its committees, and its members by gathering and analyzing information relating to the fiscal affairs of state government.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 249, L. 1967.

79-2312. Information from state agencies. All state agencies shall aid and assist the legislative auditor in the auditing of books, accounts and records. The legislative auditor may examine at any time the books, accounts and records, confidential or otherwise, of a state agency; however, this shall not be construed as authorizing the publication of information which the law prohibits publishing. The head of each state agency shall immediately notify the legislative auditor in writing upon the discovery of any larceny, or embezzlement, actual or suspected involving state moneys or property under his control or for which he is responsible.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 249, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 270, L. 1971.

If such resident thereafter disagrees with the determination of the appeal by the state board of institutions, an appeal may be filed and taken to any court of record in Montana having jurisdiction of the resident or responsible person liable for such payment.

(7) All per diem payments received by the department shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the general fund.

Forfeiture of Good Time Allowance

A prisoner who, by virtue of former section 80-740.1, was earning good time under former section 80-739, the prior law, was subject to the provisions of former section 80-741, the forfeiture statute, which existed under the old law. Petition of Brandt, 147 M 175, 410 P 2d 708.

Contention by petitioner for writ of habeas corpus that board of pardons did not have authority to revoke earned good time after violation of parole by petitioner under this section was without merit since petitioner was sentenced prior to 1955 and section 80-741, in effect at that time, allowed such revocation of earned good time. Petition of McIlhargey, 154 M 510, 463 P 2d 476.

80-1908. Commitment of inmates to state hospital. The procedures for committing an inmate of the state prison to the state hospital are the same as for any other person. 80-2412. Interstate compact on mental health enacted—text. The interstate compact on mental health as contained herein is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdiction legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree, that:

Article I. The party states find that the proper and expeditious treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient can be facilitated by co-operative action, to the benefit of the patients, their families, and society as a whole. Further, the party states find that the necessity of and desirability for furnishing such care and treatment bears no primary relation to the residence or citizenship of the patient but that, on the contrary, the controlling factors of community safety and humanitarianism require that facilities and services be made available for all who are in need of them. Consequently, it is the purpose of this compact and of the party states to provide the necessary legal basis for the institutionalization or other appropriate care and treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient under a system that recognizes the paramount importance of patient welfare and to establish the responsibilities of the party states in terms of such welfare.

Article II. As used in this compact:

(a) "Sending state" shall mean a party state from which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or from which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

(b) "Receiving state" shall mean a party state to which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or to which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

(c) "Institution" shall mean any hospital or other facility maintained by a party state or political subdivision thereof for the care and treatment of mental illness or mental deficiency.

(d) "Patient" shall mean any person subject to or eligible as determined by the laws of the sending state, for institutionalization or other care, treatment, or supervision pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

(e) "Aftercare" shall mean care, treatment and services provided a patient, as defined herein, on convalescent status or conditional release.

(f) "Mental illness" shall mean mental disease to such extent that a person so afflicted requires care and treatment for his own welfare, or the welfare of others, or of the community.

(g) "Mental deficiency" shall mean mental deficiency as defined by appropriate clinical authorities to such extent that a person so afflicted is incapable of managing himself and his affairs, but shall not include mental illness as defined herein.

(h) "State" shall mean any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Article III. (a) Whenever a person physically present in any party state shall be in need of institutionalization by reason of mental illness or treatment in an institution in that state irrespective of his residence, settlement, or citizenship qualifications.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, any patient may be transferred to an institution in another state whenever there are factors based upon clinical determinations indicating that the care and treatment of said patient would be facilitated or improved thereby. Any such institutionalization may be for the entire period of care and treatment or for any portion or portions thereof. The factors referred to in this paragraph shall include the patient's full record with due regard for the location of the patient's family, character of the illness and probable duration thereof, and such other factors as shall be considered appropriate.

(c) No state shall be obliged to receive any patient pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this article unless the sending state has given advance notice of its intention to send the patient; furnish all available medical and other pertinent records concerning the patient; given the qualified medical or other appropriate clinical authorities of the receiving state an opportunity to examine the patient if said authorities so wish; and unless the receiving state shall agree to accept the patient.

(d) In the event that the laws of the receiving state establish a system of priorities for the admission of patients, an interstate patient under this compact shall receive the same priority as a local patient and shall be taken in the same order and at the same time that he would be taken if he were a local patient.

(e) Pursuant to this compact, the determination as to the suitable place of institutionalization for a patient may be reviewed at any time and such further transfer of the patient may be made as seems likely to be in the best interest of the patient.

Article IV. (a) Whenever, pursuant to the laws of the state in which a patient is physically present, it shall be determined that the patient should receive aftercare or supervision, such care or supervision may be provided in a receiving state. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state shall have reason to believe that aftercare in another state would be in the best interest of the patient and would not jeopardize the public safety, they shall request the appropriate authorities in the receiving state to investigate the desirability of affording the patient such aftercare in said receiving state, and such investigation shall be made with all reasonable speed. The request for investigation shall be accompanied by complete information concerning the patient's intended place of residence and the identify of the person in whose charge it is proposed to place the patient, the complete medical history of the patient, and such other documents as may be pertinent.

(b) If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state and the appropriate authorities in the receiving state find that the best interest of the patient would be served thereby, and if the public safety would not be jeopardized thereby, the patient may receive aftercare or supervision in the receiving state.

(c) In supervising, treating, or caring for a patient on aftercare pursuant to the terms of this article, a receiving state shall employ the same standards of visitation, examination, care, and treatment that it employs for similar local patients.

Article V. Whenever a dangerous or potentially dangerous patient escapes from an institution in any party state, that state shall promptly notify all appropriate authorities within and without the jurisdiction of the escapee in a manner reasonably calculated to facilitate the speedy apprehension of the escapee. Immediately upon the apprehension and identification of any such dangerous or potentially dangerous patient, he shall be detained in the state where found pending disposition in accordance with law.

Article VI. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the patient, shall be permitted to transport any patient being moved pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

Article VII. (a) No person shall be deemed a patient of more than one (1) institution at any given time. Completion of transfer of any patient to an institution in a receiving state shall have the effect of making the person a patient of the institution in the receiving state.

(b) The sending state shall pay all costs of and incidental to the transportation of any patient pursuant to this compact, but any two (2) or more party states may, by making a specific arrangement for that purpose, arrange for a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

(c) No provision of this compact shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationships among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

(d) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to any provision of this compact.

(e) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to invalidate any reciprocal agreement between a party state and a nonparty state relating to institutionalization, care or treatment of the mentally ill or mentally deficient, or any statutory authority pursuant to which such agreements may be made.

Article VIII. (a) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to abridge, diminish, or in any way impair the rights, duties, and responsibilities of any patient's guardian on his own behalf or in respect of any patient for whom he may serve, except that where the transfer of any patient to another jurisdiction makes advisable the appointment of a supplemental or substitute guardian, any court of competent jurisdiction in the receiving state may make such supplemental or substitute appointment and the court which appointed the previous guardian shall upon being duly advised of the new appointment, and upon the satisfactory completion of such accounting and other acts as such court may by law require, relieve the previous guardian of power and responsibility to whatever extent shall be appropriate in the circumstances; provided, however, that in the case of any patient having settlement in the sending state, the court of competent jurisdiction in the sending state shall have the sole discretion to relieve a guardian appointed by it or continue his power and responsibility, whichever it shall deem advisable. The court in the receiving state may, in its discretion, confirm or reappoint the person or persons previously serving as guardian in the sending state in lieu of making a supplemental or substitute appointment.

(b) The term "guardian" as used in paragraph (a) of this article shall include any guardian, trustee, legal committee, conservator, or other person or agency however denominated who is charged by law with power to act for or responsibility for the person or property of a patient.

Article IX. (a) No provisions of this compact except Article V shall apply to any person institutionalized while under sentence in a penal or correctional institution or while subject to trial on a criminal charge, or whose institutionalization is due to the commission of an offense for which, in the absence of mental illness or mental deficiency, said person would be subject to incarceration in a penal or correctional institution.

(b) To every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no patient shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup, but such patient shall, with all expedition, be taken to a suitable institutional facility for mental illness or mental deficiency.

Article X. (a) Each party state shall appoint a "compact administrator" who, on behalf of his state, shall act as general co-ordinator of activities under the compact in his state and who shall receive copies of all reports, correspondence, and other documents relating to any patient processed under the compact by his state either in the capacity of sending or receiving state. The compact administrator or his duly designated representative shall be the official with whom other party states shall deal in any matter relating to the compact or any patient processed thereunder.

(b) The compact administrators of the respective party states shall have power to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

Article XI. The duly constituted administrative authorities of any two (2) or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements for the provision of any service or facility or for the maintenance of any institution on a joint or co-operative basis whenever the states concerned shall find that such agreements will improve services, facilities, or institutional care and treatment in the fields of mental illness or mental deficiency. No such supplementary agreement shall be construed so as to relieve any party state of any obligation which it otherwise would have under other provisions of this compact.

Article XII. This compact shall enter into full force and effect as to any state when enacted by it into law and such state shall thereafter be a party thereto with any and all states legally joining therein.

Article XIII. (a) A state party to this compact may withdraw therefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. Such withdrawal shall take effect one (1) year after notice thereof has been communicated officially and in writing to the governors and compact administrators of all other party states. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not change the status of any patient who has been sent to said state or sent out of said state pursuant to the provisions of the compact.

(b) Withdrawal from any agreement permitted by Article VII (b) as to costs or from any supplementary agreement made pursuant to Article XI shall be in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

Article XIV. This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

The director of the department of institutions, hereafter called "the director," shall be the compact administrator and shall have the power to make any rules and regulations necessary for the administration of this article. (b) Lands not within such limits but within three (3) miles thereof.

(4) The classification shall be so made as to place each forty (40) acre tract or lot in the class to which it properly belongs.

(5) If lands formerly nonirrigable become irrigable, or if new towns or cities are located and platted, or in any other case when the board considers it necessary, the lands affected shall be reclassified so that no state land will be sold under a different classification from that to which it actually belongs.

(6) All field books, plats, maps, and records of the department shall show the class to which each tract therein belongs, and whether it belongs to the public schools of the state or to a state institution or other entity according to the grant or instrument by which title to the land has passed to the state; they shall also show whether or not the coal or other minerals in the land are reserved by the United States, and shall contain any other information the department considers necessary.

(2) The board may accept on behalf of the state title in fee simple to any land owned by a county in the state, and may convey in exchange therefor state land of approximately the same area and of a value not higher than the land received from the county if the exchange will result in consolidating the state lands into more compact bodies.

(3) The current user of the land transferred to the United States may continue to enjoy the use of the land under terms and conditions required by the federal government and in accordance with the Multiple Use Act, and the current user on the land received from the United States may continue to utilize the land on the terms and conditions imposed by law or by the board.

81-402. (1805.20) Lease of state lands—crop share rental basis used. (1) Under the general direction and control of the board of land commissioners, the department shall lease all agricultural and grazing lands and all town and city lots open to leasing upon proper application. As to agricultural lands, all leases shall be continued or made upon a crop share rental basis of not less than one-fourth (¼) of the annual crops to the state, or the usual landlord's share prevailing in the district, whichever is greater.

(2) In unusual cases the department may authorize a lease upon other basis than crop share, but in these unusual cases the rental shall at least equal the value of the usual landlord's share prevailing in the district, and the department shall set forth in the records the unusual conditions of the case and the rental to be charged.

(3) The rental rate for leasing all state grazing lands shall be based upon the appraised animal-unit-month carrying capacity of the land as provided in section 81-433. As to town and city lots owned by the state, the fair rental value thereof shall be determined from time to time by the department with the approval of the board and record made thereof, and such town or city property may be leased at its current appraised rental value for terms not to exceed five (5) years.

(4) All leases of agricultural or grazing lands, or town or city lots, shall be upon condition that the board may, in its discretion, offer the land for sale at any regular public sale of state lands held in the county where the land is situated, upon the same terms, and in the same manner as land not under lease.

81-404. Appraisal of grazing lands. (1) The department shall appraise the grazing lands owned by the state as to their animal-unit-month carrying capacity, and make and preserve records thereof in its office, and from time to time re-examine these lands as to their animal-unit-month carrying capacity so as to keep the records thereof in its office reasonably accurate.

(2) In appraising these grazing lands the following factors shall be taken into consideration:

(a) Inventory of the forage resources—kind, amount, and location of vegetation.

(b) Accessibility and usability of this forage resource as influenced by topography, availability of stock water, and season of usability.

(c) Condition of soils—the erosion situation.

(d) Other and related resources—such as timber, game animals, need for watershed protection.

(e) Record of needed improvements and facilities—fuel and stock water, revegetation, rodent control, trails, fences, and the like.

(f) Pertinent facts and figures submitted by stockmen living in the area and directors of state grazing districts including the land or in its vicinity.

(g) Carrying capacity set for similar land in a state grazing district in which the land is situated.

81-405. (1805.21) Renewal leases—preference right of lessee. (1) A lessee of state land classed as agricultural, grazing, town lot or city lot, who has paid all rentals due from him to the state, and who has not violated the terms of his lease, is entitled to have his lease renewed for a five (5) or ten (10) year period at the rental rate provided by law for the renewal period, and subject to any other conditions at the time of the renewal imposed by law as terms of the lease at any time within thirty (30) days prior to its expiration if no other applications for lease of the land have been received thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of his lease. If other applications have been received, the holder of the lease has the preference right to lease the land covered by his former lease by meeting the highest bid made by any other applicant. Applications for lease of lands in this section shall be given preference in the order of their receipt at the office of the department.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the board may withdraw any agricultural or grazing land from further leasing for such period as the board determines to be in the best interest of the state. Bids for leases and applications for renewals of leases of state agricultural lands or state grazing lands shall be in writing and sealed and shall be submitted to the board at the office of the department.

Compiler's Notes

Section 13 of Ch. 428, Laws 1973, redesignated this section as sec. 81-421.1.

81-407. (1805.23) Who may lease—how much and for what length of time. No person may lease state lands, except one who is the head of a family, unless he has attained the age of eighteen (18) years. Any such person and any association, company, or corporation authorized to hold lands under lease may lease state lands, and may hold more than one (1) lease to state lands, and there may be included under one (1) lease tracts of lands embracing more than one (1) section. No lease to agricultural or grazing lands may be for a period other than five (5) or ten (10) years. Leases for city and town lots may not exceed five (5) years. When a lease expires or is canceled the department shall immediately notify the holder of the lease and all persons who have expressed an interest in leasing the land during, or immediately preceding, the term of the expired or canceled lease. If the legislature raises the rentals for state grazing lands during the term of any leases of grazing land which are not issued as a result of competitive bidding, the lessee shall, for the years after the increase becomes effective, pay the increased rental, and the terms of grazing leases shall so provide.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 94 and once by Ch. 428. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment reduced the age specified at the end of the first sentence from 21 to 19 years.

Chapter 94, Laws of 1973, reduced the age specified at the end of the first sentence from nineteen to eighteen years.

Chapter 428, Laws of 1973, inserted "and may hold more than one (1) lease to state lands" in the middle of the second sentence; deleted a sentence restricting the duration of leases; substituted "department" for "commissioner" near the beginning of the present fourth sentence; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

81-412. (1805.26) Rental, when due—cancellation for nonpayment. The rental for the first year of the lease shall be paid at or before the time of the execution of the lease; however, in the case of leases which take effect on and after October 1 and before the expiration of the coming February, both the rental for the fractional year and for the next full year beginning March 1, shall be paid and collected at the time of issuing the lease. If the United States is the lessee of state lands for grazing purposes, the rental shall be payable at the end of each year of the lease. The rental for each succeeding year on leases hereafter issued, with the exception of leases wherein the United States is the lessee, is due and payable before March 1, and if not paid by April 1 the lease is canceled. The department shall notify the lessee by letter addressed to the post-office address given in the lease of the cancellation, and the land is then open for lease to other applicants.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment eliminated the fee of $2.50 for issuing the lease, and granted general authority for the commissioner of lands and investments to establish the fee with the approval of the board of land commissioners.

The 1973 amendment deleted "and such fee as may be prescribed by the commissioner of state lands and investments with the approval of the state board of land commissioners for issuing the lease" following "rental for the first year of the lease" near the beginning of the first sentence; deleted "to the commissioner of state lands and investments" following "due and payable" in the third sentence; substituted "before March 1" for "on December 15 next preceding the rental year to which the rental applies" in the third sentence; substituted "by April 1" for "on or before February 1 next following" near the end of the third sentence; substituted "is canceled" for "this nonpayment shall have the effect of canceling the lease from and after February 28 of that year" at the end of the third sentence; substituted "department" for "commissioner" in the last sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-413. (1805.27) Land to be leased in compact bodies—inspections to determine best use of land. All lands shall be leased in as compact bodies as possible, and care shall be taken not to separate parts of any section from the section lines or public highways or from any available water supply, or in a form that will make it more difficult to lease the remaining state lands in the section in which they are located. If there are applications or bids for renting certain land for grazing purposes and also applications or bids for renting the same land for agricultural purposes, an inspection of the land shall be made by the department at the earliest practical opportunity and a determination made, based on its findings, of the highest and best use which can be made of the land or portions thereof. Any lease of the land subsequent to the applications or bids shall be such as to return to the state revenue commensurate with the highest and best use.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 257, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department for references to the commissioner and his field agent; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-414. (1805.28) Change in terms of lease. When land is leased for grazing purposes, and the lessee desires to cultivate any part of the land, he shall, before doing any such cultivation, make application to the department stating how much land he desires to cultivate and showing the location in the section of the land, and agree that for the remainder of the term of the lease the annual rental shall be at the rate of the original lease until such time as the first crop is harvested from the cultivated portion of the lease. At the time of the first harvest, the lease shall be at the original rate for that portion remaining as grazing land plus the crop share rental for that portion cultivated. If any person cultivates lands leased for grazing purposes without first securing the right to do so under this section, the department shall either cancel the lease, subject to the appeal procedure provided in section 81-422, or require the lessee to pay twice the regular agricultural rental on the land so cultivated in addition to the grazing rental. The provisions of this section shall be incorporated in every lease.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "by the commissioner subject to the appeal procedure provided in section 81-422, R. C. M. 1947" in the third sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department for references to the commissioner; deleted "send his lease to the commissioner to have the necessary changes made therein" following "location in the section of the land" in the first sentence; substituted "the department shall either cancel the lease" for "the lease shall be subject to cancellation by the commissioner" in the third sentence; substituted "require the lessee to pay" for "the lessee shall be liable for" near the end of the third sentence; deleted "thereof as may be decided by the board" from the end of the third sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-415. Conditions of leases—cancellation for violation of rules. (1) It shall be a condition of all leases of agricultural or grazing state lands, (a) that, in the case of agricultural lands, the lessee shall observe the ordinary rules for good management of agricultural lands and shall handle the leased land with the view of maintaining its productivity and minimizing wind and soil erosion and noxious weeds, and planting crops with a view of securing the greatest yields of good quality, and (b) that, in the case of grazing lands, the lessee shall observe the ordinary rules for good range management and shall manipulate the numbers, class, distribution, and season of the range use and the handling, feeding, breeding, and marketing of grazing livestock with a view of securing the production of the maximum of livestock and livestock products, consistent with the conservation of the land resources and the perpetuation of its productivity, and to these ends the state land lease may not be abused by overgrazing.

(2) For the gross violation of any of these rules, the lease involved shall be canceled by the department, subject to the appeal procedure provided in section 81-422.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 207, L. 1945; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 254, L. 1947; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 27, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment, in the second paragraph, provided for mandatory cancellation by the commissioner subject to appeal to the board, rather than discretionary cancellation by the board on recommendation by the commissioner and after notice and opportunity for hearing.

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; substituted the reference to the department for a reference to the commissioner in subsection (2); and made minor changes in style and phraseology

81-416. (1805.29) Form of lease—bond. The general form of lease to state lands shall be prescribed by the board, and no changes in the form for these leases may be made without the approval of the board. All leases shall be issued in duplicate, one (1) copy shall be mailed to the lessee, and one (1) copy shall be preserved by the department. Unless the board decides otherwise, these leases shall be issued without bonds, but the board may require a bond and prescribe the form and conditions thereof whenever it considers it necessary.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted the reference to the department for a reference to the commissioner; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-418. (1805.31) Liens on crops and improvements. The state has a lien upon all crops growing upon any of its lands, and upon the crops after they have been separated from the lands for any rentals and penalties due or delinquent under the lease on the lands, or becoming due during the calendar year in which the crops are harvested, for any year or part of a year that the land has been held or used by the lessee. This lien applies to all buildings, structures, fences, and all other improvements, and is prior and superior to all other liens, except threshermen's liens and seed liens specified in sections 45-701 and 45-801, which have priority, but only for the aggregate amount of the indebtedness then existing, including any advances theretofore made, interest due and other charges as evidenced by the original loan-contract, and indebtedness thereafter accu mulating on such basis, exclusive of any other future advances originally contemplated. Any person acquiring any of these crops or improvements takes them subject to this lien. The department or the sheriff of the county in which the land is located may demand of the lessee payment of the amounts due the state, and if they are not paid upon demand, the officer making the demand, or the department, may seize and sell, either at a private or public sale, upon giving notice for not less than three (3) days of the sale, sufficient of those crops or improvements, or of both, to pay the amounts due the state together with costs and expenses of seizure and sale. These provisions relating to liens on crops and improvements shall be embodied in all leases for agricultural and grazing lands and for town, city, or other lots.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted the final clause of the second sentence, beginning "but only for the aggregate amount," for "as specified in section 52-301"; deleted "or his deputy" following "sheriff of the county in which the land is located" in the fourth sentence; deleted "or his agent" following "may demand of the lessee" in the fourth sentence; deleted "any personal representative of" before "the department, may seize," in the fourth sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-419. (1805.32) Assignment of leases — preferences — fee. Leases to state lands may be assigned on blanks prescribed by the department, but no assignment is binding on the state unless the assignment is filed with the department, approved by it and payment made of the assignment fee under section 81-108. Preference shall always be given to the applicant who wants the land for his own individual use, so that the full advantage coming from the leasing and use of the lands may reach those who actually till the soil, and so that they are not compelled to pay a higher rental than that due the state. If a lessee subleases state lands on terms less advantageous to the sublessee than the terms given by the state, or subleases state lands without filing a copy of the sublease with the department and without receiving its approval, the department shall cancel the lease, subject to the appeal procedure provided in section 81-422.

Amendments

Chapter 22, Laws of 1971, deleted the assignment fee of $3.00 and the sublease fee of $2.00 and granted general authority for the commissioner of lands and investments to prescribe such fee with the approval of the board of land commissioners.

Chapter 27, Laws of 1971, combined the former last two sentences into the present last sentence and provided for mandatory cancellation by the commissioner, subject to appeal, rather than discretionary cancellation by the board after hearing. For prior version, see parent volume.

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department for references to the state board of land commissioners; substituted "the assignment fee under section 81-108" for "such fee as may be prescribed by the commissioner of state lands and investments with the approval of the state board of land commissioners" at the end of the first sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-421. (1805.34) Compensation for improvements. (1) A lessee of state lands may place upon the lands a reasonable amount of improvements directly related to conservation of the land or necessary for proper utilization of it. These improvements may consist of fences, cultivation, and improvement of the land itself, irrigation ditches, sheds, wells, and reservoirs, and similar improvements. When another person becomes the lessee of such lands, he shall pay to the former lessee the reasonable value of these improvements at the time the new lessee takes possession. However, if any of the improvements consists of breaking (meaning the original plowing of the land), and one (1) year's crops have been raised on the land after the breaking, the compensation for the breaking may not exceed two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per acre, and if two (2) or more crops have been raised on the land after the breaking, the breaking shall not be considered as an improvement to the land. If the former lessee and the new lessee are unable to agree on the reasonable value of the improvements, the value shall be ascertained and fixed as provided in section 81-421.1.

(2) In determining the value of these improvements, consideration shall be given to their original cost, their present condition, their suitableness for the uses ordinarily made of the lands on which they are located, and to the general state of cultivation of the land, its productive capacity as affected by former use, and its condition with reference to the infestation of noxious weeds. Consideration shall be given to all actual improvements and to all known effects that the use and occupancy of the land have had upon its productive capacity and desirableness for the new lessee. The former lessee may, however, remove the movable improvements on the land and dispose of them to parties other than the lessee; if he fails to remove the improvements from the land within sixty (60) days from the date of the expiration of his lease, all of the improvements become the property of the state, unless the department for good cause grants additional time for their removal. Before a lease is issued to the new lessee he shall show that he has paid the former lessee the value of the improvements as agreed upon by them or as fixed and determined under section 81-421.1, or that he has offered to pay the value of the improvements as so fixed and determined, or that the former lessee elects to remove the improvements.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; substituted "section 81-421.1" for "this act" at the end of subsection (1); substituted "department" for "commissioner" near the end of the third sentence; changed the statutory reference near the end of the last sentence in subsection (2) from section 81-406 to section 81-421.1; and made numerous minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-421.1. (1805.22) Arbitrators to fix value of improvements—appeal. If the owner of any improvements on state lands of the type authorized by law at the time they were placed thereon desires to sell these improvements to the new lessee, and they are unable to agree on the value thereof, the value shall be ascertained and fixed by three (3) arbitrators, one of whom shall be appointed by the owner of the improvements, one by the new lessee and the third by the two (2) arbitrators so appointed. The reasonable compensation that the arbitrators may fix shall be paid in equal shares by the owner of the improvements and the new lessee. The value of the improvements so ascertained and fixed is binding on both parties, however, if either party is dissatisfied with the valuation so fixed, he may within ten (10) days appeal from their decision to the department which shall examine the improvements, and its decision shall be final. The department shall charge and collect the actual cost of the re-examination to the owner and the new lessee in such proportion as in its judgment justice may demand. The value of the improvements shall be ascertained and fixed as section 81-421 provides.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 260, L. 1963; Sec. 81-406, R. C. M. 1947; redes. 81-421.1 and amd. by Sec. 13, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment renumbered this section; substituted references to the department for references to the commissioner; deleted "thereupon cause the chief field agent or assistant field agent to" before "examine the improvements" near the end of the second sentence; substituted "section 81-421 provides" for "hereinafter and in this act provided" at the end of the section; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-422. (1805.36) Cancellation of leases. (1) The department may cancel a lease for any of the following causes: fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment of facts relating to its issue, which if known would have prevented its issue in the form or to the party issued; using the land for other purposes than those authorized by the lease; and for any other cause which in the judgment of the department makes the cancellation of the lease necessary in order to do justice to all parties concerned and to protect the interests of the state. Such cancellation does not entitle the lessee to any refund of rentals paid or exemption from the payment of any rentals, penalties, or other compensation due the state.

(2) When the department cancels a lease pursuant to this section or sections 81-414, 81-415, or 81-419, it shall immediately notify the lessee by certified mail of the cancellation and the reasons therefor. The date of cancellation is fifteen (15) days from the date the notice is received by the lessee. The lessee has fifteen (15) days after the receipt of the notice to file with the department a notice of appeal for a hearing before the board. If notice of appeal is filed, the lease remains in effect until the decision of the board. Within ten (10) days after notice of appeal has been filed, the department shall set the time and place of hearing and shall so notify the lessee. The board may, after ten (10) days' notice to the lessee, change the time and place of hearing.

(3) Under rules it adopts, the board shall conduct an open hearing to determine whether the lease should be reinstated. The burden of proof is on the lessee to show why the lease should not be canceled. If the lease is reinstated, all of the lessee's rights and privileges thereunder shall be preserved; if not, the land shall be open for releasing as provided by law. If the board finds that the terms of the lease have been violated, but in its judgment the violation is not serious enough to warrant cancellation, it may reinstate the lease and assess a penalty up to three (3) times the annual rental against the lessee.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "commissioner" for "board" in two places; added the last two paragraphs on the procedure for cancellation by the commissioner and appeal to the board; and made a minor change in phraseology.

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; substituted references to the department for references to the commissioner; inserted "for a hearing before the board" at the end of the third sentence in subsection (2); deleted from subsection (3) a second sentence reading "All testimony shall be given under oath and reduced to writing"; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 97 and once by Ch. 428. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 97, Laws of 1973, increased the base rental from 32 cents plus twice the price of beef to 50 cents plus three times the price of beef.

Chapter 428, Laws of 1973, numbered the subsections; lettered the subdivisions in subsection (1); substituted "department" for "commissioner of state lands and investments" near the end of subsection (4); deleted "the bureau of agricultural economics of" before "the United States department of agriculture" in subsection (5); and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

The department shall retain the deposit of the successful bidder and apply it on the rental for the first year of the lease only, and return any balance of the deposit at the end of the first year to the successful bidder, and return the deposits of the unsuccessful bidders. If the successful bidder fails to execute the lease for any reason, his deposit shall be forfeited and deposited by the department to the credit of the proper interest and income account in the federal and private revenue fund.

CHAPTER 5—COAL MINING LEASES AND PERMITS

Section
81-501. Coal mining leases.
81-502. Maximum term of lease—form.
81-506. Improvements of former lessee.
81-508. Report and payment of royalty.
81-510. Disposition of royalties and other receipts.

81-501. (1805.38) Coal mining leases. (1) The state board of land commissioners may lease in such manner as it considers in the best interests of the state any state lands to which the title is vested in the state and in which the coal or coal rights are not reserved by the United States for exploring for, mining, removing, selling, and disposing of the coal therein, upon the terms and conditions herein stated, and subject to such rules and regulations as the board prescribes. This power extends to state lands no matter how acquired, and extends to state lands which have been sold but in which the coal rights are reserved by the state, whether the lands are under certificate of purchase or patents have been issued; in such cases and in all cases where the lands are under lease for grazing, agriculture, or similar purposes, care shall be taken in issuing the coal mining lease to protect the rights of the purchaser or lessee.

(2) These coal leases are subject to the condition that the coal must be mined, handled, and marketed in a manner that will prevent as far as possible all waste of coal, and are also subject to the condition that the mining operations shall be carried on in a systematic and orderly manner that will not make subsequent mining operations more difficult or expensive. A violation of any of these conditions is grounds for the forfeiture of the lease, after a hearing before the board.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 30, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections and made numerous changes in style and phraseology.

81-502. (1805.39) Maximum term of lease—form. No coal mining lease may be issued for more than twenty (20) years, but the board may establish rules for the renewal of a lease at the expiration of the term it considers proper and necessary. The board shall prescribe the form of the lease.

Chapter 22, Laws of 1971, deleted the fee of $5.00 for issuing the lease and approving the bond, and granted general authority for the commissioner of lands and investments to prescribe such fee with the approval of the board of land commissioners.

Chapter 291, Laws of 1971, added the second paragraph.

The 1973 amendment deleted "the fee for issuing the lease and proving the bond hereinafter provided shall be such fee as may be prescribed by the commissioner of state lands and investments with the approval of the state board of land commissioners payable to the commissioner" from the end of the first paragraph; deleted a second paragraph giving temporary exchange rights to certain lessees; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-506. (1805.43) Improvements of former lessee. When a coal mining lease is applied for on land where mining operations have been carried on by a former lessee, and there are surface or underground improvements on the land used at the former operations, disposition shall be made of the improvements satisfactory to the board before a new lease is issued. If the owner of such improvement desires to sell the same to the new lessee, then the new lessee shall pay him the reasonable value thereof as far as they are suitable for the new mining operations. If they fail to agree on the value of such improvements, then such value shall be ascertained and fixed as provided in section 81-421.1.

Before a new lease is issued, the applicant shall show to the satisfaction of the board that he has paid the owner for the improvements as agreed on between them, or as fixed by the aforesaid officers, or officer, or that he has tendered payment as so fixed, or that the owner desires to remove his improvements.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 32, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

81-508. (1805.45) Report and payment of royalty. On or before the last day of each month every holder of a producing coal mining lease shall make a report to the department on a form the department prescribes, showing the number of tons mined during the preceding calendar month, the price obtained therefor at the mine, the total amount of all sales, and any additional information required by the department. The report shall be verified by the oath of the lessee and be accompanied by payment of the royalty due the state for the preceding month as shown by the report.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 33, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

missioner"; inserted a new clause providing for credits to the general fund; substituted "the permanent fund arising from the grant to which the land under each particular lease belongs" at the end of the section for "the same funds that such receipts under oil and gas leases on such lands would be credited under the provisions of this act"; and made other minor changes.

(1) "Metalliferous minerals" mean gold, silver, lead, zinc, copper, platinum, iron, and all other metallic minerals.

(2) "Gems" mean sapphires, rubies, and other stones commonly known as "precious stones" or "semiprecious stones," but do not mean stones or other earth materials commonly used in building or construction work.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted numbers for letters in designating the subsections; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-601.1. Prospecting permits. Prospecting permits without lease may be issued by the board upon the payment of the issuance fee under section 81-108. The permittee shall also pay an annual fee established by the department and approved by the board at the end of each year during the life of the permit. A permit shall provide for due diligence in the work of prospecting during the life of the permit. A permit shall be limited to prospecting for metalliferous minerals or gems and no permittee may remove from any lands or mineral rights covered by the permit any metalliferous minerals or gems except such as are necessary for the proper testing and sampling of the lands or mineral rights, and except as are permitted by the board. During the life of any permit the permittee may apply for a lease of the lands or mineral rights covered by the permit, and if a lease is granted it shall be in the form and subject to all the terms and conditions specified in this chapter, as in the case of a mining lease issued under this chapter. The permittee has the preference right to a lease, upon such terms as the board considers just, subject to this chapter, and in any event the permittee has preference without competitive bidding, and upon the most favorable terms permitted under this chapter, to forty (40) contiguous acres. If some other person makes a better bid for a mining lease upon the land covered by the permit, and if the board awards a mining lease to a better bidder, the board shall also require such mining lessee to pay to the permittee, prior to the issuance of the lease, the full value of all the work the permittee has performed upon the land under his permit in connection with his prospecting and exploration work, and the permittee may remove from the land, within thirty (30) days from the date the board gives the permittee notice of the issuance of the mining lease, or within such further time as the board, upon good cause shown, allows, any machinery, equipment, improvements, and other property placed thereon by him.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 22, L. 1971; Sec. 81-615, R. C. M. 1947; redes. 81-601.1 and amd. by Sec. 47, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment eliminated statutory fees for issuance of prospecting permits without lease, and granted general authority for the commissioner of lands and investments to prescribe such fees with the approval of the board of land commissioners.

The 1973 amendment renumbered this section; deleted a first sentence saving permits and leases outstanding in 1937; substituted references to the department for references to the commissioner of state lands and investments; substituted "the issuance fee under section 81-108" at the end of the first sentence for "such fee as may be prescribed by the commissioner of state lands and investments with the approval of the state board of land commissioners at the time of the issuance of such permits"; substituted "The permittee shall also pay an annual fee established by the department and approved by the board" for "and such further fees as may be established by the commissioner of state lands and investments with approval of the state board of land commissioners" at the beginning of the second sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-602. Empowering board to lease, etc. The board may, in its discretion, subject to the other provisions of this chapter, lease state lands, including the beds of navigable streams and the beds of navigable bodies of water, and the reserved mineral rights of the state in lands sold or leased by the state, to any person, association, or corporation, for the purpose of prospecting for or mining metalliferous minerals or gems.

These leases may be for a period of time determined by the board, subject to limitations contained in the grants by which the state has acquired title to lands or mineral rights so leased.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 36, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-603. Provisions of leases. Leases issued under this chapter shall give the lessee, so long as he complies with the terms and conditions of the lease, the exclusive right of possession of the lands or mineral rights leased, subject to any reservations contained in the leases. A lease may contain reasonable provisions for preliminary prospecting periods, and shall contain reasonable requirements for the prosecution of work during the prospecting period (if any), and for the prosecution of mining after the prospecting period. It may provide for the payment of rentals in conjunction with the work requirements, or may prescribe cash rentals as an alternative, or otherwise, as the board considers best. It shall specify the term of the lease, the royalty to be paid, reasonable forfeiture provisions, and reasonable terms under which the lessee may, within a time limited in the lease, remove property placed upon the leased lands by him, in the event of the termination of the lease by forfeiture or by lapse of time. It may also contain other provisions the board and the lessee agree upon, not inconsistent with this chapter. In short the board in making the leases may exercise business discretion, so long as this chapter is not violated. No mining lessee may, during any preliminary prospecting period contained in any lease, remove any metalliferous minerals or gems from the leased premises, except as are necessary for the proper testing and sampling of the lands or mineral rights, and except as are permitted by the board. The board, by agreement with the permittee or lessee, may, in its discretion and upon such terms as it considers best, amend or modify the terms and conditions within the limitations of this chapter or extend the term of any lease or prospecting permit issued under this chapter, subject to the limitations contained in section 81-602.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 205, L. 1947; amd. Sec. 37, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment made minor changes in style, punctuation and phraseology.

81-604. Royalties—pooling agreements and unit plans of operation. (1) In every mining lease the board shall reserve to the state a royalty which shall, together with other considerations to be paid by the mining lessee, constitute the full market value as ascertained by the board of the leasehold interest conveyed by the lease. This royalty may not be less than five per cent (5%) of the returns from, or of the full market value of, the metalliferous minerals or gems recovered by the lessee from the state lands or reserved mineral rights covered by the lease.

(2) The board may enter into agreements for the pooling of acreage or yardage with others holding the mineral rights in adjoining lands, for unit operation of placer mining and the apportionment of royalties on a cubic yardage or area basis in the case of placer mining deposits lying partly on land in which the state holds the mining rights, and partly on land in which others hold the mining rights. From each cleanup of values under such unit operations in which any yardage or area mined on lands to which the state holds the mineral rights is included, the state is entitled to royalties computed on that proportion of the whole value of recoveries from the cleanup as the yardage or area mined from lands included in the agreement in which the state holds the mining rights, bears to the total yardage or area mined and included in the cleanup. The board may also enter into agreements for the unit operation of such placer mining deposits and the apportionment of royalties upon any other equitable basis the board considers in the best interest of the state. The agreements may not change the percentage of royalties to be paid to the state under the unit operations from the percentage fixed in the lease, or to a smaller percentage than the five per cent (5%) minimum under this section.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; substituted "smaller percentage than the five per cent (5%) minimum under this section" for "less percentage than the minimum provided by law" at the end of subsection (2); and made minor changes in style, phraseology and punctuation.

81-605. Quantity of lands. A mining lease shall cover the quantity of ground the board determines to be reasonable and consistent with the character of the ground, the type of deposit or deposits for which the lands are to be mined, and the character and size of the operation contemplated, necessary, or reasonable in good mining practice, for the profitable recovery of the metalliferous minerals or gems therefrom.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 39, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-606. Applications. Application for a mining lease shall be made to the department on a form prescribed by it.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 40, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment eliminated provisions for a maximum fee of $100 and setting forth criteria for the determination thereof, and instead granted general authority for the commissioner of lands and investments to prescribe such fee with the approval of the board of land commissioners.

The 1973 amendment rewrote this section, which formerly provided for the forms of applications to be prepared by the state board of land commissioners and for a fee to be paid at the time of issuance of a mining lease.

81-607. Bonds to state. The board may, at the time of the execution and delivery of a mining lease, or at any time during the life of the lease, require a mining lessee to file with the department, for the benefit of the state, a bond or bonds conditioned to protect the rights of the state, particularly in the payment to the proper officer of the state of the royalties reserved in the mining lease. The bond or bonds shall be in a form and amount prescribed by the board. The board may at any time require new or additional bonds if, in its discretion, the interests of the state are not adequately protected by the bond or bonds previously filed.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 41, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "the department" for "the board" in the first sentence; substituted "and amount prescribed by the board" at the end of the second sentence for "and the sufficiency thereof to be subject to the approval of the board"; deleted "with it in connection with any such mining lease" from the end of the last sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-608. Bonds to protect lessees, contractees, etc. If the lands at the time of the issuance of a mining lease have been sold, or are under contract of sale, or have been leased for agricultural, grazing, or other purposes, the board shall provide against the infringement of the rights of the prior purchaser, contractee, or lessee, and among other things may at any time require the mining lessee to file with the department a corporate surety bond in a reasonable amount fixed by the board, conditioned to protect the rights of the prior purchaser, contractee, or lessee. The form of the bond shall be prescribed by the board, and the bond shall run to the state for the benefit of the prior purchaser, contractee, or lessee. New or additional bonds may be required by the board at any time. Suit may be brought upon the bond by any such prior purchaser, contractee, or lessee, for alleged violation of the terms of the bond by the mining lessee, and such suit shall be brought by the claimant in the name of the state for the use and benefit of the claimant, and any recovery upon the bond shall be paid to the claimant.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 42, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "the department" for "said board" preceding "a corporate surety bond" near the end of the first sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-611. Examination of lands. Before the board leases any lands for the mining of metalliferous metals or gems, the department shall investigate the character of the lands and the nature and possible extent of the mineral deposits therein, for the purpose of determining whether those lands are of such a character as to warrant the issuance of a mining lease thereon, and for the purpose of determining the amount of royalty and other rentals or considerations for which the lands should be leased for mining purposes under this chapter. Upon the filing of an application for a mining lease the board may, if the lands covered by the application have not been examined by the department, require the applicant for the lease to deposit with the department an amount of money, not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) in any one case, which, in its judgment, will cover the cost of a special examination, to enable the board to pass upon the application in accordance with this chapter. Such deposit shall be used to reimburse the state for the actual cost of the examination, and any portion of the deposit not required for such reimbursement shall, upon the approval or rejection of the application, be repaid to the applicant by the department. The department shall make and preserve complete records of all such examinations.

81-612. Failure of title. In issuing mining leases, the board and the state have leased only such right, title, and interest as the state has in the lands, metalliferous minerals or gems therein contained. Neither the state, the board, nor any representative, agent, or employee of the state or the board, are under any liability for the failure of the title of the state, in whole or in part, to the lands, metalliferous minerals, or gems covered by the lease.

81-613. Assignment of leases or permits. In case of the assignment of a mining lease or a prospecting permit by the holder thereof, the mining lessee or permittee executing the assignment is not relieved of any responsibility for operations under the lease or prospecting permit until the financial and moral responsibility of the assignee has been approved by the board, nor until there is deposited with the department:

(a) The assignment or an executed copy thereof;

(b) An instrument executed by the sureties upon any bonds then held by the board in connection with the mining lease or permit and then in force, consenting to the assignment and containing the agreement of the sureties to be bound by the bonds under the assignment, or new bonds conforming to all the requirements of section 81-607; and

(c) A fee prescribed under section 81-108.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 148, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 22, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 45, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department" for "board" at the end of the preliminary paragraph; rewrote subdivision (c), which formerly read "Such fee as may be prescribed by the commissioner of the state lands and investments with the approval of the state board of land commissioners"; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

CHAPTER 7—LEASES AND PERMITS FOR DEPOSITS OF STONE, GRAVEL, SAND AND OTHER MINERALS

Section
81-701. The board may issue leases.
81-702. Report of lessee and payment and distribution of royalties and other receipts.
81-704. Stone, gravel and sand permits for public use.

81-701. (1805.52) The board may issue leases. When there are found upon state lands deposits of stone, limestone, oil shale, clay, bentonite, calsite, talc, mica, ceramic, asbestos, marble, diatomite, gravel or sand, or phosphate, sodium, potash, sulphur, fluorite or barite, or any other nonmetallic minerals, but not including coal, oil, or gas, valuable for building, mining, or other commercial purposes, the state board of land commissioners may, in its discretion, issue to private persons permits or leases for the removal and disposition of the above named deposits, upon such terms and conditions as the board may determine. All such leases shall be upon a royalty basis calculated upon a gross value by weight or cubic measurement as is most favorable for the particular substance being mined or extracted from the lands. The gross value shall be determined at the mine or site of operation, and the rates shall be the same that ordinarily would be charged by private owners under similar circumstances, or as in the determination of the board is fair and reasonable. The fee for issuing the lease is the same as for an oil and gas lease. No such lease shall be made for a longer term than ten (10) years, and the board may demand a cash deposit to guarantee the payment of the royalties, or demand a surety bond, or both a cash deposit and bond, as the board may determine.

81-702. (1805.53) Report of lessee and payment and distribution of royalties and other receipts. On or before the last day of each month, every holder of a producing lease under this chapter, shall make a report to the department of state lands on a form the department prescribes, showing the amount of substances mined or extracted from the lands in the preceding month, the price obtained, the total amount of sales and any additional information required. The report shall be verified by affidavit of the lessee, or some responsible person having knowledge of the facts, and shall be accompanied by payment of the amount to the state as royalty for the month covered by the report. The royalties, fees, and penalties received under these leases shall be credited to the various funds to which they properly belong in the same manner as is now provided for crediting the same under oil and gas leases.

81-704. (1805.55) Stone, gravel and sand permits for public use. The board may in its discretion, issue permits upon such terms and conditions it determines, to the department of highways, the board of county commissioners of any county of the state, or to the governing body of a city or town and of any other political subdivision of the state, granting them the right to take, remove, and use stone, gravel, or sand from any state lands that have not been sold under certificate of purchase or otherwise for the construction, maintenance, and improvement of public roads, highways, bridges, streets, or alleys. The rights of lessees to the lands on which such stone, gravel, or sand may be located shall be properly safeguarded under the terms of the permits.

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 51, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 8—GRANTING OF EASEMENTS FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES

Section

81-801. Sale of state lands to United States—easements for public purposes granted—mineral reservations—land for projects administered by the department of natural resources and conservation.
81-802. Easements for school sites and grounds and other public uses.
81-803. Easements on state land—application for—action on.

81-801. (1805.56) Sale of state lands to United States—easements for public purposes granted—mineral reservations—land for projects administered by the department of natural resources and conservation. (1) Any state lands needed by the United States in the construction of projects for the control of floods, river regulation, conservation of water, irrigation, and reclamation works, or transmission or distribution of electric energy, shall, upon application to the board of land commissioners, be sold and conveyed to the United States at the price per acre fixed by the board of appraisers appointed by the United States to appraise and value lands to be included within such projects and needed by the United States in the construction thereof, subject, however, to the approval of the state board of land commissioners and the price limitations of the Enabling Act and the state constitution.

(2) There is granted to the United States over all state lands an easement of sufficient width for the purpose desired for right of way for ditches, canals, tunnels, telephone, telegraph, and electric power lines now constructed or to be constructed by the United States in furtherance of the reclamation of arid lands, flood control, river regulation, conservation of water, and transmission and distribution of electric energy.

(3) All conveyances of state lands shall contain a reservation of such rights of way easements. If the lands herein granted as rights of way cease to be used for that purpose, they shall revert to the state, upon notice to that effect being given to the proper authorities.

(4) The mineral reservations now applying to sale of lands received through grants from the United States apply to all lands sold to the United States under this section, but all prospecting and exploration for minerals therein, the mining and removal thereof, and all operations carried on in connection therewith, must be carried on in such manner and under such regulations that they will not interfere with the use of the lands for the purposes for which they have been purchased by the United States.

(5) Lands needed by the United States for any of the previously specified purposes may be appraised or reappraised without appraising the remaining state lands in the county in which they are located. The lands shall be appraised at their full market value.

(6) The provisions of this section governing the sale of state lands to the United States also apply to the sale of state lands for projects financed by the United States under the administration of the department of natural resources and conservation, except as to appraisal by the United States.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Secs. 1, 2, 3 and 4, Ch. 37, Ex. L. 1933; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 80, L. 1945; amd. Sec. 52, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "section" for "act" near the beginning of subsections (4) and (6); substituted "department of natural resources and conservation" for "state water conservation board" near the end of subsection (6); and made minor changes in phraseology.

81-802. (1805.57) Easements for school sites and grounds and other public uses. The board may grant easements in state lands for schoolhouse sites and grounds, for public parks, community buildings, cemeteries, and other public uses upon proper applications accompanied by accurate and duly verified plats from the lawfully constituted authorities having charge of those properties.

History: En. Sec. 57, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 257, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 53, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment made minor changes in style.

81-803. (1805.61) Easements on state land—application for—action on. (1) Application for an easement on state land must be made to the department of state lands. It shall describe the proposed right of way according to survey, show the necessity for the proposed highway or street or other easement, and give any additional information the department requires. This application shall be accompanied by two (2) exact copies of the official plat of the proposed highway, street, or other easement duly verified by the affidavit of the county surveyor or county or city engineer, or other engineer having prepared the same, endorsed thereon. These plats shall show the quantity of land taken by the proposed highway or street or other easement for each forty (40) acre tract or government lot of state land over or through which it passes and also the amount of land remaining in each portion of that forty (40) acre tract or government lot. When deemed necessary by the department, these plats shall show all these facts for such smaller subdivisions as the circumstances may render desirable for the state. However, when the purpose of the right of way applied for is the transmission or distribution of electric energy, or the construction and operation of pipelines or telephone, telegraph or radio systems, the plats and measurements need not be given, except the description of the location of the center line of the right of way, and the entire right of way may be applied for in one application with only one plat of the entire right of way required. Easements granted under this section include permission to install and maintain poles, anchors, and other appurtenances necessary for the mechanical support of the transmission or distribution lines.

(2) Upon the filing of an application and plats, the department shall, whenever it considers it necessary, examine the proposed right of way and report its findings to the board. The board shall consider the application and report and take any action it considers proper, including the fixing of compensation and damages to be paid to the state. The compensation shall be the full market value of the estate or interest disposed of through the granting of the right of way easement, and the damages shall be the actual damages resulting to the remaining land as nearly as they can be ascertained. If the right of way is granted according to the plat, the plat shall become the official plat thereof, and shall be retained in the office of the department. The board shall issue right of way deeds for all such easements that it grants, upon full payment being made.

(3) If the state land over or through which a right of way is applied for is under certificate of purchase or sales contract, the purchaser, or his assignee, must be made a party to the proceedings, and his consent in writing to the laying out and establishment of the proposed highway, street, or other easement, and to the amount of compensation and damages to be paid, must be filed with the board before the right of way is granted. The board is the judge of how much compensation and damages shall be paid to the state and applied on the certificate of purchase or sales contract and of how much, if any, shall be paid to the purchaser, as the circumstances in each individual case warrant. This subsection applies to all grants of rights of way on state lands.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department of state lands for references to the state board of land commissioners; substituted "section" for "provisions of this act" in the last sentence of subsection (1); substituted "examining proposed right of way" for "cause the proposed right of way to be viewed and examined by the chief field agent or some assistant field agent" in the first sentence of subsection (2); substituted "issue right of way deeds for all such easements that it grants" for "cause right of way deeds to be issued for all such easements that it may hereafter grant" near the end of subsection (2); and made minor changes in style, punctuation and phraseology.

Lands which in the judgment of the board of land commissioners are likely to contain valuable deposits of coal, oil, oil shale, phosphate, metals, sodium, or other valuable mineral deposits, are not subject to sale, either the surface land or any of such deposits therein. However, this does not prohibit the sale of lands containing sand, gravel, building stone, brick clay, or similar materials.

History: En. Sec. 64, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 55, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "gas" following "oil shale" in the second sentence; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-902. (1805.65) Mineral reservations in state lands. All coal, oil, oil shale, gas, phosphate, sodium, and other mineral deposits, except sand, gravel, building stone, and brick clay, in state lands, which were not reserved by the United States before July 1, 1927, are reserved to the state. All those deposits are reserved from sale except upon a rental and royalty basis as provided by law. A purchaser of state lands acquires no right, title, or interest in or to any of those deposits. The state also reserves for itself and its lessees the right to enter upon these lands to prospect for, develop, mine, and remove those deposits and to occupy and use so much of the surface of the lands as may be required for all purposes reasonably extending to the exploring for, mining, and removal of the deposits therefrom, but the lessee shall make just payment to the purchaser for all damage done by reason of such entry upon the land and the use and occupancy of the surface thereof.

81-905. (1805.68) Surveying and platting left to discretion of board. It shall be entirely optional with the board whether or not state lands, or any part thereof, shall be surveyed, platted and laid off into blocks and lots as hereinabove provided, as may appear to be for the best interests of the state. All lands within the limits of any town or city or within three (3) miles of such limits shall, however, be subdivided into lots or tracts of not more than five (5) acres each before being offered for sale and the lots must then be sold alternately at regular sales of state lands.

When such tracts of five (5) acres or less have been sold, the board shall whenever deemed necessary cause the plat thereof to be filed for record with the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the land is situated, but if the same purchaser bids in two or more adjoining lots or tracts, all the lots so purchased shall at the option of the purchaser be included in one certificate of purchase.

History: En. Sec. 68, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 41, Ch. 100, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "within the limits of any town or city or within three (3) miles of such limits" in the second sentence of the first paragraph for "of the fourth class as defined by section 1, article XVII, of the constitution"; and deleted "as provided by section 2, article XVII, of the constitution" after "sold alternately" in the second sentence of the first paragraph.

81-908. (1805.71) Who may purchase and how much. State lands shall be sold only to citizens of the United States or to persons who have declared their intentions to become citizens, or to corporations organized under the laws of this state. No person shall be qualified to purchase state land who has not reached the age of eighteen (18) years. As far as possible to determine the lands shall be sold only to actual settlers or to persons who will improve the same, and not to persons who are likely to hold such lands for speculative purposes intending to resell the same at a higher price without having added anything to their value. No person or corporation shall be entitled to purchase more than one section of state land, and this area shall not include more than one hundred and sixty (160) acres of land susceptible of irrigation. These limitations as to area and irrigableness shall not apply to lands within a federal irrigation project wherein the Congress of the United States of America now or hereafter authorizes water to be furnished to an area exceeding one hundred and sixty (160) irrigable acres.

State lands may be sold to any sovereign state of the United States or to any board of trustees or public corporation or agency of such state created by such state as an agency or political subdivision thereof. Said lands may be purchased in the quantities set forth in this section for use by such state, board of trustees, public corporation, agency, or political subdivision for educational or scientific purposes.

The title to any state lands which have been heretofore purchased by a sovereign state or a board of trustees or public corporation, agency or political subdivision thereof qualified under the provisions of this act is hereby ratified and confirmed.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment reduced the age specified at the end of the second sentence of the first paragraph from 21 to 19 years.

The 1973 amendment reduced the age specified at the end of the second sentence of the first paragraph from 19 to 18 years.

81-910. (1805.73) Notice of sale. (1) The department shall give notice of each sale by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sale is to be held, once each week through the four (4) consecutive weeks preceding the date of sale. The notice shall give the day, date, and time of the beginning of the sale, and contain a list of all the tracts to be offered for sale showing the township and range in which they are located, describing them with reference to section number and subdivision of the section, or with reference to block and lot if surveyed, the number of acres in unplatted lands, and the appraised value per acre and the appraised value of each lot. As a general rule nonirrigable farming lands shall be listed in quarter sections; grazing lands may be listed in larger tracts not exceeding one (1) section.

(2) For the convenience of the bidders, the department may assign to the tracts advertised a consecutive series of sales numbers and show the sales number of each tract in the notice of sale.

(3) The notice shall also give the terms and conditions of sale, and any additional information the department considers useful.

History: En. Sec. 73, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 184, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 57, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; substituted references to the department for references to the commissioner; substituted "a newspaper of general circulation in" for "the official county paper" in the first sentence of subsection (1); and made minor changes in style, phraseology and punctuation.

81-912. (1805.75) Regulations concerning sale—forfeiture for nonpayment—disposition of proceeds. (1) At the time fixed for the sale, the lands shall be offered for sale at auction in the order they appear in the notice of sale, and under the direction of the department the lands shall be sold to the highest qualified bidder under the following restrictions:

(a) No lands may be sold for less than the appraised value;

(b) Tillable lands capable of producing agricultural crops may not be sold for less than ten dollars ($10) per acre;

(c) Lands principally valuable for grazing purposes may not be sold for less than five dollars ($5) per acre.

(2) The lessee of the land need not make a higher bid than others, but he shall, if bidding an equal amount, be given the preference. The lands shall be sold as nearly as practicable according to the subdivisions in which they are advertised, and care shall be taken not to subdivide any tract in such a way as to separate remaining portions from a water supply or from section lines or public highways. The sale may be adjourned from day to day until all the lands advertised have been offered for sale.

(3) If any successful bidder at a sale refuses or neglects to make the initial payment required to be made on the land purchased by him, he shall forfeit to the state not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1000) to be determined by the board according to the circumstances of the case. If such forfeiture is not paid when notice of the amount of the forfeiture has been served by the department, the attorney general shall sue for the recovery thereof in the name of the state.

(4) The proceeds from the lands sold, including all subsequent payments on the principal, shall be credited to the permanent fund arising from the grant to which it belongs and shall become and forever remain an inseparable and inviolable part thereof. All payments on interest shall be credited to the proper income fund and shall be available for use as provided by law.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; substituted "direction of the department" for "personal direction of the commissioner or the assistant commissioner, one of whom shall be present at the sale" near the end of the preliminary clause in subsection (1); substituted "department" for "commissioner" near the end of the second sentence in subsection (3); and made minor changes in style, phraseology and punctuation.

81-915. (1805.79) Terms of payment. (1) Every purchaser of state land shall pay on the day of sale that portion of the purchase price as he may desire, but in no case less than ten per cent (10%) of the total sales price, and in case the balance on the purchase price is not an exact multiple of twenty-five dollars ($25), then he shall pay such additional sum as is necessary to reduce the balance to an even multiple of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(2) The balance of the purchase price shall draw interest at the rate of five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually, and the balance of the purchase price itself shall be payable through a period of thirty-three (33) years on the amortization plan. This plan is defined as being that plan under which part of the principal is required to be paid each time interest becomes due and payable, and under which this part payment on the principal increases at each succeeding installment in the same amount that the interest payment decreases so that the combined amount due on principal and interest on each due date remains the same until the loan or bond is paid in full. However, the amount of the last installment may vary from the other installments to the extent resulting from disregarding fractional cents in the previous installments. The balance of the purchase price on town and city lots shall be payable on the amortization plan through a period of twenty (20) years, but the board may at any time fix a shorter period than twenty (20) years for the payment of the balance on town and city lots, and different periods of time may be established for different towns and cities as the best interests of the state demand.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted the fee of $5.00 for issuance of certificate of purchase, and granted general authority for the commissioner of lands and investments to prescribe such fee with the approval of the board of land commissioners.

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; deleted "he shall also in all cases pay such fee as may be prescribed by the commissioner of state lands and investments with the approval of the state board of land commissioners for each certificate of purchase to be issued to him" from the end of subsection (1); and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-916. (1805.80) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 81-916 (Sec. 80, Ch. 60, L. 1927), relating to conversion of certificates of purchase issued prior to February 13, 1923, to amortization certificates, was repealed by Sec. 116, Ch. 428, Laws 1973.

81-917. (1805.81) Lien on improvements and crops for principal, interest. The state has a lien prior and superior to all other liens, except threshermen's liens and seed liens as specified in sections 45-701 and 45-801, which have priority, but only for the aggregate amount of the indebtedness then existing, including any advances theretofore made, interest due and other charges as evidenced by the original loan-contract, and indebtedness thereafter accumulating on such basis, exclusive of any other future advances originally contemplated. This lien is upon all buildings, structures, fences, and all other improvements upon the lands so sold and upon all crops growing upon any of these lands, and also upon such crops after they have been separated from the lands, for all due and delinquent installments of principal and interest and penalty interest and taxes under the certificate of purchase and also for all installments becoming due during the calendar year in which the crop is harvested, and this lien is hereby expressly reserved. Any person purchasing or otherwise acquiring the improvements or crops or any part thereof, takes them subject to the lien. Any representative of the department or sheriff of the county in which the land is located, or his deputy, may demand of the purchaser or his agent payment of the amounts due the state, and if they are not paid upon demand, the officer making the demand, or any representative of the department, may immediately seize the improvements and crops, and upon giving three (3) days' notice, sell and dispose of, either at private or public sale, sufficient of the crops or improvements or of both to pay the amounts due the state, together with cost and expenses of seizure and sale.

History: En. Sec. 81, Ch. 60, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 60, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted the latter part of the first sentence, beginning "but only for the aggregate," for "as specified in section 52-301"; and made minor changes in style, phraseology and punctuation.

81-919. (1805.83) Settlement for improvements. If any state land is sold on which there are improvements belonging to a lessee, and some person other than the lessee is the purchaser, that person shall settle with the lessee for all improvements on the land belonging to the lessee before the issuance of the certificate of purchase. The provisions of sections 81-421 and 81-421.1 relating to the payment and settlement for improvements on state lands between a former lessee and a new lessee apply to the settlement between a lessee and the purchaser. If settlement is not reached within six (6) months of date of sale, all improvements become the property of the state unless the department for good cause shown grants both parties additional time in which to exhaust arbitration.

81-921. (1805.85) Certificate of purchase. (1) Upon the approval of the sale and receipt of satisfactory evidence of settlement with the former lessee, if any, for improvements on the land, the department shall execute and mail to the purchaser a certificate of purchase signed by the governor as president of the board and by the commissioner of state lands and attested by the seal of the board. The certificate of purchase shall contain the date of sale, the name and post-office address of the purchaser, a description of the land, the total purchase price, the amount paid on the day of sale, the balance unpaid, and the amount and due date of each installment of principal and interest to the time of maturity. The certificate shall reserve the easements for rights of way granted by the statutes in favor of the United States and other easements that may have been granted by the board and shall contain the reservations in favor of the state provided for in section 81-902 relating to coal, oil, and mineral rights in the land.

(2) The certificate shall also contain information in regard to the lien of the state on crops and improvements on the land for installments of principal and interest and taxes, and any additional conditions, agreements, and information the board considers necessary in order to carry out the intent of this act.

81-923. (1805.87) Payments of installments. The department is not required to accept fractional payments of the installments on certificate of purchase, on account of the complications arising from the division of payments. The purchaser may make payment of one (1) or more installments before the same becomes due, but unless such payments are made at least six (6) months before the installments become due, no reduction may be made in the interest payments. If installments on principal and interest are paid more than six (6) months prior to the due date, the interest from the date of such payment shall be figured upon the balance of the principal unpaid after the advance payment has been made up to the date on which it comes due. If for any reason any installment is not paid when due, the total of that installment, including payment on the principal and payment on interest, shall draw penalty interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date due until the date actually paid. Payment may be made in full at any time before maturity by paying the balance on the principal and interest accrued up to the date of such payment.

(1805.88) Default in payment of purchase price—cancellation of certificate. If any purchaser or assignee of state land defaults for a period of thirty (30) days or more in the payment of any of the installments due on his certificate of purchase, the certificate is subject to cancellation. The department shall mail to him at his last known post-office address a notice of default and pending cancellation. The notice shall give him sixty (60) additional days from the date of mailing the notice in which to make payment of the delinquent installment or installments with penalty interest. If he fails to make the payment within sixty (60) days, the certificate of purchase shall from that date and without further notice be void, the duplicate of the certificate in the office of the department shall be canceled, and the land under the certificate shall revert to and become the property of the state to the same extent as other state lands, and shall be open to lease and sale. All buildings, fences, and other improvements placed thereon subsequent to the date of execution of the certificate of purchase shall be and remain the property of the purchaser named in the certificate of purchase or of his heirs, assigns, or devisees, and may be removed from the land at any time within ninety (90) days after the date of the cancellation. If the buildings, fences, and other improvements are not removed prior to the expiration of the ninety (90) day period, they become the property of the state. In case of cancellation of certificate of purchase or surrender of certificate of purchase, and where the land is again open to lease, the former lessee has the prior right to lease the tract at the existing rate, or at the rate set by competitive bidding if such occurs.

Such assignments shall be made on forms prescribed by the department, shall be duly acknowledged as other conveyances of real estate, and shall be executed in duplicate, one (1) copy to be filed and retained in the office of the department, and one (1) copy to be retained by the assignee. A person is not qualified to receive an assignment if the lands he has already purchased from the state together with the lands included in the assignment exceed one (1) section; the assignee must in all respects possess the same qualifications as an original purchaser.

The holder of certificates of purchase to lands within irrigation districts is liable for the entire tax levied against the land thereunder on account of such irrigation district.

(2) The improvements on the land shall be assessed and taxed as other improvements on farm lands.

(3) On or before March 15 of each year, the department shall furnish the department of revenue or its agent in each county with a complete list of all state lands sold in his county during the year ending on the first Monday of March of each year. per forest acre. The average tax may be derived from the most recent biennial report of the state department of revenue. The total figure arrived at by this method shall be called the gross assessment figure. The county exemption factor shall be determined by dividing the percentage the state owned land bears to the total land area of the county into six per cent (6%). This quotient shall be multiplied by the gross assessment figure and the product is called the state exemption figure. 81-1728. Bond of lessees.
81-1729. Cancellation and forfeiture of lease—notice—hearings.
81-1730. Rentals—disposition of funds.
81-1731. Termination and surrender of lease.

81-1702. (1882.2) Area to be leased—limitations—term of leases—operating agreements. (1) An oil or gas lease issued on state lands may not embrace more than six hundred forty (640) acres, except that any section surveyed by the United States which contains more than six hundred forty (640) acres may be included under one (1) lease. Any person, association, corporation, or municipality qualified to hold an oil or gas lease on state lands may receive from the board or take through assignment, or succession, will, judgment, decree, or otherwise through the operation of law, more than one (1) oil and gas lease to state lands, subject to such regulations and limitations as the board prescribes.

(2) All state oil and gas leases shall be granted for a primary term or period of ten (10) years, and as long thereafter as oil or gas in paying quantities is produced, on condition that all drilling, rental, and other obligations are fully kept and performed by the lessee; nothing in this section amends or repeals sections 81-1703 or 81-1706.

If oil or gas is not being produced from the leased premises at the expiration of the primary term of the lease, but the owner of the lease is then engaged in drilling on the premises for oil or gas, then the lease continues in force so long as such drilling operations are being diligently prosecuted. If oil or gas is recovered from any such well drilled or being drilled at or after the expiration of the primary term of the lease, the lease continues in force so long as oil or gas in paying quantities is produced from the leased premises.

(3) Owners of state oil and gas leases may enter into agreements with other persons, associations, firms, and corporations for drilling and other operations on the state lands under their leases; but no such operating agreements are in any way binding upon the state until filed with the board and approved by it; and no such drilling or operating agreement in any way affects the obligations of each individual leaseholder to the state.

(4) Nothing contained in this section or in prior related acts prevents the board from entering into agreements for the pooling of acreage with others for unit operations for the production of oil or gas, or both, and the apportionment of oil or gas royalties, or both, on an acreage or other equitable basis, and from modifying leases with respect to delay rentals, delay drilling penalties and royalties in accordance with such pooling agreements and such unit plans of operation; however, such agreements may not change the percentage of royalties to be paid to the state from the percentages as fixed in its leases. The board may modify existing pooling and unit agreements so as to commit the state lands included therein for as long as the unitized substance or substances for which the state lands are committed is produced from any lands in the unit.

(5) Oil or gas produced from any part of a unit in which state lands are included by virtue of a pooling agreement, are considered to be produced from the state lands therein, within the meaning of this chapter.

Compiler's Notes

Section 81-1703, cited at the end of the first paragraph of subsection (2), was repealed by Sec. 116, Ch. 428, Laws 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "state oil and gas" at the beginning of subsection (2); and made minor changes in style, phraseology and punctuation.

81-1702.1. Rentals—filing fee—contiguity. (1) The minimum annual money rentals to be paid to the state for oil and gas leases issued before March 3, 1955, shall be seventy-five cents ($.75) for each acre of land leased; however, this rental shall in no case be less than fifty dollars ($50) a year.

(2) The annual money rentals to be paid to the state for oil and gas leases issued on and after March 3, 1955, shall be one dollar ($1) for each acre of land leased, except that in addition to the sum of one dollar ($1) per acre, the rental for the first year of the lease shall also include any sum in excess of one dollar ($1) per acre offered and accepted for the first year's rental; however, this rental shall in no case be less than fifty dollars ($50) a year.

(3) The first year's rental shall be paid before the issuance of the lease. The rentals for each subsequent year of the lease shall be due and payable thirty (30) days before the beginning of such subsequent year, and upon failure to make such payment the lease terminates.

(4) The lands shall be leased in as compact bodies as the form and areas of the tracts held by the state and offered for lease will permit. No lease may embrace noncontiguous subdivisions of lands unless the subdivisions are within an area comprising not more than one (1) square mile.

(5) In all cases where an oil and gas lease issued after March 3, 1955, is surrendered for cancellation before its expiration, relinquished to the state, or canceled through proceedings on the part of the state, no new lease on the lands under such lease may be issued within thirty (30) days from the date of cancellation or relinquishing. This restriction does not apply, however, in cases of bona fide assignment.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 161, L. 1955; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 22, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 85, Ch. 428, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted the filing fee of $5.00 for each oil and gas lease issued from the second paragraph; granted general authority for the commissioner of lands and investments to prescribe such fee with the approval of the board of land commissioners; and made a minor change in style.

The 1973 amendment inserted subsection (1); numbered the remaining subsections; substituted "issued on and after March 3, 1955" for "hereafter made under the provisions chapter 17 of Title 81, R. C. M. 1947, and acts amendatory thereto" in subsection (2); deleted from subsection (3) a first sentence providing for filing fees on issuance and assignment of leases; deleted "Such filing fee and" from the beginning of the first sentence of subsection (3); substituted "issued after March 3, 1955, is surrendered" for "hereafter issued shall be surrendered" near the beginning of subsection (5); and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

81-1702.2. Power to terminate lease—grounds. In every oil and gas lease granted after March 3, 1955, under this chapter there shall be reserved to the board full power to declare termination of the lease at the end of the second year or any subsequent year of the primary term of the lease upon failure of the lessee to either (a) commence the drilling of a well for oil and gas upon the leased premises or (b) pay a delay drilling penalty as follows: for the sixth year of the lease one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) per acre per year, and for the remainder of the primary term of the lease an amount per acre per year as the board may, in its discretion, determine. Notice of that determination shall be given to the lessee, and if the lessee applies for a hearing thereon within ten (10) days after receipt of the notice, the determination shall become final only after such hearing has been held. This annual delay drilling penalty shall be paid each year in advance. If a well for oil and gas is commenced, the drilling of the well shall be prosecuted with due diligence and dispatch to such depth as is necessary to make a reasonable test for oil or gas. If the first well drilled is a dry hole, and if a second well is not commenced on the land covered by the lease before the next anniversary of the lease following the completion of the well, the lease may be terminated by the board unless the lessee, on or before such anniversary, resumes the payments of penalties in the amounts provided in this section. Upon the resumption of the payment of such delay drilling penalties and their continued payment, the lease continues in force during the primary term as though there had been no interruption in the delay drilling penalty payments.

81-1705. (1882.5) Report of lessees. On or before the last day of each month every holder of a producing oil or gas lease shall make a report to the department for the preceding calendar month on a form the department prescribes. The report shall show the amount of oil or gas produced and saved during the preceding month, the price obtained, the total amount of all sales, and any additional information as may be required, and it shall be signed by the lessee or some responsible person having knowledge thereof. The report shall be accompanied by payment of the amount due the state as royalty for the month covered by the report, unless the state's royalty is being or has been paid direct by the purchaser thereof; however, where the amount of royalty due from any lease is determined by the board to be so small as to make it uneconomical to collect monthly, the board may authorize royalty payments to be made semiannually.

If oil or gas in commercial quantities is not found at the depth of one thousand (1,000) feet or less, the lessee shall continue drilling with diligence to such depth as necessary to make reasonable test for oil or gas. The board may, in its discretion, upon satisfactory showing by the lessee, extend the time for the commencement or completion of such drilling obligation from year to year, not exceeding ten (10) years after the date of the lease, upon such terms and considerations the board determines, and upon payment to the department of such penalty, if any, the board in its discretion determines, for each year beginning with the third year, payable each year in advance.

(2) This section does not apply to leases issued after March 2, 1955.

(1882.16) Assignments of leases. The assignment of any oil and gas lease issued under this chapter, either in whole or as to subdivisions of land embracing not less than forty (40) acres covered thereby, made to an assignee qualified as provided herein, is permitted. Such assignment is not, however, binding upon the state until filed with the department and accompanied by the required fees, together with such proof of qualifications required by the board, and approved by the board or its lawful representative. The approval of any assignment so filed and supported may not be withheld in any case where the rights or interest of the state in the property assigned will not in the judgment of the board be prejudiced thereby, and the decision of the board in all cases is subject to appeal upon proper court proceedings. All other assignments of oil and gas leases issued under this chapter or interests therein are subject to approval by the board and are binding upon the state in the discretion of the board.

As to such casing, equipment, and apparatus, any succeeding lessee, or in the event there is no succeeding lessee, the state, wishing to have such property left upon the premises, shall pay the reasonable value thereof to the former lessee. If the succeeding lessee or the board is unable to agree with the former lessee upon the reasonable cash value of such casing, equipment, and apparatus, the succeeding lessee or the state, as the case may be, shall pay in cash to the former lessee a sum fixed as a reasonable price by a board of three (3) appraisers, one (1) of whom shall be chosen by the successful bidder, one (1) by the former lessee, and the third by the two (2) so chosen. Its appraisal shall be reported to the respective parties in writing, and is final and conclusive.

(2) The former lessee may remain in possession and manage the land and property formerly covered by his lease until the value of the casing, equipment, and apparatus which the succeeding lessee or the state desires to have left upon the premises, is fixed, in the manner provided in this section, and has been paid to him in cash. During the time the former lessee remains in such possession, he may retain the same share of the products of the premises as inured to him during the term of his lease. Any apiary not regularly attended in accordance with good beekeeping practice and which comprises a hazard or threat to disease control in the beekeeping industry may be considered an abandoned apiary and will be subject to seizure by the department. Any diseased equipment or equipment by reason of its physical condition or construction cannot be inspected, may be burned and the remainder may be sold at public auction, proceeds after the cost of sale are deducted to be returned to the former owner or his estate; provided, however, that before burning any such equipment, or causing the same to be sold, the department, shall give the owner of, or person in charge thereof, a written notice at least five (5) days prior to the date on which said property will be burned or sold. The compiler deleted the number "4" after "section" in the second sentence of subdivision (4) as superfluous.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment substantially rewrote this section. For previous text, see parent volume.

The 1969 amendment, in the first sentence in subdivision (4), substituted "adopt" for "promulgate" before "necessary rules"; in the second sentence, inserted "R. C. Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1969, once by Ch. 120 and once by Ch. 366. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments. In the composite section the subsection added by Ch. 120 has been designated as (4) rather than (3).

Amendments

Chapter 120 of Laws 1969 substituted a requirement that rules promulgated by the state fire marshal "be reasonable and calculated to effect the purpose of this act" for a requirement that rules promulgated by the state fire marshal "establish minimum standards of fire protection requirements" in subsection (1), and added subsection (4).

82-1506. (351) Tax for hail insurance—limitation on levy—liens, effect of—mortgages—levies, when payable—hail insurance districts—rates.

(1) A tax is hereby authorized and directed to be levied on all lands in this state growing crops subject to injury or destruction by hail, the owners of which have elected to become subject to the provisions of this act. The state board of hail insurance shall annually estimate as near as may be possible, the amount required to pay all losses, interest on warrants and costs of administration, and shall recommend a levy to be made on each kind of land respectively, subject to the provisions of this act, to the state department of revenue. The rates recommended to apply on the lands of owners shall be applied in the same proportions to the crops of those insured on a personal assessment basis. It is hereby provided, however, that such tax shall not exceed in any one (1) year the sum of one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per acre on lands sown to grain crops on nonirrigated lands, and the sum of two dollars and forty cents ($2.40) per acre on irrigated lands, also it shall not exceed one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per acre on lands producing hay crops; and provided further, that if the tax required to pay the estimated losses, interest on warrants and costs of administration be less than sixty cents (60¢) per acre on lands sown to grain crops on nonirrigated lands and one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per acre on irrigated lands, and a proportionate amount on lands sown to hay crops, the said board of hail insurance must recommend a tax levy sufficient to raise the full amount thereof.

(2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(3) The state department of revenue is hereby empowered and it is made its duty to prescribe such levies annually to be made against lands growing crops subject to injury or destruction by hail which are subject to this act, in accordance with the recommendation of the state board of hail insurance. Such tax levies respectively shall be chargeable to the lands of each taxpayer who shall elect to become subject to this act and shall be extended on the tax roll and collected by the officers charged with such duties in the manner and form as are other property taxes and if not paid shall be a lien on the lands against which the same are levied as are other property taxes. Provided, however, that the lien as provided above shall in no way affect mortgages that are of record at the time of the approval of this act. The lien of any mortgage filed subsequent to the passage and approval of this act shall be subsequent to any lien for hail insurance hereafter levied thereon. All applicants securing hail insurance on crop liens as heretofore provided shall be subject to the same charges per acre as provided herein to be made on land. Notice of such assessment shall be mailed to each person insured, by the county treasurer in the same manner as are all other notices of taxes due. Said assessment shall be payable at the office of the county treasurers of each respective county. All insurance levies whether levied against land or in the form of special assessments secured by crop liens, shall be payable in full, and not in semiannual payments, on or before November 30th of each year in which such levies are made.

The men so appointed shall be actively engaged in farming or shall have had practical experience in farming and shall be selected from names submitted by regularly organized farmers societies in the various counties. If the recommendations are not made as provided above, then the state board shall select the appraisers from men actively engaged in farming or men who have had practical experience in farming as heretofore provided. Provided, further, that the state board of hail insurance may call on one or more of the duly appointed appraisers for the adjustment of each and every loss and the said appraisers shall promptly report their findings to the state board of hail insurance, according to the rules provided by the said state board. Provided, further, that no appraiser who shall be a relative, attorney, agent, employee or creditor or in any manner interested by lien, mortgage or otherwise in the crop injured or destroyed, shall assist in adjusting any such loss. The state board may in case of emergency appoint more than three appraisers in any county. Also it may send any duly appointed appraiser or appraisers into any county as the occasion may require.

Also it is further provided that the state board of hail insurance may require the posting of a cash bond of ten dollars ($10) with the request for reappraisal of the first adjustment. In cases where the board requires the posting of the ten dollar ($10) bond, the board may retain it if no increase is allowed. If an increase is obtained, the board will return the bond to the claimant. In case the adjuster who makes the second appraisal fails to secure an agreement the claimant may at his option submit the matter to arbitration as herein provided or sue the state board of hail insurance in the district court of the county where the loss occurred within ninety (90) days from the date of receipt of written notice of the second appraisal. Such actions shall be trials de novo and the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply. If the claimant elects to submit the matter to arbitration he shall then appoint one disinterested person as appraiser, and the official appraiser shall appoint another person as appraiser, and the two shall select a third disinterested person and the three shall then proceed to adjust the loss in the same manner as specified in section 82-1515 and the judgment of the majority shall be the judgment of said appraisers and shall be binding upon both parties as the final determination of said loss; provided, however, that if the insured does not recover a greater sum than allowed by the official appraiser in the first instance, he shall pay the expenses of the said three appraisers and their witnesses in making said adjustment, but if he is awarded a larger sum then the same shall be paid by the state board of hail insurance.

The state purchasing agent shall make examination of the amount of supplies on hand and shall determine from such examination and from the statements so furnished him, as in this section provided, the additional amount of supplies necessary and shall make an itemized statement thereof, all of which acts of said state purchasing agent shall be subject to approval of the governor. All purchases by the state purchasing agent shall be based on competitive bids. In the case of all bids as herein provided, there shall be separate proposals and separate contracts. Each proposal may be accompanied by sample supplies proposed to be furnished. The proposals shall be in writing, sealed and marked, "proposals for furnishing supplies," and shall be addressed to the state purchasing agent, Helena, Montana.

At the time set for the opening of bids, said proposals shall be opened in public, and contracts awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. The department shall have the right to reject any and all bids. If all proposals be rejected, proposals shall again be invited and proceeded with in the same manner; provided, however, that in such event, the state purchasing agent may, with the approval of the governor, purchase such supplies on the open market if they can be so purchased at a better price.

With any proposal the state purchasing agent may require a certified check on some responsible bank, payable to the treasurer of the state of Montana, equal in amount to five per cent (5%) of the sum of such proposal, as a guarantee for the faithful performance of any contract awarded. After the award is made, all checks deposited as a guarantee shall be returned, except that of the successful bidder whose check shall be held until contract signed and bond filed and approved, if bond be required. All proposals shall include the delivery of the supplies to the departments and institutions for which they are purchased.

The state officers, superintendents, commissioners, departments or institutions, shall not have the authority to purchase any supplies or material, except on approval of the state purchasing agent.

All rights of action, however, for any breach of such contract by the contracting parties are reserved to the state. Any person who violates the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) and the state of Montana shall have the right at its option to declare any contract in violation of the provisions of this act void ab initio.

In awarding contracts for purchase of products, materials, supplies or equipment such board, commission, officer or individual shall award the contract to any such resident whose offered materials, supplies or equipment are manufactured or produced in this state by Montana industry and labor and whose bid is not more than three per cent (3%) higher than that of the lowest responsible resident bidder whose offered materials, supplies or equipment are not so manufactured or produced, provided that such products, materials, supplies and equipment are comparable in quality and performance. This requirement shall prevail whether the law requires advertisement for bids or does not require advertisement for bids and it shall apply to contracts involving funds obtained from the federal government unless expressly prohibited by the laws of the United States or regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any individual, partnership or corporation, foreign or domestic and regardless of ownership thereof, whose offered materials, supplies or equipment are manufactured or produced in this state by industry located in Montana and Montana labor shall be deemed to be a resident for the purpose of this act.

The department shall endorse upon the contractor's license whether or not such contractor is a "resident" as aforesaid. If a contractor is not a "resident" at the time such license is issued, but thereafter qualifies as such, he may apply to the department of revenue for a redetermination of his residency, and, if found to qualify as a "resident," the department shall endorse such fact upon his license, together with the date of such qualification. It shall be the duty of the state department of revenue, upon written request of any board, commission, officer or individual charged by law with the responsibility for the execution of any contract subject to the provisions of section 82-1924 on behalf of the state, board, commission, political subdivision, agency, school district or public corporation of the state of Montana, to furnish a list of contractors who have qualified as "residents," as aforesaid, to such requesting body. 82-1926. Contract provision for preference to Montana products—failure to comply—federal-aid projects. Each contract awarded by any political subdivision, school district, public corporation or agency of the state of Montana shall contain among its provisions a requirement that in all instances products manufactured or produced in this state by Montana industry and labor shall be preferred for use in all projects and in all materials, supplies and equipment, if such products, materials, equipment and supplies are comparable in price and quality. Further, in this connection, it is the intent of this act that wherever possible products manufactured and produced in this state which are suitable substitutes for products manufactured or produced outside the state and comparable in price, quality and performance, shall be preferred for use in all projects and in all state institutions.

Failure to comply with the law in this respect shall disqualify such contractor as a qualified bidder for future contracts with the state of Montana, any legal subdivision of the state of Montana, any school district, public corporation or agency for a period of two (2) years.

The preference herein given to Montana products shall apply to contracts involving funds obtained from the federal government unless expressly prohibited by the laws of the United States or regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

CHAPTER 27—CO-ORDINATOR OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

Section

82-2701. Legislative policy.
82-2702. Office of state co-ordinator of Indian affairs created—appointment of co-ordinator—term—salary—office.
82-2703. Duties of co-ordinator.
82-2705. Executive and legislative agencies to assist in coal development.

82-2701. Legislative policy. Whereas, a considerable portion of the citizens of the state of Montana are members of the Indian race, and,

Whereas, in the course of the past eighty years these Indian citizens of the state of Montana have been driven from their native valleys and plains and are at present living and residing upon reservations set apart for such purposes by the United States of America, and by virtue of said isolation and supervision by the federal government, great problems of economic and social significance have arisen and presently exist, and that no suitable progress has been made to solve such problems by reason of the fact that the Indians and those who are attempting to aid them in the solution of their problems have never been able to present a co-ordinated and united effort in solving such problems, and

Whereas, it is hereby declared that it is the legislative policy of this state that the best interests of the Indians will be served by the fostering of a program which is designed to establish and place our Indian citizens in a position whereby they will be able to take their rightful place in our society, and assume the rights, duties and privileges of full citizenship, it is therefore necessary that a state office of the co-ordinator of Indian affairs be established so that the problems of the Indians of Montana can be approached and reconciled from a state level in co-operation with the United States of America, and

Whereas, agencies of the federal government retain jurisdiction on Indian reservations in the state of Montana in the administration of economic, social, health, education and welfare programs for Indians, and

Whereas, such Indians as who reside off of said reservations do not generally qualify for participation in such federal programs, and are often prohibited from voting on tribal affairs and for tribal officers, and

Whereas, there are sizeable numbers of off-reservation Indians residing in our state of both enrolled and unofficial tribal descent (landless) whose needs for environmental assistance are borne by state and local agencies, and that these needs are derived from problems shared by all Indians, whether they reside on reservations or not, and in consideration of their desire for official voice and representation in seeking solutions to their problems, and

Whereas, programs of the state of Montana should not duplicate those supported by agencies of the federal government as regards jurisdiction of Indian people, and since state responsibility is effected with off-reservation Indians, and since such Indians require assistance to co-ordinate their affairs with various tribal groups and federal agencies where they have no official recognition,

Then therefore, let it be resolved that the co-ordinator of Indian affairs should assess the problems of all Indians to include those who reside off of known reservations, and who seek ways and means of communicating their opinions and needs to agencies of responsibility, and that the co-ordinator should actively assist such people in organizing such efforts and that he act as representative and spokesman for such organized bodies of Indian people whether reservation or off-reservation classification, whenever such assistance is required.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 203, L. 1951; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 319, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment made a minor style change at the end of the third paragraph and added the last five paragraphs.

82-2702. Office of state co-ordinator of Indian affairs created—appointment of co-ordinator—term—salary—office. The office of the state co-ordinator of Indian affairs is hereby created. The co-ordinator shall be appointed by the governor from a list of five (5) qualified persons agreed upon by the tribal councils of the respective Indian tribes of the state of Montana. He shall hold such office for a term of four (4) years and shall be paid a salary in such amount as may be specified by the legislative assembly in the appropriation to the co-ordinator of Indian affairs. If the legislative assembly does not specify the maximum salary for the co-ordinator, any increase in the salary of the co-ordinator must be approved by the board of examiners. He shall maintain his office at the state capitol in Helena, Montana.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 203, L. 1951; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 237, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 319, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment substituted "salary in such amount * * * and private industry" for "salary of one dollar ($1.00) per year."

The 1969 amendment deleted a former fifth sentence, which read "Before approving any salary increase the board of examiners shall review the salaries of comparable positions in Montana state government, other states and private industry."

Cross-References

Co-ordinator's office and functions transferred, sec. 82A-903(2).

82-2703. Duties of co-ordinator. It shall be the duty of the state co-ordinator of Indian affairs to do all necessary and proper things to carry out the legislative policy set forth in section 82-2701. He shall solicit rehabilitation loans, educational funds, economic, health, and housing funds from various sources for the purpose of enabling deserving Indians to become self-sufficient. Interest rates on such loans shall not exceed four per cent (4%) and such loans shall be disbursed through various federal programs established for these purposes.

He shall also do everything possible to bring about adequate housing and sanitation for Indians, whether they reside on reservations or not, and will co-ordinate such activities whenever necessary with the department of Indian affairs of the United States, the United States government and the state of Montana.

He shall acquaint himself with the problems confronting the Indians of Montana and he shall advise the legislative and executive branches of the state of Montana of such problems and shall make recommendations for the alleviation thereof. He shall also serve the Montana delegation in the federal Congress as an adviser and intermediary in the field of Indian affairs, and shall act as spokesman for representative Indian organizations and groups, public and private, whenever such support is solicited.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 203, L. 1951; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 319, L. 1969.

82-4202. Definitions. For purposes of this act:

(1) "Agency" means any board, bureau, commission, department, authority or officer of the state government authorized by law to make rules and to determine contested cases, except that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the following:

(a) the legislature and any branch, committee or officer thereof;

(b) the judicial branches and any committee or officer thereof;

(c) the governor, except that an agency otherwise covered by this act shall not be exempt because the governor has been designated as a member thereof;

(d) the state military establishment and agencies concerned with civil defense and recovery from hostile attack;

(e) the state board of pardons, except that said board shall be subject to the requirements of section 3 [82-4203] and 5 [82-4205] of this act and its rules shall be published in the Montana administrative code and register;

(f) the supervision and administration of any penal, mental, medical or eleemosynary institution with regard to the admission, release, institutional supervision, custody, control, care or treatment of inmates, prisoners or patients;

(g) the administration and management of educational institutions;

(h) the financing, construction and maintenance of public works.

(2) "Rule" means each agency regulation, standard or statement of general applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy or describes the organization, procedures, or practice requirements of an agency. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule, but does not include:

(a) statements concerning only the internal management of an agency and not affecting private rights or procedures available to the public;

(b) declaratory rulings issued pursuant to section 18 [82-4218] of this act;

(c) intra-agency memoranda;

(d) rules relating to the use of public works, facilities, streets and highways, when the substance of such rules is indicated to the public by means of signs or signals;

(e) seasonal rules adopted annually relating to hunting, fishing and trapping when there is a statutory requirement for the publication of such rules, and rules adopted annually relating to the seasonal recreational use of lands and waters owned or controlled by the state when the substance of such rules is indicated to the public by means of signs or signals;

(3) "Contested case" means any proceeding before an agency in which a determination of legal rights, duties or privileges of a party is required by law to be made after an opportunity for hearing. The term includes, but is not restricted to, rate making, price fixing and licensing.

(4) "License" includes the whole or part of any agency permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter or other form of permission required by law, but does not include a license required solely for revenue purposes.

(5) "Licensing" includes any agency process respecting the grant, denial, renewal, revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, limitation or amendment of a license.

(6) "Party" means any person or agency named or admitted as a party, or properly seeking and entitled as of right to be admitted as a party; but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent an agency from admitting any person or agency as a party for limited purposes.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

Rule Making

82-4203. Rules describing agency organization and procedures—public inspection of rules—model rules. (1) In addition to other rule-making requirements imposed by law, each agency shall:

(a) Adopt as a rule a description of its organization, stating the general course and method of its operations and the methods whereby the public may obtain information or make submissions or requests.

(b) Adopt rules of practice, not inconsistent with statutory provisions, setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available, including a description of all forms and instructions used by the agency.

(c) Make available for public inspection all rules and all other written statements of policy or interpretations formulated, adopted or used by the agency in the discharge of its functions.

(d) Upon request of any person or agency, provide a copy of any rule. Unless otherwise provided by statute, an agency may require the payment of the cost of providing such copies.

(2) No agency rule shall be valid or effective against any person or party whose rights have been substantially prejudiced by an agency's failure to comply with the public inspection requirement herein.

(3) The attorney general shall prepare, as soon as is practicable after the passage of this act, a model form for a rule describing the organization of agencies and model rules of practice for agencies to use as a guide in fulfilling the requirements of section 3 (1) [82-4203 (1)]. The attorney general shall add to, amend or revise the model rules from time to time as he shall deem necessary for the proper guidance of agencies. The model rules, and additions, amendments or revisions thereto, shall be appropriate for the use of as many agencies as is practicable and shall be filed with the secretary of state and provided to any agency upon request. The adoption by an agency of all or part of the model rules shall not relieve the agency from following the rule-making procedures required by this act.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4203.1. Legislative review of rules. (1) The secretary of state shall, on the date the legislature convenes in regular session in 1974, transmit to both the senate and house of representatives one (1) copy of all rules in the Montana administrative code, not including superseded or repealed rules.

(2) The secretary of state shall, on the date the legislature convenes in each regular session after 1974, transmit to both the senate and house of representatives one (1) copy of all rules, which are in the Montana administrative code, adopted or amended by agencies since the convening of the previous regular session.

(3) The legislature may, by joint resolution, repeal rules transmitted to it. If a rule is repealed, the legislature shall, in the joint resolution, state its objections to the repealed rule. If an agency adopts a new rule to replace the repealed rule, the agency shall adopt the new rule in accordance with the objections stated by the legislature in the joint resolution. If the legislature does not repeal a rule filed with it before the adjournment of that regular session, the rule remains valid.

History: En. 82-4203.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 239, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for legislative review of administrative rules.

82-4204. Adoption—amendment or repeal of rules—emergency rules. (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment or repeal of any rule, the agency shall:

(a) Give written notice of its intended action. The notice shall include a statement of either the terms or substance of the intended action or a description of the subjects and issues involved, and the time when, place where, and manner in which interested persons may present their views thereon. The notice shall be filed with the secretary of state for publication in the Montana administrative register as provided in section 6 (2) [82-4206 (2)] of this act and mailed to persons who have made timely requests to the agency for advance notice of its rule-making proceedings. The notice shall be published and mailed at least twenty (20) days in advance of the agency's intended action. If any statute shall provide for a different method of publication, the affected agency shall comply with the statute in addition to the requirements contained herein. However, in no case shall the notice period be less than twenty (20) days.

(b) Afford interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit data, views or arguments, orally or in writing. In the case of substantive rules, opportunity for oral hearing shall be granted if requested by either ten per cent (10%) or twenty-five (25) of the persons who will be directly affected by the proposed rule, by a governmental subdivision or agency or by an association having not less than twenty-five (25) members who will be directly affected. Contested case procedures need not be followed in hearings held pursuant to this section. Where a hearing is otherwise required by statute, nothing herein shall be deemed to alter that requirement. The agency shall consider fully written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule. Upon adoption of a rule, an agency, if requested to do so by an interested person either prior to adoption or within thirty (30) days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating therein its reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption.

(2) If an agency finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety or welfare requires adoption of a rule upon fewer than twenty (20) days' notice and states in writing its reasons for that finding, it may proceed, without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable, to adopt an emergency rule. The rule may be effective for a period not longer than one hundred and twenty (120) days, but the adoption of an identical rule under subsections (1)

(a) and (1) (b) of this section is not precluded. The sufficiency of the reasons for a finding of imminent peril to the public health, safety or welfare shall be subject to judicial review.

(3) No rule adopted after the effective date of this act shall be valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) An agency may use informal conferences and consultations as a means of obtaining the viewpoints and advice of interested persons with respect to contemplated rule making. An agency may also appoint committees of experts or interested persons or representatives of the general public to advise it with respect to any contemplated rule making. The powers of the committees shall be advisory only. Nothing herein shall relieve the agency from following rule-making procedures required by this act.

(5) Rules shall not unnecessarily repeat statutory language. Whenever it is necessary to refer to statutory language in order to convey the meaning of a rule interpreting the language, the reference shall clearly indicate that portion of the language which is statutory and the portion which is amplification of the language. Each rule shall include a citation of authority pursuant to which it, or any part thereof, is adopted.

(6) Each agency shall at least annually review its rules to determine if any new rule should be adopted or any existing rule should be modified or repealed.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4205. Filing of rules—effective date of rules. (1) On or before the 60th day following the effective date of this act, each agency shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of each rule adopted by it on or before the effective date of this act and remaining in effect. Any rule not so filed shall be deemed to have been abrogated by the agency and shall be void and of no effect.

(2) Each agency shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of each rule adopted by it subsequent to the effective date of this act. Each rule shall become effective ten (10) days after publication in the Montana administrative register or code as provided in section 6 [82-4206] of this act, except that:

(a) If a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule, the later date shall be the effective date.

(b) Subject to applicable constitutional or statutory provisions, an emergency rule shall become effective immediately upon filing with the secretary of state, or at a stated date less than ten (10) days following publication in the Montana administrative code or register, if the agency finds that this effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety or welfare. The agency's finding and a brief statement of reasons therefor shall be filed with the rule. The agency shall take appropriate measures to make emergency rules known to every person who may be affected by them.

(3) The secretary of state may prescribe a format, style and arrangement for rules which are filed pursuant to this act and may refuse to accept the filing of any rule that is not in substantial compliance therewith. He shall keep and maintain a permanent register of all rules filed (including superseded and repealed rules), which shall be open to public inspection, and shall provide copies of any rule upon request of any person or agency. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the secretary of state may require the payment of the cost of providing such copies.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4206. Publication and distribution of rules and notices. (1) The secretary of state shall, as soon as is practicable after the effective date of this act, compile, index and publish all rules filed pursuant to this act in a publication which shall be known as the Montana administrative code (herein referred to as the code). The code shall be printed or otherwise duplicated, in looseleaf form. The secretary of state shall revise the code, or any part thereof, as often as he deems necessary.

(2) The secretary of state shall each month compile and publish the Montana administrative register (herein referred to as the register). The register shall contain two (2) sections, a rules section and a notice section.

(a) The rules section of the register shall contain all rules filed with the secretary of state since the compilation and publication of the preceding issue of the register, and in the case of the first issue, since the effective date of this act, except that nothing herein shall require that rules filed pursuant to section 5 (1) [82-4205 (1)] be published in the register. This section of the register shall be printed or duplicated in the same style as the code and shall be set up so as to permit changes to be inserted as pages in the code in lieu of the pages containing superseded material and to permit additions to the code.

(b) The notice section of the register shall contain all rule-making notices filed with the secretary of state pursuant to section 4 [82-4204] of this act since the compilation and publication of the preceding register, and in the case of the first issue of the register, since the effective date of this act. This section shall be printed or duplicated in such manner as to make it easily distinguishable from the rules section of the register and so that separate copies of the notice section can be provided to any person upon request to the secretary of state. The secretary of state may require the payment of the cost of providing such copies.

(c) Each issue of the register shall contain a title page with the name "Montana administrative register," the issue number and date of the register, and a table of contents. Each page of the register shall contain the issue number and date of the register of which it is a part. The secretary of state may include in the register instructions or information to help the user in correctly making insertions or deletions in the code and to keep the code current.

(3) The secretary of state, with the consent of the adopting agency, may omit from the code or register any rule the publication of which would be unduly cumbersome, expensive or otherwise inexpedient, if the rule in printed or duplicated form is made available on application to the agency, and if the code or register contains a notice stating the general subject matter of the omitted rule and stating how a copy may be obtained.

(4) The code shall be arranged, indexed and printed or duplicated in such manner as to permit separate publication of portions thereof relating to individual agencies. An agency may make arrangements with the secretary of state for the printing of as many copies of such separate publications as it may require. The cost of any such separate publications shall be paid by the agency.

(5) The secretary of state shall distribute copies of the code, revisions thereto and the register without charge to the following:

Attorney general, one (1) copy;

Clerk of each court of record of this state, one (1) copy;

Clerk of United States district court for the district of Montana, one (1) copy;

Clerk of United States court of appeals for the ninth circuit, one (1) copy;

Each county clerk of this state, for use of county officials and the public, one (1) copy;

State law library, one (1) copy;

State historical society, one (1) copy;

Each unit of the university of Montana, one (1) copy;

Law library of the university of Montana, one (1) copy;

Montana legislative council, three (3) copies;

Library of congress, one (1) copy;

State law library, for such exchanges as it may establish with libraries of other states, not to exceed fifty (50) copies;

Law library of the university of Montana, for such exchanges as it may establish with institutions of higher education in other states, not to exceed fifty (50) copies.

The secretary of state, clerk of each court of record in the state, clerk of each county in the state and the librarians for the state law library and the university of Montana law library shall maintain a complete, current set of the code, including revisions thereto and additions or changes published in the register. Such persons shall also maintain a file of rule-making notices published in the register during the preceding two (2) years. The secretary of state shall also maintain a permanent register of rule-making notices.

(6) The secretary of state shall make copies of and subscriptions to the code, revisions thereto and the register available to any person at prices fixed to cover publication and mailing costs.

(7) The secretary of state shall determine the cost of supplying copies of the code, revisions thereto and the register. Such cost shall be the approximate cost of printing or duplicating and mailing. However, a uniform price per page or group of pages may be established without regard to differences in cost of printing different parts of the code, revisions thereto and the register.

(8) All fees collected by the secretary of state shall be deposited to the general fund.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4207. Petition for adoption of rules. An interested person may petition an agency requesting the promulgation, amendment or repeal of a rule. Each agency shall prescribe by rule the form for petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration and disposition. Within sixty (60) days after submission of a petition, the agency either shall deny the petition in writing (stating its reasons for the denial) or shall initiate rule-making proceedings in accordance with section 4 [82-4204] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4208. Judicial notice of rules. The courts shall take judicial notice of any rule filed and published under the provisions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

Contested Cases

82-4209. Notice — hearing — record. (1) In a contested case, all parties shall be afforded an opportunity for hearing after reasonable notice.

(2) The notice shall include:

(a) A statement of the time, place and nature of the hearing.

(b) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held.

(c) A reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved.

(d) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted. If the agency or other party is unable to state the matters in detail at the time the notice is served, the initial notice may be limited to a statement of the issues involved. Thereafter upon application a more definite and detailed statement shall be furnished.

(3) Opportunity shall be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved.

(4) Unless precluded by law, informal disposition may be made of any contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default.

(5) The record in a contested case shall include:

(a) All pleadings, motions, intermediate rulings.

(b) All evidence received or considered, including a stenographic record of oral proceedings when demanded by a party.

(c) A statement of matters officially noticed.

(d) Questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings thereon.

(e) Proposed findings and exceptions.

(f) Any decision, opinion or report by the hearing examiner or agency member presiding at the hearing.

(g) All staff memoranda or data submitted to the hearing examiner or members of the agency as evidence in connection with their consideration of the case.

(6) The stenographic record of oral proceedings or any part thereof shall be transcribed on request of any party. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the cost of the transcription shall be paid by the requesting party.

(7) Findings of facts shall be based exclusively on the evidence and on matters officially noticed.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4210. Rules of evidence—official notice. (1) Except as otherwise provided by statute relating directly to an agency, agencies shall be bound by common law and statutory rules of evidence. Objections to evidentiary offers may be made and shall be noted in the record. When a hearing will be expedited and the interests of the parties will not be prejudiced substantially, any part of the evidence may be received in written form.

(2) Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts, if the original is not readily available. Upon request, parties shall be given an opportunity to compare the copy with the original.

(3) A party shall have the right to conduct cross-examinations required for a full and true disclosure of facts, including the right to cross-examine the author of any document prepared by or on behalf of or for the use of the agency and offered in evidence.

(4) Notice may be taken of judicially cognizable facts. In addition, notice may be taken of generally recognized technical or scientific facts within the agency's specialized knowledge. Parties shall be notified either before or during the hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, of the material noticed, including any staff memoranda or data, and they shall be afforded an opportunity to contest the material so noticed. The agency's experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge may be utilized in the evaluation of evidence.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4211. Hearing examiners—conduct of hearings—disqualification of hearing examiners and agency members. (1) An agency shall have authority to appoint hearing examiners for the conduct of hearings in contested cases.

(2) Agency members or hearing examiners presiding over hearings shall be authorized to administer oaths or affirmations; issue subpoenas pursuant to section 20 [82-4220] of this act; provide for the taking of testimony by deposition; regulate the course of hearings, including setting the time and place for continued hearings and fixing the time for filing of briefs or other documents; and direct parties to appear and confer to consider simplification of the issues by consent of the parties. All testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation.

(3) A hearing examiner or agency member may at any time disqualify himself. On the filing in good faith of a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias or other disqualification of a hearing examiner or agency member, the agency shall determine the matter as a part of the record and decision in the case.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4212. Examination of evidence by agency—proposed orders. When in a contested case a majority of the officials of the agency who are to render the final decision have not heard the case or read the record, the decision, if adverse to a party to the proceeding other than the agency itself, shall not be made until a proposal for decision is served upon the parties and an opportunity is afforded to each party adversely affected to file exceptions and present briefs and oral argument to the officials who are to render the decision. The proposal for decision shall contain a statement of the reasons therefor and of each issue of fact or law necessary to the proposed decision, prepared by the person who conducted the hearing or one who has read the record. The parties may waive compliance with this section by written stipulation.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4213. Final orders—notification. (1) A final decision or order adverse to a party in a contested case shall be in writing or stated in the record. A final decision shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings. If, in accordance with agency rules, a party submitted proposed findings of fact, the decision shall include a ruling upon each proposed finding. Parties shall be notified either personally or by mail of any decision or order. Upon request, a copy of the decision or order shall be delivered or mailed forthwith to each party and to his attorney of record.

(2) Each agency shall index and make available for public inspection all final decisions and orders, including declaratory rulings under section 18 [82-4218], issued after the effective date of this act. No such agency decision or order shall be valid or effective against any person or party, nor may it be invoked by the agency for any purpose, until it has been made available for public inspection as herein required. This provision is not applicable in favor of any person or party who has actual knowledge thereof or when a state statute or federal statute or regulation prohibits public disclosure of the contents of a decision or order.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4214. Ex parte consultations. Unless required for disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, the person or persons who are charged with the duty of rendering a decision or to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in a contested case, after issuance of notice of hearing, shall not communicate with any party or his representative in connection with any issue of fact or law in such case except upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4215. Licenses. (1) When the grant, denial, renewal, revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, limitation or amendment of a license is required by law to be preceded by notice and opportunity for hearing, the provisions of this act concerning contested cases apply.

(2) When a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license or a new license with reference to any activity of a continuing nature, the existing license does not expire until the application has been finally determined by the agency, and, in case the application is denied or the terms of the new license limited, until the last day for seeking review of the agency order or a later date fixed by order of the reviewing court.

(3) No revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal or amendment of any license is lawful unless, prior to the institution of agency proceedings, the agency gave notice by mail to the licensee of facts or conduct which warrant the intended action, and the licensee was given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful requirements for the retention of the license. If the agency finds that public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, summary suspension of a license may be ordered pending proceedings for revocation or other action. These proceedings shall be promptly instituted and determined.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4216. Judicial review of contested cases. (1) A person who has exhausted all administrative remedies available within the agency and who is aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case is entitled to judicial review under this act. This section does not limit utilization of or the scope of judicial review available under other means of review, redress, relief, or trial de novo provided by statute. A preliminary, procedural, or intermediate agency action or ruling is immediately reviewable if review of the final agency decision would not provide an adequate remedy.

A party who proceeds before an agency under the terms of a particular statute shall not be precluded from questioning the validity of that statute on judicial review, but such party may not raise any other question not raised before the agency, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that there was good cause for failure to raise the question before the agency.

(2) Proceedings for review shall be instituted by filing a petition in district court within thirty (30) days after service of the final decision of the agency, or if a rehearing is requested, within thirty (30) days after the decision thereon. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the petition shall be filed in the district court for the county where the petitioner resides or has his principal place of business, or where the agency maintains its principal office. Copies of the petition shall be promptly served upon the agency and all parties of record.

The petition shall include a concise statement of the facts upon which jurisdiction and venue are based, a statement of the manner in which the petitioner is aggrieved and the ground or grounds specified in subsection 7 of this section upon which the petitioner contends he is entitled to relief. The petition shall demand the relief to which the petitioner believes he is entitled, and the demand for relief may be in the alternative.

(3) Unless otherwise provided by statute, the filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency's decision. The agency may grant, or the reviewing court may order, a stay upon terms which it deems proper.

(4) Within thirty (30) days after the service of the petition, or within further time allowed by the court, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings, the record may be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record.

(5) If, before the date set for hearing, application is made to the court for leave to present additional evidence, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were good reasons for failure to present it in the proceeding before the agency, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken before the agency upon conditions determined by the court. The agency may modify its findings and decision by reason of the additional evidence and shall file that evidence and any modifications, new findings, or decisions with the reviewing court.

(6) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record. In cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the agency, not shown in the record, proof thereof may be taken in the court. The court, upon request, shall hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(7) The court shall not substitute its judgment for that of the agency as to the weight of the evidence on questions of fact. The court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings. The court may reverse or modify the decision if substantial rights of the appellant have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions or decisions are:

(a) in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions;

(b) in excess of the statutory authority of the agency;

(c) made upon unlawful procedure;

(d) affected by other error of law;

(e) clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative and substantial evidence on the whole record;

(f) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion; or

(g) because findings of fact, upon issues essential to the decision, were not made although requested.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4217. Appeals. An aggrieved party may obtain review of a final judgment of a district court under this act by appeal to the supreme court within sixty (60) days after entry of judgment. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from district courts in civil cases. Unless otherwise provided by statute or unless the agency has granted a stay through the completion of the judicial review process;

(1) If appeal is taken from a judgment of the district court affirming an agency decision, the agency decision shall not be stayed except upon order of the supreme court; except that, in cases where a stay is in effect at the time of the filing of notice of appeal, the stay shall be continued by operation of law for twenty (20) days from the date of filing of the notice.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

General Provisions

82-4218. Declaratory rulings by agencies. Each agency shall provide by rule for the filing and prompt disposition of petitions for declaratory rulings as to the applicability of any statutory provision or of any rule or order of the agency. A declaratory ruling, or the refusal to issue such a ruling, shall be subject to judicial review in the same manner as decisions or orders in contested cases.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4219. Declaratory judgments on validity or application of rules. The validity or application of a rule may be determined in an action for declaratory judgment if it is found that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs, or threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the plaintiff. The action may be brought in the district court for the county in which the plaintiff resides or has his principal place of business, or in which the agency maintains its principal office. The agency shall be made a party to the action. A declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the plaintiff has requested the agency to pass upon the validity or applicability of the rule in question.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4220. Subpoenas and enforcement—compelling testimony. (1) An agency conducting any proceeding subject to this act shall have the power to require the furnishing of such information, the attendance of such witnesses, and the production of such books, records, papers, documents and other objects as may be necessary and proper for the purposes of the proceeding. In furtherance of this power, an agency upon its own motion may, and upon request of any party appearing in a contested case shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or subpoenas duces tecum. The method for service of subpoenas, witness fees and mileage shall be the same as required in civil actions in the district courts of the state. Except as otherwise provided by statute, witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose request the subpoena was issued.

(2) In case of disobedience of any subpoena issued and served under this section or of the refusal of any witness to testify as to any material matter with regard to which he may be interrogated in a proceeding before the agency, the agency may apply to any district court in the state for an order to compel compliance with the subpoena or the giving of testimony. If the agency fails or refuses to seek enforcement of a subpoena issued at the request of a party, or to compel the giving of testimony deemed material by a party, the party may make such application. The court shall hear the matter as expeditiously as possible. If the disobedience or refusal is found to be unjustified, the court shall enter an order requiring compliance. Disobedience of such order shall be punishable by contempt of court in the same manner and by the same procedures as is provided for like conduct committed in the course of civil actions in district courts. If another method of subpoena enforcement or compelling testimony is provided by statute, it may be used as an alternative to the method provided for in this section.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4221. Representation. Any person compelled to appear in person or who voluntarily appears before any agency or representative thereof shall be accorded the right to be accompanied, represented and advised by counsel. In a proceeding before an agency, every party shall be accorded the right to appear in person or by or with counsel but this act shall not be construed as requiring an agency to furnish counsel to any such person.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4222. Service. Except where a statute expressly provides to the contrary, service in all agency proceedings subject to the provisions of this act and in proceedings for judicial review thereof, shall be as prescribed for civil actions in the district courts.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4223. Construction and effect. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to limit or repeal requirements imposed by statute or otherwise recognized law. No subsequent legislation shall be deemed to supersede or modify any provision of this act, whether by implication or otherwise, except to the extent that such legislation shall do so expressly.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4224. Repeal of inconsistent provisions. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

82-4225. Severability. The provisions of this act are severable, and if any part of provision thereof shall be held void the decision of the court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining part of provisions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 380, L. 1973.

82-4303. Comprehensive insurance plan for state—risks insured—deductible insurance. The department of administration shall be responsible for the acquisition and administration of all the insurance of the state, as defined herein.

The department of administration shall, after consultation with the departments, agencies, commissions, and other instrumentalities of the state, provide a comprehensive insurance plan for the state providing insurance coverage to the state in amounts not less than the minimum specified in section 7 [82-4307] of this act and shall have the authority to purchase, renew, cancel and modify all policies according to the comprehensive insurance plan. The plan may include property, casualty, liability, crime and fidelity, and any such other policies of insurance as the department of administration may from time to time deem reasonable and prudent.

The department of administration may in its discretion elect to utilize a deductible insurance plan, either wholly or in part. Such a plan shall never have a deductible amount in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per occurrence, and shall contain provisions allowing for an aggregate deductible amount not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) annually under each type of insurance as enumerated in the preceding paragraph.

The department of administration, if it elects to utilize a deductible insurance plan, is authorized to charge the individual state participants an amount equal to the cost of a full-coverage insurance plan, until such time as a reserve in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), the amount of the total aggregate annual deductible, is created. In each subsequent year, the department shall be authorized to charge a sufficient amount over the actual cost of the deductible insurance to replenish such reserves.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 380, L. 1973.

82-4306. Political subdivisions. All political subdivisions of the state shall have the authority to procure insurance under this act.

(1) With respect to casualty and liability policies, exclusive of interest and costs, the insurance carrier or carriers shall pay on behalf of the insured governmental entity up to a limit of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) in any one (1) occurrence.

(2) With respect to all other types of insurance for the state, the limits of liability and the amounts of insurance shall be determined and set by the department of administration in accordance with the provisions of section 3 [82-4303] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 380, L. 1973.

82-4308. Conditions construed in compliance with act—customary exclusions. Any insurance policy, rider or endorsement hereafter issued and purchased to insure against any risk which may arise as a result of the application of this act, which contains any condition or provision not in compliance with the requirements of this act, shall not be rendered invalid thereby, but shall be construed and applied in accordance with such conditions and provisions as would have applied had such policy, rider or endorsement been in full compliance with this act, provided the policy is otherwise valid. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any such insurance policy, rider or endorsements from containing standard and customary exclusions of coverages which the department of administration deems to be reasonable and prudent upon considering the availability and the cost of such insurance coverages.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 380, L. 1973.

82-4309. Political subdivision tax levy to pay premiums. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, all political subdivisions shall have authority to levy an annual property tax in the amount necessary to pay the premium for insurance as herein authorized, even though as a result of such levy the maximum levy as otherwise restricted by law is exceeded thereby; provided, that the revenues derived therefrom may not be used for any other purpose.

WESTERN INTERSTATE NUCLEAR COMPACT

ARTICLE I.

Policy and Purpose

The party states recognize that the proper employment of scientific and technological discoveries and advances in nuclear and related fields and direct and collateral application and adaptation of processes and techniques developed in connection therewith, properly correlated with the other resources of the region, can assist substantially in the industrial progress of the west and the further development of the economy of the region. They also recognize that optimum benefit from nuclear and related scientific or technological resources, facilities and skills requires systematic encouragement, guidance, assistance, and promotion from the party states on a co-operative basis. It is the policy of the party states to undertake such co-operation on a continuing basis. It is the purpose of this compact to provide the instruments and framework for such a cooperative effort in nuclear and related fields, to enhance the economy of the west and contribute to the individual and community well-being of the region's people.

ARTICLE II.

The Board

(a) There is hereby created an agency of the party states to be known as the "western interstate nuclear board," hereinafter called the board. The board shall be composed of one (1) member from each party state designated or appointed in accordance with the law of the state which he represents and serving and subject to removal in accordance with such law. Any member of the board may provide for the discharge of his duties and the performance of his functions thereon, either for the duration of his membership or for any lesser period of time, by a deputy or assistant, if the laws of his state make specific provisions therefor. The federal government may be represented without vote if provision is made by federal law for such representation.

(b) The board members of the party states shall each be entitled to one (1) vote on the board. No action of the board shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of all members representing the party states are present and unless a majority of the total number of votes on the board are cast in favor thereof.

(c) The board shall have a seal.

(d) The board shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a treasurer. The board shall appoint and fix the compensation of an executive director who shall serve at its pleasure and who shall also act as secretary, and who, together with the treasurer, and such other personnel as the board may direct, shall be bonded in such amounts as the board may require.

(e) The executive director, with the approval of the board, shall appoint and remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the board's functions irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states.

(f) The board may establish and maintain, independently or in conjunction with any one or more of the party states, or its institutions or subdivisions, a suitable retirement system for its full-time employees. Employees of the board shall be eligible for social security coverage in respect of old age and survivors insurance provided that the board takes such steps as may be necessary pursuant to federal law to participate in such program of insurance as a governmental agency or unit. The board may establish and maintain or participate in such additional programs of employee benefits as may be appropriate.

(g) The board may borrow, accept, or contract for the services of personnel from any state or the United States or any subdivision or agency thereof, from any interstate agency, or from any institution, person, firm or corporation.

(h) The board may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state or the United States or any subdivision or agency thereof, or interstate agency, or from any institution, person, firm, or corporation, and may receive, utilize, and dispose of the same. The nature, amount and conditions, if any, attendant upon any donation or grant accepted pursuant to this paragraph or upon any borrowing pursuant to paragraph (g) of this article, together with the identity of the donor, grantor or lender, shall be detailed in the annual report of the board.

The board shall publish its bylaws, rules, and regulations in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof, and shall also file a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(k) The board annually shall make to the governor of each party state, a report covering the activities of the board for the preceding year, and embodying such recommendations as may have been adopted by the board, which report shall be transmitted to the legislature of said state. The board may issue such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE III.

Finances

(a) The board shall submit to the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that jurisdiction for presentation to the legislature thereof.

(b) Each of the board's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states. Each of the board's requests for appropriations pursuant to a budget of estimated expenditures shall be apportioned equally among the party states. Subject to appropriation by their respective legislatures, the board shall be provided with such funds by each of the party states as are necessary to provide the means of establishing and maintaining facilities, a staff of personnel, and such activities as may be necessary to fulfill the powers and duties imposed upon and entrusted to the board.

(c) The board may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under article II, paragraph (h) of this compact, provided that the board takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to the incurring of any obligation to be met in whole or in part in this manner. Except where the board makes use of funds available to it under article II, paragraph (h) hereof, the board shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party jurisdictions adequate to meet the same.

(d) Any expenses and any other costs for each member of the board in attending board meetings shall be met by the board.

(e) The board shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the board shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the board shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become a part of the annual report of the board.

(f) The accounts of the board shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection to persons authorized by the board, and duly designated representatives of governments contributing to the board's support.

ARTICLE IV.

Advisory Committees

The board may establish such advisory and technical committees as it may deem necessary, membership on which may include but not be limited to private citizens, expert and lay personnel, representatives of industry, labor, commerce, agriculture, civic associations, medicine, education, voluntary health agencies, and officials of local, state and federal government, and may co-operate with and use the services of any such committees and the organizations which they represent in furthering any of its activities under this compact.

(p) Prepare, publish and distribute, with or without charge, such reports, bulletins, newsletters or other materials as it deems appropriate.

(q) Ascertain from time to time such methods, practices, circumstances, and conditions as may bring about the prevention and control of nuclear incidents in the area comprising the party states, to co-ordinate the nuclear incident prevention and control plans and the work relating thereto of the appropriate agencies of the party states and to facilitate the rendering of aid by the party states to each other in coping with nuclear incidents.

The board may formulate and, in accordance with need from time to time, revise a regional plan or regional plans for coping with nuclear incidents within the territory of the party states as a whole or within any subregion or subregions of the geographic area covered by this compact.

Any nuclear incident plan in force pursuant to this paragraph shall designate the official or agency in each party state covered by the plan who shall co-ordinate requests for aid pursuant to article VI of this compact and the furnishing of aid in response thereto.

Unless the party states concerned expressly otherwise agree, the board shall not administer the summoning and dispatching of aid, but this function shall be undertaken directly by the designated agencies and officers of the party states.

The plan or plans of the board in force pursuant to this paragraph shall provide for reports to the board concerning the occurrence of nuclear incidents and the requests for aid on account thereof, together with summaries of the actual working and effectiveness of mutual aid in particular instances.

From time to time, the board shall analyze the information gathered from reports of aid pursuant to article VI and such other instances of mutual aid as may have come to its attention, so that experience in the rendering of such aid may be available.

(r) Prepare, maintain, and implement a regional plan or regional plans for carrying out the duties, powers, or functions conferred upon the board by this compact.

(s) Undertake responsibilities imposed or necessarily involved with regional participation pursuant to such co-operative programs of the federal government as are useful in connection with the fields covered by this compact.

ARTICLE VI.

Mutual Aid

(a) Whenever a party state, or any state or local governmental authorities therein, request aid from any other party state pursuant to this compact in coping with a nuclear incident, it shall be the duty of the requested state to render all possible aid to the requesting state which is consonant with the maintenance of protection of its own people.

(b) Whenever the officers or employees of any party state are rendering outside aid pursuant to the request of another party state under this compact, the officers or employees of such state shall, under the direction of the authorities of the state to which they are rendering aid, have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges and immunities as comparable officers and employees of the state to which they are rendering aid.

(c) No party state or its officers or employees rendering outside aid pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission on their part while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

(d) All liability that may arise either under the laws of the requesting state or under the laws of the aiding state or under the laws of a third state on account of or in connection with a request for aid, shall be assumed and borne by the requesting state.

(e) Any party state rendering outside aid pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party state receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost of all materials, transportation, wages, salaries and maintenance of officers, employees and equipment incurred in connection with such requests: provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any assisting party state from assuming such loss, damage, expense or other cost or from loaning such equipment or from donating such services to the receiving party state without charge or cost.

(f) Each party state shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured officers and employees and the representatives of deceased officers and employees in case officers or employees sustain injuries or death while rendering outside aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within the state by or in which the officer or employee was regularly employed.

ARTICLE VII.

Supplementary Agreements

(a) To the extent that the board has not undertaken an activity or project which would be within its power under the provisions of article V of this compact, any two (2) or more of the party states, acting by their duly constituted administrative officials, may enter into supplementary agreements for the undertaking and continuance of such an activity or project. Any such agreement shall specify the purpose or purposes; its duration and the procedure for termination thereof or withdrawal therefrom; the method of financing and allocating the costs of the activity or project; and such other matters as may be necessary or appropriate.

No such supplementary agreement entered into pursuant to this article shall become effective prior to its submission to and approval by the board. The board shall give such approval unless it finds that the supplementary agreement or activity or project contemplated thereby is inconsistent with the provisions of this compact or a program or activity conducted by or participated in by the board.

(b) Unless all of the party states participate in a supplementary agreement, any cost or costs thereof shall be borne separately by the states party thereto. However, the board may administer or otherwise assist in the operation of any supplementary agreement.

(c) No party to a supplementary agreement entered into pursuant to this article shall be relieved thereby of any obligation or duty assumed by said party state under or pursuant to this compact, except that timely and proper performance of such obligation or duty by means of the supplementary agreement may be offered as performance pursuant to the compact.

(d) The provisions to this article shall apply to supplementary agreements and activities thereunder, but shall not be construed to repeal or impair any authority which officers or agencies of party states may have pursuant to other laws to undertake co-operative arrangements or projects.

ARTICLE VIII.

Other Laws and Relations

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to:

(a) Permit or require any person or other entity to avoid or refuse compliance with any law, rule, regulation, order or ordinance of a party state or subdivision thereof now or hereafter made, enacted or in force.

(b) Limit, diminish, or otherwise impair jurisdiction exercised by the atomic energy commission, any agency successor thereto, or any other federal department, agency or officer pursuant to and in conformity with any valid and operative act of Congress; nor limit, diminish, affect, or otherwise impair jurisdiction exercised by any officer or agency of a party state, except to the extent that the provisions of this compact may provide therefor.

(c) Alter the relations between the respective internal responsibilities of the government of a party state and its subdivisions.

(d) Permit or authorize the board to own or operate any facility, reactor, or installation for industrial or commercial purposes.

ARTICLE IX.

Eligible Parties, Entry Into Force and Withdrawal

(a) Any or all of the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming shall be eligible to become party to this compact.

(b) As to any eligible party state, this compact shall become effective when its legislature shall have enacted the same into law, provided, that it shall not become initially effective until enacted into law by five (5) states.

(c) Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until two (2) years after the governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the governors of all other party states. No withdrawal shall effect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

(d) Guam and American Samoa, or either of them may participate in the compact to such extent as may be mutually agreed by the board and the duly constituted authorities of Guam or American Samoa, as the case may be. Such participation shall not include the furnishing or receipt of mutual aid pursuant to article VI, unless that article has been enacted or otherwise adopted so as to have the full force and effect of law in the jurisdiction affected. Neither Guam nor American Samoa shall be entitled to voting participation on the board, unless it has become a full party to the compact.

ARTICLE X.

Severability and Construction

The provisions of this compact and of any supplementary agreement entered into hereunder shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact or such supplementary agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact or such supplementary agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact or any supplementary agreement entered into hereunder shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact or such supplementary agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. The provisions of this compact and of any supplementary agreement entered into pursuant thereto shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes thereof.

An act to reorganize the executive department of Montana state government in accordance with the constitutional amendment, chapter 1 of the extraordinary session, Laws of Montana, 1969, adopted at the general election of November 3, 1970, and effective under the governor's proclamation, November 20, 1970, which pro-

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "title" for "act"; and deleted "of 1971" from the end of the short title.

(2) It is the public policy of this state and the purpose of this title to create a structure of the executive branch of state government which is responsive to the needs of the people of this state and sufficiently flexible to meet changing conditions; to strengthen the executive capacity to administer effectively and efficiently at all levels; to encourage greater public participation in state government; to effect the grouping of state agencies into a reasonable number of departments primarily according to function; to provide that the responsibility within the executive branch of state government for the implementation of programs and policies is clearly fixed and ascertainable; and to eliminate overlapping and duplication of effort within the executive branch of state government.

Members who are full-time salaried officers or employees of this state or of any political subdivision of this state are not entitled to be compensated for their service as members, but are entitled to be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses.

(6) Unless otherwise specified by the creating authority, at its first meeting in each year each advisory council shall elect a chairman and such other officers as it considers necessary.

(7) Unless otherwise specified by the creating authority, each advisory council shall meet at least annually and shall also meet on the call of the creating authority or the governor, and may meet at other times on the call of the chairman or a majority of its members. An advisory council may not meet outside the city of Helena without the express prior authorization of the creating authority.

(8) A majority of the membership of an advisory council constitutes a quorum to do business.

(9) Except as provided in subsection (10) of this section, an advisory council may not be created or appointed by a department head or any other official without the approval of the governor. In order for the creation or approval of the creation of an advisory council to be effective, the governor must file in his office and in the office of the secretary of state a record of the council created showing the council's:

(a) Name, in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.

(b) Composition.

(c) Names and addresses of the appointed members.

(d) Purpose.

(e) Term of existence, in accordance with subsection (11) of this section.

(10) The board of education, the attorney general, and the superintendent of public instruction may create advisory councils, which shall serve at their pleasure, without the approval of the governor. (11) An advisory council may not be created to remain in existence longer than two (2) years after the date of its creation or beyond the period required to receive federal or private funds, whichever occurs later, unless extended by the governor, or by the board of education, the attorney general, or the superintendent of public instruction for those advisory councils created in the manner set forth in subsection (10) of this section. If the existence of an advisory council is extended, they shall specify a new date, not more than two (2) years later, when the existence of the advisory council ends, and file a record of the order in the office of the governor and the office of the secretary of state. The existence of any advisory council may be extended as many times as necessary.

The 1973 amendment substituted "executive branch" for "executive department" in the second sentence of subsection (1); inserted "or of any political subdivision of this state" in both sentences in subsection (5); substituted "is entitled to be paid" or equivalent terminology throughout subsection (5) for "may be paid"; inserted "actual and necessary" before "expenses" near the end of subsection (5); deleted "executive order of" after "unless extended by" in the first sentence of subsection (11); and deleted former subsection (12) requiring the filing of a one-time report on advisory bodies.

(1) Advisory councils created in accordance with section 82A-110.

(2) Units within the internal structure of a department established under section 82A-107(g).

History: En. 82A-111 by Sec. 1, Ch. 272, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 358, L. 1973.

82A-112. Quasi-judicial boards. If an agency is designated by law as a quasi-judicial board for the purposes of this section:

(1) The number of and qualifications of its members are as prescribed by law; in addition to those qualifications, at least one (1) member shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state.

(2)(a) The governor shall appoint the members. A majority of the members shall be appointed to serve for terms concurrent with the gubernatorial term, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The remaining members shall be appointed to serve for terms ending on the first day of the third January of the succeeding gubernatorial term, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. It is the intent of this subsection that the governor appoint a majority of the members of each quasi-judicial board at the beginning of his term, and the remaining members in the middle of his term. As used in this subsection, "majority" means the next whole number greater than half.

(b) This subsection does not affect the terms of persons who were members of a continued board on the effective date of the chapter of this title continuing the board; upon the expiration of those terms, members shall be appointed and serve in accordance with this subsection.

(3) The appointment of each member is subject to the confirmation of the senate. However, the governor may appoint a member to assume office before the senate meets at its next regular session to consider the appointment. A member so appointed has all the powers of the office upon assuming that office, and is a de jure officer, notwithstanding the fact that the senate has not yet confirmed the appointment. If the senate does not confirm the appointment of a member, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve for the remainder of the term.

(4) A vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as regular appointments, and the member appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term to which he is appointed.

(5) The governor shall designate the chairman. The chairman may make and second motions and vote.

(6) Members may be removed by the governor only for cause.

(7) Unless he is a full-time salaried officer or employee of this state or of a political subdivision of this state, each member is entitled to be paid twenty-five dollars ($25) for each day in which he is actually and necessarily engaged in the performance of board duties, and he is also entitled to be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while in the performance of board duties. Members who are full-time salaried officers or employees of this state or of a political subdivision of this state are not entitled to be compensated for their service as members, but are entitled to be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses.

(8) A majority of the membership constitutes a quorum to do business. A favorable vote of at least a majority of all members of a board is required to adopt any resolution, motion, or other decision, unless otherwise provided by law.

The property includes real property, records, office equipment, supplies, contracts, books, papers, documents, maps, appropriations, accounts within and without the state treasury, funds, vehicles, and all other similar property. However, the department or unit may not use or divert moneys in a fund or account for a purpose other than provided by law. The governor shall resolve any conflict as to the proper disposition of the property, and his decision is final. This section does not apply to property owned by the federal government.

CHAPTER 7—TORT ACTIONS AGAINST STATE

Section
83-701. Jurisdiction of district courts.
83-706.1. Governmental immunity abolished.

83-701. Jurisdiction of district courts. The district courts of the state of Montana shall have exclusive jurisdiction on any claim against the state of Montana for injury to person or property, accruing on or after July 2, 1973, on account of damage to or loss of property, or on account of personal injuries or death caused by the negligence or wrongful act or omission of any employee of the state of Montana, while acting within the scope of his office or employment, under circumstances where the state of Montana, if a private person, would be liable to the claimant for such damage, loss, injury or death, in accordance with the law of the state of Montana.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "to hear, determine, and render judgment to the extent of the insurance coverage carried by the state of Montana" after "exclusive jurisdiction"; substituted "for injury to person or property, accruing on or after July 2, 1973" for "for money only, accruing on or after the passage and approval of this act"; and deleted two sentences reading: "The state of Montana shall be liable in respect of such claims to the said claimant in the same manner and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances, except the state of Montana shall not be liable for interest prior to judgment, nor for punitive damages. Costs shall be allowed in all courts to the successful complainant, to the same extent if the state of Montana were a private litigant, except that such costs shall not include attorneys' fees."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Sovereign Immunity

Limitations of the doctrine of sovereign immunity (40-4401 et seq., 75-5939 et seq., and 83-701 et seq.) are binding upon the supreme court so that state is not liable in excess of collectible insurance. Kaldahl v. State Highway Commission, — M —, 490 P 2d 220.

State highway commission and state of Montana are immune from suit for plaintiffs' injuries and property damage to their automobile despite allegations that the highway department had not kept the highway in proper and reasonable repair, or erected appropriate warning signs where there was a dangerous and unsafe section containing "chuck" holes, one of which caused plaintiffs' automobile to jolt out of control, overturn, and injure plaintiffs. Kaldahl v. State Highway Commission, — M —, 490 P 2d 220.

83-706. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 83-706 (Sec. 6, Ch. 254, L. 1959), creating state immunity from liability in excess of insurance coverage, was repealed by Sec. 3, Ch. 93, Laws 1973.

83-706.1. Governmental immunity abolished. The state, counties, cities, towns, and all other local governmental entities shall have no immunity from suit for injury to a person or property. This provision shall apply only to claims for relief and causes of action arising after July 1, 1973. The state, through the department of administration, has the right to provide for self insurance for claims for injury to a person or property. The state, counties, cities, towns, and all other local governmental entities have the right also, but not the duty, to purchase insurance to protect against claims for injury to a person or property.

Title of Act

An act to implement article II, section 18, concerning sovereign immunity by providing availability of insurance coverage for governmental entities; amending section 87-701 [83-701], R. C. M. 1947; repealing section 83-706, R. C. M. 1947; and providing for an effective date.

CHAPTER 8—JURISDICTION OF INDIAN COUNTRY

Effect of Chapter

This section constitutes valid and binding consent of people of Montana pursuant to federal statute to assume jurisdiction over crimes committed by or against Indians on Indian territory. State ex rel. McDonald v. District Court, — M —, 496 P 2d 78.

Legislative Action Sufficient to Establish Jurisdiction

Federal statute providing for state jurisdiction over offenses committed by or against Indians on Indian reservations did not require constitutional amendment for valid and binding consent of people of Montana to assume jurisdiction; where Congress retained power to reassume federal jurisdiction through repeal of same statute state legislative action was sufficient to establish jurisdiction. State ex rel. McDonald v. District Court, — M —, 496 P 2d 78.

Scope of Chapter

The Northern Cheyenne reservation was not within the scope of this chapter, and in the absence of action by the state and the tribe in strict compliance with congressional requirements for transfer of jurisdiction, the tribal council could not waive to the district court jurisdiction of juvenile delinquency on the reservation. Blackwolf v. District Court, — M —, 493 P 2d 1293.

Tribal Council Action

Failure of state legislature to take affirmative legislative action concerning either civil or criminal jurisdiction over Indians on Blackfeet reservation as permitted under 28 U. S. C. § 1360 was not remedied by unilateral tribal council action, which provided that tribal and state courts have concurrent jurisdiction in all civil suits against members of Blackfeet tribe. Kennerly v. District Court of the Ninth Judicial District of Montana, 400 US 423, 27 L Ed 2d 507, 91 S Ct 480.

83-806. Withdrawal of consent to state jurisdiction.

Withdrawal of Consent

Tribal resolution attempting to withdraw consent to state jurisdiction over criminal offenses committed on Indian reservation was ineffective where it was enacted more than two years after state assumed jurisdiction; governor had no power to extend time limit for withdrawal of tribal consent. State ex rel. McDonald v. District Court, — M —, 496 P 2d 78.

Tribal resolution attempting to withdraw consent to state jurisdiction over criminal offenses committed on Indian reservation did not constitute a valid withdrawal of such consent where resolution was never transmitted to governor and no gubernatorial proclamation was ever issued concerning the tribal resolution. State ex rel. McDonald v. District Court, — M —, 496 P 2d 78.

CHAPTER 9—ASSIGNMENT OF CLAIMS AGAINST STATE

Section
83-901. Notice to state auditor.
83-902. Limitations on assignment.
83-903. Power of state auditor to promulgate rules.
83-904. Effect of assignment.

83-901. Notice to state auditor. All transfers and assignments made of any claim against the state of Montana, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, except as hereinafter provided, shall be absolutely null and void and unenforceable against the state of Montana unless the assignee thereof files written notice of the assignment on such forms as may be required by the state auditor, together with a true copy of the instrument of assignment.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 44, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act to require assignees of moneys due from the state of Montana to file written notice of assignment and a copy of the assignment instrument with the state auditor; restricting multiple assignments; authorizing promulgation of rules and regulations for such assignments by the state auditor; and allowing deductions to be made from salaries of employees of the state for specified purposes.

83-902. Limitations on assignment. Unless otherwise expressly permitted by the state auditor, no more than one assignment of a claim shall be effective at one time, and no assignment shall be made to more than one party, except that an assignment may be made to one party as agent or trustee for two (2) or more parties. An assignment shall not be subject to further assignment.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 44, L. 1967.

83-903. Power of state auditor to promulgate rules. The state auditor may promulgate rules and regulations regarding the form of assignment, the procedures for filing assignments, and the submission of claims covering assigned funds.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 44, L. 1967.

83-904. Effect of assignment. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impair the negotiability of state warrants, nor preclude employees of the state of Montana from authorizing deductions from salaries for employees group insurance programs authorized by law, union dues, or purchase of U.S. government savings bonds.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 44, L. 1967.

(1998) Exemptions from taxation. The property of the United States, the state, counties, cities, towns, school districts, municipal corporations, public libraries, all unprocessed, perishable fruits and vegetables in farm storage and owned by the producer, such other property as is used exclusively for agricultural and horticultural societies, for educational purposes, places of actual religious worship, hospitals and places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity, evidence of debt secured by mortgages of record upon real or personal property in the state of Montana, and public art galleries and public observatories not used or held for private or corporate profit, are exempt from taxation, but no more land than is necessary for such purpose is exempt; provided, the term "institutions of purely public charity" as used in this act shall include organizations owning and operating facilities for the care of the retired or aged or chronically ill which are not operated for gain or profit; provided, that the terms public art galleries and public observatories used in this act shall mean only such art galleries and observatories whether of public or private ownership, as are open to the public, without charge or fee at all reasonable hours, and are used for the purpose of education only, and also when a clubhouse or building erected by or belonging to any society or organization of honorably discharged United States soldiers, sailors or marines who served in army or navy of United States, is used exclusively for educational, fraternal, benevolent or purely public charitable purposes, rather than for gain or profit, together with the library and furniture necessarily used in any such building, and all property, real or personal, in the possession of legal guardians of incompetent veterans of the World War or minor dependents of such veterans, where such property is funds or derived from funds received from the United States as pension, compensation, insurance, adjusted compensation, or gratuity, shall be exempt from all taxation as property of the United States while held by the guardian, but not after title passes to the veteran or minor in his or her own right on account of removal of legal disability.

Any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association, or other group seeking to qualify its property for inclusion in this class shall make application to the state department of revenue in such manner or form as may be required by the department.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 266 and once by Ch. 361. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 266, Laws of 1973, added the second, third and fourth paragraphs.

Chapter 361, Laws of 1973, inserted "all unprocessed, perishable fruits and vegetables in farm storage and owned by the producer" near the beginning of the first paragraph.

"Educational Purposes"

The term "educational purposes," as used in section 2, article XII of the 1889 constitution and this section, exempting property used exclusively for "educational purposes" from taxation, is not defined in terms of common scholastic institutions of grammar school, high school and university or college. Organizations for the social, intellectual, physical, or religious welfare of the children are exempt equally. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Religious education is exempt as an "educational purpose" and not as "actual religious worship" even though elements of the latter may be present and may serve to strengthen the exemption of all the property. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

"Exclusive Use" Defined

The words "exclusive use" consistently have been held to mean the primary and inherent use and not the mere secondary or incidental uses of the property. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Exemption of Church Camp

Where church summer camp, containing twenty-two acres of land and twenty-eight improvements, was "exclusively used for educational purposes" within the meaning of this section and section 2, article XII of the 1889 constitution, it was exempt from taxation. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Extent of Exemption

When exempting an institution of charity, sufficient residence and recreation area may also be exempt. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Limits of Public Charity

An institution of purely public charity, which is exempt from taxation under section 2, article XII of the 1889 constitution and this section, may be devoted to bringing people under religious influence, the beneficiaries of the charity may pay a small portion of the cost, and the activity may be limited to a particular class so long as the numbers who may participate remain somewhat indefinite. Flathead Lake Methodist Camp v. Webb, 144 M 565, 399 P 2d 90.

Nonprofit Foundation

Nonprofit foundation operating and maintaining home for aged was entitled to tax exemption under statute granting exemption to institutions of purely public charity, notwithstanding evidence that foundation charged fees and imposed admission requirements. Bozeman Deaconess Foundation v. Ford, 151 M 143, 439 P 2d 915, 37 ALR 3d 558.

84-207. Privilege tax upon possession and use of tax-exempt property —exceptions. From and after the effective date of this act there is imposed and there shall be collected a tax upon the possession or other beneficial use enjoyed by any private individual, association, or corporation of any property, real or personal, which for any reason is exempt from taxation. No tax shall be imposed upon the possession or other beneficial use of public lands occupied under the terms of mineral, timber or grazing leases or permits issued by the United States or the state of Montana or upon any easement unless the lease, permit or easement entitles the lessee or permittee to exclusive possession of the premises to which the lease, permit or easement relates.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 370, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

This act became effective March 17, 1969.

Title of Act

An act to provide a privilege tax upon possession and use of tax-exempt property; providing exceptions thereto; fixing the rate of such tax and credit against tax; providing for assessment, collection and distribution of said taxes; providing penalties for failure to pay the tax and preserving constitutional exemption, and providing an effective date.

84-208. Rate of tax same as ad valorem property tax—credit against tax on use of federally owned property. The tax imposed upon such possession or other beneficial use of tax-exempt property shall be in the same amount and to the same extent as the ad valorem property tax would be if the possessor or user were the owner thereof; provided that there shall be credited against the tax so imposed upon the beneficial use of property owned by the federal government the amount of payments which are made in lieu of taxes.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 370, L. 1969.

84-209. Assessment—collection and distribution—taxes shall not become a lien against property. The tax imposed hereunder shall be assessed to such possessors or users of the tax-exempt property upon the same forms, and shall be collected and distributed at the same time and in the same manner as taxes assessed to owners, possessors, or other claimants of property which is subject to ad valorem taxation, except that such taxes shall not become a lien against the property, and no such tax-exempt property may be attached, encumbered, sold or otherwise affected for the collection of the tax imposed hereunder.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 370, L. 1969.

84-210. Failure to pay tax—remedies of county. A tax due and unpaid under this act shall constitute a debt due the county for and on behalf of the various taxing units concerned in the tax. If the tax imposed by this act or any portion thereof is not paid at the time the same becomes delinquent the county auditor may issue a warrant in the name of the county directed to the clerk of the district court in his county and thereupon the clerk shall enter in the judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the delinquent taxpayer mentioned in the warrant and, in the appropriate columns, the amount of tax, penalties, interest and other costs for which the warrant is issued and the date when such warrant is filed, and thereupon the warrant so docketed shall have the force and effect of a judgment duly rendered by a district court and docketed in the office of the clerk thereof, and the county shall have the same remedies against the possessor user as any other judgment docket.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 370, L. 1969.

84-211. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 84-211 (Sec. 5, Ch. 370, L. 1969), relating to exemptions granted by the 1889 Montana constitution, was repealed by Sec. 58, Ch. 100, Laws 1973, and Sec. 120, Ch. 405, Laws 1973.

2. To subpoena and examine any person in relation to any statement furnished to it, or which discloses property which is assessable in the state; and it may exercise this power in any county where the person whom it desires to examine may be found, but has no power to require such persons to appear before it in any other county than that in which the subpoena is served. Every person who refuses to furnish the statement hereinbefore required, or to make and subscribe such affidavit respecting his name and place of residence, or to appear and testify when requested so to do by the department, as above provided, for each and every refusal, and as often as the same is repeated, forfeits to the people of the state the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by action brought in the name of the state in any police or justice's court. In case such affidavit shows the residence of the person making the same to be in any county other than that in which it is taken, or the statement discloses property in any county other than that in which it is made, the department must, in the respective case, file the affidavit or statement in its office, and transmit a copy of the same, certified by it, to its agent in the county in which such residence or property is therein shown to be. All moneys recovered under the provisions of this section must be paid into the treasury of the county in which the property is located.

Jurisdiction of District Court

District court acted beyond its jurisdiction by enjoining board of equalization from revising, grading and valuation of nonirrigated farm land pursuant to this section. State ex rel. Lord v. District Court, 154 M 269, 463 P 2d 323.

84-429.8. Property tax administration fund—tax levy for. All moneys in this fund shall be available to the state legislature for appropriation to the proper agency. No moneys shall be expended from this fund without an appropriation by the legislature. If any property owner shall feel aggrieved at the classification and/or the appraisal so made by the department of revenue he shall have the right to appeal to the county tax appeal board and then to the state tax appeal board whose findings shall be final subject to the right of review in the proper court or courts.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 191, L. 1957; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 405, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the board of county commissioners; and substituted "county tax appeal board and then to the state tax appeal board" for "state board of equalization" in the final sentence.

State Directives

Boards of county commissioners could not ignore directives of state board of equalization on subject of timberland valuation and make their own valuation on theory that state board's directives were invalid because not supported by evidence since validity would have to be adjudicated and since, in any event, county boards do not have power of increasing valuations. State ex rel. Conrad v. Managhan, 157 M 335, 458 P 2d 948.

Summary Judgment

In declaratory judgment action in which notice of reclassification was found not to comply with this section, district court did not abuse its discretion in granting plaintiff-landowners' motion for summary judgment without considering further issues raised by plaintiffs since they lacked standing as to those issues. Mittelstadt v. Buckingham, 156 M 407, 480 P 2d 831.

84-429.12. Classification and appraisal—general and uniform methods. It is hereby made the duty of the state department of revenue to implement the provisions of this act by providing:

1. For a general and uniform method of classifying lands in the state of Montana for the purpose of securing an equitable and uniform basis of assessment of said lands for taxation purposes.

All lands shall be classified according to their use or uses and graded within each class according to soil and productive capacity. In such classification work, use shall be made of soil surveys and maps and all other pertinent available information. All lands must be classified by forty (40) acre tracts or fractional lots.

All agricultural lands must be classified and appraised as agricultural lands without regard to the best and highest value use of adjacent or neighboring lands.

2 to 4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 512 and once by Ch. 516.

Chapter 512 made the same changes as did Ch. 516 and made another change as well. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 512, Laws of 1973, substituted "department of revenue" for "board of county commissioners" in the preliminary clause; and added the third paragraph to subsection 1.

Chapter 516, Laws of 1973, substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the preliminary clause.

Basis for Assessment

County board of equalization properly assessed plaintiff's property on basis of "market value" rather than on basis of agricultural land, even though it was being used for agricultural purposes, where property was within commercial area and its value was much greater than that assigned to agricultural property. Mohland v. State Board of Equalization, 155 M 49, 466 P 2d 582, certiorari denied, 400 US 940, 91 S Ct 232.

Board Authority

County board of equalization possesses jurisdiction and authority to direct and sanction classification, appraisal and assessment of rural and urban improvements using "market value" as basis and classifying them according to use or uses other than those to which such land is actually devoted. Mohland v. State Board of Equalization, 155 M 49, 466 P 2d 582, certiorari denied, 400 US 940, 91 S Ct 232.

Boards of county commissioners cannot ignore directives of state board of equalization on subject of timberland valuation and make their own valuation on theory that state board's directives were invalid because not supported by evidence since validity would have to be adjudicated and since, in any event, county boards do not have power of increasing valuations. State ex rel. Conrad v. Managhan, 157 M 335, 485 P 2d 948.

84-437.1. Legislative intent as to agricultural property. Since the market value of many farm properties is based upon speculative purchases which do not reflect the productive capability of farms, it is the legislative intent that bona fide farm properties shall be classified and assessed at a value that is exclusive of values attributed to urban influences or speculative purposes.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 512, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to provide that agricultural land shall be classified, appraised, and assessed according to its value for agricultural purposes without regard to the value it may have for other purposes; and defining agricultural lands, establishing procedure and providing a penalty; amending sections 84-401 and 84-429.12, R. C. M. 1947.

84-437.2. Eligibility of land for valuation as agricultural. Land which is actively devoted to agricultural use shall be eligible for valuation, assessment and taxation as herein provided each year it meets the following qualifications:

(1) It is being actively devoted to agriculture;

(2) The area of such land is not less than five (5) contiguous acres when measured in accordance with the provisions of section 8 [84-437.6], when the gross value of grazing and field crops produced thereon together with any payments received under a crop-land retirement program totals at least one thousand ($1,000) per year; or

(3) It agriculturally produces the equivalent of fifteen per cent (15%) or more of the owners annual gross income; and

(4) (a) Application by the owner of the land for valuation hereunder is submitted on or before October 1 of the year immediately preceding the tax year to the county assessor in which such land is situated on the form prescribed by the state department of revenue. The county assessor shall continue to accept applications filed within sixty (60) days after October 1 upon payment of a late filing fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25), which shall be paid to the county treasurer.

(b) The county assessor shall have all applications filed under subsection (a) recorded by the county recorder. Whenever land which is or has been in agricultural use and is or has been valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act is applied to a use other than agricultural, the owner shall notify the county assessor and the county assessor shall cause the following statement to be recorded by the county recorder: "On the ..... day of ....., 19....., this land became subject to the roll-back tax imposed by section 6 [84-437.4]."

(c) Whenever the owner of land which has been in agricultural use and has been valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act does not file an application as provided in subsection (a), then the department of revenue or its agent shall revalue the land as nonagricultural land.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 512, L. 1973.

84-437.3. Agricultural uses only considered in valuation. In classifying land which qualifies as land actively devoted to agricultural use under the test prescribed by this act, and as to which the owner thereof has made timely application for valuation, assessment and taxation hereunder for the tax year in issue, the department of revenue, shall consider only those indicia of value which such land has for agricultural use.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 512, L. 1973.

84-437.4. Roll-back tax—computation. When land which is or has been in agricultural use and is or has been valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act, is applied to a use other than agricultural, it shall be subject to an additional tax hereinafter referred to as the "roll-back tax," which tax shall be a lien upon the land and become due and payable at the time of the change in use.

As used in this act, the word "roll-back" means the period preceding the change in use of the land not to exceed four (4) years during which the land was valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act.

The assessor shall ascertain the following in determining the amount of the roll-back tax chargeable on land which has undergone a change in use:

(1) the full and fair value of the land as determined by the department of revenue under the valuation standard applicable to land in the county not valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act;

(2) the amount of the land assessment as unsubdivided and unimproved land for the period of the roll-back, by multiplying such full and fair market value by the number of years included in the roll-back and by multiplying the product obtained, by the assessment ratio in effect in the year in which the change in use of land is made as determined by the state;

(3) the average mill levy applied in the taxing district in which the land is located by dividing the aggregate mill levy actually applied in each respective year of the roll-back by the number of years, included in the roll-back; and

(4) the amount of the roll-back tax by multiplying the taxable value computed from the amount of the assessment determined under subsection (2) hereof by the average mill levy determined under subsection (3) hereof, less the amount of real property taxes actually paid during the period of the roll-back.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 512, L. 1973.

84-437.5. Roll-back tax procedures governed by nonagricultural provisions. The assessment of the roll-back tax imposed by section 5 [84-437.3], the attachment of the lien for such taxes, and the right of the owner or other interested party to review any judgment of the department of revenue or local tax appeal board affecting such roll-back tax, shall be governed by the procedures provided for the assessment and taxation of real property not valued, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act. DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Powers of Board of County Commissioners

Boards of county commissioners could not ignore directives of state board of equalization on subject of timberland valuation and make their own valuation on theory that state board's directives were invalid because not supported by evidence since validity would have to be adjudicated and since, in any event, county boards do not have power of increasing valuations. 84-603. (2115) Application for reduction in valuations. No reduction must be made in the valuation of property unless the party affected thereby, or his agent, makes and files with the county tax appeal board on or before the 1st day of August, a written application therefor. Said application shall state the post-office address of the applicant, shall specifically describe the property involved and shall state the facts upon which it is claimed such reduction should be made. The department of revenue shall, however, have the right to raise or lower the valuation of all of one class of property in a county, as provided in the preceding section.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 100 and once by Ch. 405. Chapter 405 was later in date of approval. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. The acts appear not to conflict except possibly with respect to the method of appointment of board members. In this respect, the compiler has used the language of Ch. 405.

Amendments

Chapter 100, Laws of 1973, deleted "created by article XII of the constitution as amended" after "board of equalization" in the former first sentence; deleted second and third sentences relating to the appointment and terms of office of the first members of the commission; deleted "in accordance with the provisions of the constitution" from the end of the present fourth sentence; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Chapter 405, Laws of 1973, substituted two new sentences for the first three sentences in the parent volume; substituted "by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate during the next legislative session" for "by appointment in accordance with the provisions of the constitution" at the end of the fourth sentence; and deleted "biennial" before "session of the legislative assembly" in the final sentence.

known to possess knowledge of the subject of taxation and skill in matters pertaining thereto. No person so appointed shall hold any other office under the laws of this state nor any other state, nor any office under government of the United States, or of any other state. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of the office and shall not hold any position of trust or profit, nor engage in any occupation or business interfering or inconsistent with his duties. The state tax appeal board is transferred to the department of administration for administrative purposes only as is specified in section 82A-108, R. C. M. 1947. However, the board may hire its own personnel, and section 82A-108(2)(d) does not apply. The member designated chairman as provided for in 84-703 shall receive additional compensation of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) per annum payable in the same manner as the salary. The state tax appeal board shall be paid per diem and travel expenses when away from the capital on official business.

A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum. It shall be in continuous session and open for the transaction of business every day except Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays; and the sessions of said board shall stand and be deemed to be adjourned from day to day without formal entry thereof upon its records. Within sixty (60) days after the receipt by the municipality of the above statement, the same shall be audited, as other claims of the municipal corporation are audited and shall be paid into the state treasury and if the same is not so paid the attorney general shall institute an action, in the proper court, against the municipality to recover the same.

The officers responsible for the furnishing of the information collected pursuant to this section, shall be jointly and severally liable for any loss the municipality may suffer, through their delinquency; and no payment shall be made to them for salary, or on any other account, until the cost of such inspection and examination as provided above shall have been paid into the treasury, or to the proper officers of such municipality. Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 468 and once by Ch. 484. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment, in the first paragraph, inserted "and except as provided in section 40-2821 (5), R. C. M. 1947" the first place it appears in the second sentence; and, in the second paragraph, increased the percentage of net income to be paid under this section from 5¼% to 5½%, and inserted the second sentence.

The 1969 amendment, in the first sentence of the second paragraph, raised the percentage of net income from "five and one-half per cent (5½%)" to "six and one-quarter per cent (6¼%)"; in the second sentence deleted "all" before "taxable years" and substituted "1969" for "1967"; inserted a third sentence reading: "For taxable years ending on or after February 28, 1971, the percentage of net income to be paid under this act shall be five and one-half per cent (5½%) of all net income for the taxable period."; and raised the minimum tax stated in the fourth sentence from "$10" to "$50."

Chapter 16, Laws of 1971, inserted "and except as provided in section 40-2821(5), R. C. M. 1947" the second place it appears in the second sentence of the first paragraph; and inserted the present third paragraph providing for an alternative corporation license tax.

Chapter 333, Laws of 1971, deleted "ending on or" after "taxable years" in the second sentence of the second paragraph; and deleted the former third sentence inserted in the second paragraph by the 1969 amendment.

Extraordinary Session Chapter 5, Laws of 1971, substituted "all taxable years ending on or after" for "taxable years after" in the second sentence of the second paragraph.

The Second Extraordinary Session, Chapter 7, Laws of 1971, increased the rate specified in the second paragraph from 6¼% to 6¾%; and omitted the third paragraph, which had been inserted by Ch. 16, Laws of 1971.

Chapter 468, Laws of 1973, reinserted the third paragraph, which had been inserted by Chapter 16, Laws of 1971, but omitted by the amendment in the 1971 2nd Extraordinary Session.

Chapter 484, Laws of 1973, inserted the third sentence in the second paragraph.

84-1502. (2297) Deductions allowed in computing income. In computing the net income the following deductions shall be allowed from the gross income received by such corporation within the year from all sources:

1. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

2. (A) All losses actually sustained and charged off within the year and not compensated by insurance or otherwise, including a reasonable allowance for the wear and tear and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business, such allowance to be determined according to the provisions of section 167 of the internal revenue code in effect with respect to the taxable year. All elections for depreciation shall be the same as the elections made for federal income tax purposes. (B) (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable period a net operating loss deduction determined according to the provisions of this subsection. The net operating loss deduction is the aggregate of net operating loss carryovers to such taxable period plus the net operating loss carrybacks to such taxable period. The term "net operating loss" means the excess of the deductions allowed by this section, 84-1502, over the gross income, with the modifications specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection. If for any taxable period beginning after December 31, 1970, a net operating loss is sustained, such loss shall be a net operating loss carryback to each of the three (3) taxable periods preceding the taxable period of such loss and shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five (5) taxable periods following the taxable period of such loss. The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the net income for each of the prior taxable periods to which such loss was carried. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the net income for such prior taxable period shall be computed with the modifications specified in paragraph (b) (ii) of this subsection and by determining the amount of the net operating loss deduction without regard to the net operating loss for the loss period or any taxable period thereafter, and the net income so computed shall not be considered to be less than zero.

(b) The modifications referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be as follows:

(i) No net operating loss deduction shall be allowed.

(ii) The deduction for depletion shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable if computed under the cost method.

(c) A net operating loss deduction shall be allowed only with regard to losses attributable to the business carried on within the state of Montana.

(d) In the case of a merger of corporations, the surviving corporation shall not be allowed a net operating loss deduction for net operating losses sustained by the merged corporations prior to the date of merger.

In the case of a consolidation of corporations, the new corporate entity shall not be allowed a deduction for net operating losses sustained by the consolidated corporations prior to the date of consolidation.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 84-1508.1 (c), R. C. M., 1947, interest shall not be paid with respect to a refund of tax resulting from a net operating loss carryback or carryover.

(f) The net operating loss deduction shall not be allowed with respect to taxable periods which ended on or before December 31, 1970, but shall be allowed only with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 1971.

3. In the case of mines, other natural deposits, oil and gas wells, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, such reasonable allowance to be determined according to the provisions of the internal revenue code in effect for the taxable year. All elections made under the internal revenue code with respect to capitalizing or expensing exploration and development costs and intangible drilling expenses for corporation license tax purposes shall be the same as the elections made for federal income tax purposes.

4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

5. Interest income from obligations of the state of Montana, or any political subdivision or municipality of the state of Montana.

6. Taxes paid within the year except the following: (a) Taxes imposed by this act.

(b) Taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 320 and once by Ch. 516. Neither amendment mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other, but the changes made by Ch. 516, the later enactment, appear nugatory in that the phraseology dealt with was eliminated by Ch. 320.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Operating Loss

Any net operating loss deduction previously prevented under section 84-1504, including by reference net operating losses allowable under section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, are eliminated under the new and amended definition of net operating loss contained in this section. Lazy JD Cattle Co. v. State Board of Equalization, — M —, 504 P 2d 287.

Nothing in the 1971 amendment to this section indicates an intention on the part of the legislature to repeal the operating loss deduction under section 84-1504 retroactively. Lazy JD Cattle Co. v. State Board of Equalization, — M —, 504 P 2d 287.

84-1503. (2297.1) Segregation of income within and without state. If the income of any corporation from sources within the state cannot be properly segregated from income without the state, then, in that event, the amount of the net income returned shall be that proportion of the taxpayer's total net income which the taxpayer's gross business done in the state of Montana bears to the total gross business of the taxpayer, and apportionment shall be made under the rules and regulations prescribed by the state department of revenue, giving consideration to sales, property and payroll and such other factors as may be deemed applicable; provided, however, that the state department of revenue shall, upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence, determine that the income from sources within the state of Montana may be properly segregated from income from sources without the state of Montana and shall allow separate accounting. The department shall publish not less than once every three (3) years, all rules and regulations and all changes in rules and regulations as they occur pertaining to this section. All decisions by the department under this section shall be subject to judicial review in an action prosecuted by the corporation in the district court of Lewis and Clark county. The taxpayer may not change from apportionment by formula to separate accounting or vice versa without first obtaining permission from the department.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "not less than once every three (3) years" for "not less than once a year" after "board shall publish" and inserted "and all changes * * * as they occur" in the second sentence; substituted "may not change * * * or vice versa" for "cannot change from one method of accounting to another method of accounting" in the last sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout the section.

84-1504. (2299) Computation of license tax—return of net income to be filed—definitions. (1) The license fee shall be computed on the basis of the corporation's total net income for the taxable period. The corporation's taxable period shall be its taxable year for federal income tax purposes. In the event a corporation changes its taxable year, it shall promptly notify the state department of revenue.

(2) Every corporation, subject to the license fee imposed under this chapter, shall for each taxable period render a true and accurate return of its net income for the taxable period in the manner and form to be prescribed by the state department of revenue, and containing such facts, data and information as are appropriate and in the opinion of the state department of revenue necessary to determine the correctness of the net income returned and to carry out the provisions of this act. The return shall be signed by one (1) of the following: the president, the vice-president, the treasurer, the assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. If the corporation is reporting on a calendar year basis the return shall be filed with the department of revenue on or before the fifteenth day of May following the close of the calendar year, and if reporting on a fiscal year basis the return shall be filed with the department on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of its fiscal year. Upon application a corporation shall be allowed an automatic extension of time for filing its return to the fifteenth day of the third month following the date prescribed for filing of its tax return. The application is to be made on such forms as the department of revenue shall prescribe. The department of revenue may grant an additional extension of time for the filing of a return whenever in its judgment good cause exists. The terms "engaged in business" and "doing business" both mean actively engaging in any transaction for the purpose of financial or pecuniary gain or profit. The term gross income means all income recognized in determining the corporation's gross income for federal income tax purposes; but shall include interest exempt from federal income tax. No corporation is exempt from the corporation license tax unless specifically provided for under section 84-1501. Any corporation not subject to or liable for federal income tax but not exempt from the corporation license tax under section 84-1501 shall compute gross income for corporation license tax purposes in the same manner as a corporation that is subject to or liable for federal income tax according to the provisions for determining gross income in the federal internal revenue code in effect for the taxable year. The term "net income" means the gross income of the corporation less the deductions set forth in section 84-1502.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Operating Loss Deduction

84-1505. (2300) Assessment and collection of tax. (1) Assessment and payment of tax, penalty and interest. All taxpayers shall compute the amount of tax payable under this act and shall remit such amount to the state department of revenue on or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of the taxable period. If the tax is not paid on or before the due date, there shall be assessed a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the tax, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to neglect. If any tax due under this chapter is not paid when due, by reason of extension granted, or otherwise, interest shall be added thereto at the rate of nine per cent (9%) per annum from the due date until paid.

(2) Levy upon and sale of property for payment of corporation licenses taxes. If any tax imposed by this act or any portion of such tax is not paid within sixty (60) days after the same becomes due, the department shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the corporation owning the same, found within his county, for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties, interest and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the department and pay to it the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not more than sixty (60) days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall within five (5) days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of the district court of his county a copy thereof, and thereupon the clerk shall enter in the judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the taxpayer mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns, the amount of the tax or portion thereof and penalties for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed, and thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in real property or chattels real of the corporation against whom it is levied in the same manner as a judgment docketed in the office of such clerk. The said sheriff shall thereupon proceed upon the same in all respects, with like effect, and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. In the discretion of the department a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any agent authorized to collect income taxes, and in the execution thereof, such agent shall have the powers conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess of actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a warrant be returned not satisfied in full, the department shall have the same remedies to enforce the claim for taxes against the taxpayer as if the people of the state had recovered judgment against the taxpayer for the amount of the tax.

(3) Action by attorney general. Action may be brought at any time by the attorney general of the state at the instance of the department, in the name of the state to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties and interest due under this act.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" throughout the section.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 324, Laws 1969 read "This act is effective as to taxable years ending on and after December 31, 1968."

84-1505.1. Release of tax liens. (1) The state department of revenue shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any tax due under Title 84, chapter 15, R. C. M. 1947, when it finds that the liability for the amount of tax assessed, together with all penalties and interest in respect thereof has been fully satisfied. The state department of revenue may issue a certificate of release if it determines that the lien is unenforceable.

(2) The state department of revenue may issue a certificate of discharge of any part of the property subject to any lien imposed with respect to any tax due under Title 84, chapter 15, R. C. M. 1947, if:

(a) It finds that the fair market value of that part of the property remaining subject to the lien is at least double the value of the unsatisfied liability secured by such lien and the amount of all other liens upon the property which may have priority to such lien;

(b) There is paid to the state treasurer in part satisfaction of the liability secured by the lien, an amount which shall not be less than the value, as determined by the state department of revenue, of the interest of the state of Montana in the part to be discharged; or

(c) The state department of revenue determines at any time that the interest of the state of Montana in the part to be so discharged has no value.

Title of Act

An act to permit release of lien and discharge of property from force of lien imposed with respect to corporation license tax liability.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in two places in subsection (1); near the beginning of subsection (2); and in subdivisions (2)(b) and (2)(c).

84-1505.2. Immediate payment of tax or deficiency due may be required if delay would jeopardize collection. If the state department of revenue finds that the assessment or collection of the tax or a deficiency in tax due under any corporation license tax statute of Montana for any taxable period will be jeopardized in whole or in part by delay, it may mail notice of its findings to the taxpayer together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax or deficiency declared to be in jeopardy, including penalty and accrued interest. In the case of a tax for a current period, the board may declare the taxable period of the taxpayer immediately terminated, and shall mail or issue notice of its findings to the taxpayer together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax based on the period declared terminated. A jeopardy assessment is immediately due and payable, and proceedings for collection may be commenced at once.

Title of Act

An act which empowers the state board of equalization to require immediate payment of a tax or deficiency due under any corporation license tax statute of Montana if the board finds that the collection of the tax or deficiency will be jeopardized in whole or in part by delay.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning of the section.

84-1507. (2302) Returns and corrections to be public records. When the assessment shall be made as provided in this act, the returns, together with any corrections thereof which may have been made by the state department of revenue, shall be filed in the office of said department, and shall constitute public records and be open to inspection as such only upon the order of the governor, and under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the state department of revenue.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 79, L. 1917; re-en. Sec. 2302, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 146, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 59, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in three places.

84-1508. (2303) Regulations—attendance of witnesses—arbitrary assignment of net income. The state department of revenue shall have power to prescribe forms for the returns and notices and such other regulations as may from time to time be found necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the district court of the first judicial district of the state of Montana, in and for the county of Lewis and Clark, to compel attendance of witnesses to testify before the state department of revenue, together with the production of books and such other testimony by appropriate process. When the state department of revenue has reason to believe that the business of any corporation is so conducted as either directly or indirectly to distort the true net income of the corporation and the net income properly attributable to this state, whether by the arbitrary shifting of income through price fixing, charges for service, or otherwise, whereby the net income is arbitrarily assigned to one or another corporation carrying on business under a substantially common control, it may require the disclosure of such facts as it deems necessary for the proper computation of the entire net income and the net income properly attributable to this state, and in determining the same, the department shall have regard to the fair profits which would normally arise from the conduct of the business.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 79, L. 1917; re-en. Sec. 2303, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 146, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 166, L. 1933; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 186, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 60, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in four places.

84-1508.1. Determination of tax liability—interest on deficiencies and overpayments. (a) Deficiency assessments. If, the state department of revenue determines that the amount of tax due is greater than the amount disclosed by the return, it shall mail to the taxpayer a notice of the additional tax proposed to be assessed. Within thirty (30) days after the mailing of the notice, the taxpayer may file with the state department of revenue a written protest against the proposed additional tax, setting forth the grounds upon which the protest is based, and may request in its protest an oral hearing or an opportunity to present additional evidence relating to its tax liability. If no protest is filed, the amount of the additional tax proposed to be assessed becomes final upon the expiration of the thirty (30) day period. If such protest is filed, the state department of revenue shall reconsider the proposed assessment, and if the taxpayer has so requested, shall grant the taxpayer an oral hearing. After consideration of the protest and the evidence presented in the event of an oral hearing, the state department of revenue's action upon the protest is final when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer.

When a deficiency is determined and the tax becomes final, the state department of revenue shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof, and the tax shall be due and payable at the expiration of ten (10) days from the date of such notice and demand. Interest on any deficiency assessment shall bear interest from the date specified in section 84-1505 for payment of the tax. A certificate by the state department of revenue of the mailing of the notices specified in this subsection shall be prima facie evidence of the computation and levy of the deficiency in tax and of the giving of the notices.

(b) Overpayment of tax—refunds and credits. If the state department of revenue determines that the amount of tax, penalty or interest due for any year is less than the amount paid, the amount of the overpayment shall be credited against any tax, penalty or interest then due from the taxpayer and the balance refunded to the taxpayer or its successor through reorganization, merger or consolidation, or to its shareholders upon dissolution.

If the state department of revenue disallows any claim for refund, it shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. At the expiration of thirty (30) days from the mailing of the notice, the state department of revenue's action shall become final, unless within the said thirty (30) day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of said department to the state tax appeal board. If such appeal is made, the state tax appeal board shall grant the taxpayer an oral hearing. After consideration of the appeal and evidence presented, the state tax appeal board shall forthwith mail notice to the taxpayer of its determination. The board's determination is final when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided for, interest shall be allowed on overpayments at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the due date of the return or from the date of overpayment (whichever date is later) to the date the department of revenue approves refunding or crediting of the overpayment. Interest shall not accrue during any period the processing of a claim for refund is delayed more than thirty (30) days by reason of failure of the taxpayer to furnish information requested by the state department of revenue for the purpose of verifying the amount of the overpayment. No interest shall be allowed (1) if the overpayment is refunded within six (6) months from the date the return is due or from the date the return is filed, whichever is later; or (2) if the amount of interest is less than one dollar ($1.00).

A payment not made incident to a bona fide and orderly discharge of an actual corporation license tax liability or one reasonably assumed to be imposed by this law, shall not be considered an overpayment with respect to which interest is allowable.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the state department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization, except that in the second paragraph of subsection (b), it substituted references to the state tax appeal board for references to the state board of equalization; deleted "shall reconsider its action, and if the taxpaper has so requested" following "If such appeal is made, the state tax appeal board" in the third sentence of the second paragraph of subsection (b) and deleted "in the event of an oral hearing" following "appeal and evidence presented" in the fourth sentence of the second paragraph of subsection (b).

84-1508.2. Periods of limitation—limitations for notification of additional tax extended if taxpayer fails to report change in federal tax—waiver. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section and in section 84-1513, R. C. M. 1947, no deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which a return is filed unless the notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed is mailed within five (5) years from the date the return was filed. For the purposes of this section a return filed before the last day prescribed for filing shall be considered as filed on such last day. Where before the expiration of the period prescribed for assessment of the tax, the taxpayer consents in writing to an assessment after the time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The limitations prescribed for giving notice of a proposed assessment of additional tax shall not apply when a taxpayer has failed to file a report of changes in federal taxable income or an amended return as required by section 84-1517, R. C. M. 1947, until five (5) years after the federal changes become final or the amended federal return was filed, whichever the case may be.

(2) No refund or credit shall be allowed or paid with respect to the year for which a return is filed after five (5) years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or after one (1) year from the date of the overpayment, whichever period expires the later, unless before the expiration of such period the taxpayer files a claim therefor or the state department of revenue has determined the existence of the overpayment and has approved the refund or credit thereof. If the taxpayer has agreed in writing under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section to extend the time within which the state department of revenue may propose an additional assessment, the period within which a claim for refund or credit may be filed, or a credit or refund allowed in the event no claim is filed, shall automatically be so extended.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment, in the first sentence of subsection (1), substituted "in this section and * * * R. C. M. 1947" for "in section 84-1513"; substituted "such last day" for "that day" at the end of the second sentence and added the last sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" twice in subsection (2).

84-1509. (2303.1) Consolidated returns—computation and procedure on. (1) Corporations which are affiliated may not file a consolidated return unless at least eighty per cent (80%) of all classes of stock of each corporation involved is owned directly or indirectly by one (1) or more members of the affiliated group.

(2) Corporations may not file a consolidated return unless the operation of the affiliated group constitutes a unitary business and permission to file a consolidated return is given by the state department of revenue. For purposes of this section, a "unitary business operation" means one in which the business operations conducted by the corporations in the affiliated group are interrelated or interdependent to the extent that the net income of one corporation cannot reasonably be determined without reference to the operations conducted by the other corporations.

(3) If the conditions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section are met, the state department of revenue may require corporations to file a consolidated return when the department considers a consolidated return necessary.

(4) Any corporation liable to report under this act and owning, or controlling, either directly or indirectly, at least eighty per cent (80%) of all classes of stock of each corporation involved, may be required to make a consolidated report showing the combined net income[,] such assets of the corporation as are required for the purposes of this act, and such other information as the state department of revenue may require, but excluding intercorporate stockholdings and intercorporate accounts. Any corporation liable to report under this act and owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by another corporation may be required to make a report consolidated with the owning company, showing the combined net income, such assets of the corporation as are required for the purposes of this act, and such other information as the state department of revenue may require, but excluding intercorporate stockholdings and intercorporate accounts. In case it shall appear to the state department of revenue that any arrangement exists in such a manner as to improperly reflect the business done, the segregable assets or the entire net income earned from business done in this state, the state department of revenue is authorized and empowered, in such manner as it may determine, to equitably adjust the tax.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted subsections (1) to (3) for former subsection (a) which provided that affiliated corporations make a consolidated return if authorized and/or required by the state board of equalization; redesignated former subsection (b) as subsection (4) and inserted "at least eighty per cent * * * of each corporation involved" after "controlling, either directly or indirectly" in the first sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in subsections (2), (3) and (4).

Sale of Assets in Liquidation

Directors and trustees in liquidation of a liquidated corporation were entitled to a refund of that portion of the corporate license tax paid upon the gain realized by the corporation in the sale of its assets in liquidation. Barth v. Montana State Board of Equalization, 148 M 259, 419 P 2d 484, 485.

84-1512. (2303.4) Where omission deemed committed—certificate of department as evidence. The failure to do any act, required by or under the provisions of this act, shall be deemed an act committed in the office of the state department of revenue in the state capitol building, in Helena, Montana. The certificates of the state department of revenue to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied, as required by or under the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence that such tax has not been paid, that such return has not been filed, or that such information has not been supplied.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the end of the first sentence and near the beginning of the second sentence.

84-1514. (2303.6) Delinquency — suspension — forfeiture — dissolution. If a tax computed and levied hereunder is not paid or if a return is not filed before five o'clock P. M. on the last day of the eleventh month after the date of delinquency the corporate powers, rights and privileges of the delinquent taxpayer, if it be a domestic corporation, shall be suspended, and if the delinquent taxpayer be a foreign corporation it shall thereupon forfeit its rights to do intrastate business in this state. Provided that, if any domestic corporation shall fail, for a period of five consecutive years, to either file a return or to pay the corporation license tax, the state department of revenue shall notify such corporation by mail addressed to the latest address on file in its office that such corporation will become dissolved if it fails to file all delinquent reports and pay all delinquent corporation license taxes within a period of sixty (60) days from and after the mailing of such notice, and, if such delinquent reports are not made and all delinquent corporation licenses are not paid before the expiration of said sixty (60) day period, the state department of revenue shall certify this fact to the secretary of state and upon receipt of such certificate, the said corporation shall be dissolved and the secretary of state shall indicate, by his records, such dissolution.

The state department of revenue shall transmit the name of each such corporation to the secretary of state, who shall immediately record the same in such manner that it may be available to the public. The suspension, forfeiture or dissolution herein provided for shall become effective immediately such record is made, and the certificate of the secretary of state shall be conclusive evidence of such suspension, forfeiture or dissolution.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning and end of the second sentence of the first paragraph and at the beginning of the second paragraph.

84-1515. (2303.7) Reviver of corporation after suspension or forfeiture. Any corporation which has suffered the suspension or forfeiture referred to in the preceding section may be relieved therefrom upon making application therefor in writing supported by a certificate from the state department of revenue showing that the required return has been made and filed and/or that the tax and interest and penalties have been paid, for which the suspension or forfeiture occurred. Application for reviver may be made by any stockholder or creditor of the corporation or by a majority of the surviving trustees or directors, and the same shall be filed with the secretary of state, for which he shall receive a filing and recording fee of five dollars ($5). In case the application is made more than one (1) year from the date the suspension or forfeiture occurred the applicant shall pay twice the amount of the tax and penalties due the state for the taxable year with respect to which the suspension or forfeiture occurred, and upon such payment the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of reviver for which he shall collect a fee of five dollars ($5) and thereupon the applicant shall be revived. The reviver shall be without prejudice to any action, defense or right which has accrued by reason of the original suspension or forfeiture. The certificate of reviver shall be prima facie evidence of the reviver. Any certificate of reviver provided for in this section may be recorded in the office of the county recorder in any county of this state.

Contract Made During Suspension

Statute providing that reviver shall be without prejudice to any action, defense or right which has accrued by reason of original suspension or forfeiture relates to right of corporation to do business rather than to nonenforceability of contract made by corporation while suspended. Manufacturers Acceptance Corp. v. Krsul, 151 M 28, 438 P 2d 667.

84-1516. (2) The state department of revenue, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making an estimate of net income of any corporations where information has been obtained, shall also have power to examine or to cause to have examined by any agent or representative designated by it for that purpose, any books, papers, records or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of any officer or employee of the corporation rendering such return or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take testimony and require proof material for its information.

(3) Every corporation shall, upon request of the state department of revenue, furnish a copy of its federal income tax return and the computation schedule filed for such taxable year or years as the said department may specify in its request. If the amount of a corporation taxable income reported on its federal income tax return or the computation schedule filed for any taxable year is changed or corrected by the United States internal revenue service or other competent authority, the corporation shall report such proposed change or correction to the state department of revenue within ninety (90) days after receiving official notice thereof. Such user shall make an annual report and return to the department, on forms prescribed by said department on or before the 25th day of January of each year hereafter. Should the department determine that a user filing annual returns as herein provided is delinquent in making reports and payments, it shall require such person to file monthly returns as herein provided. Such return, annual or monthly, shall contain a declaration by the person making the same, to the effect that the statements contained are true and are made under penalties of perjury, which declarations shall have the same force and effect as a verification. The return shall show such information as the department may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this act; provided, however, that if a special fuel dealer or user is also a wholesale distributor of special fuel at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, and if separate storage is provided thereat from which special fuel is delivered or placed into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the monthly return to the department need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale dis-

If any claim, statement, remittance or other document is sent by United States registered mail, certified mail or certificate of mailing, a record authenticated by the United States Post Office of such registration, certification or certificate shall be considered competent evidence that the report, claim, tax return, statement, remittance or other document was mailed to the addressee, and the date of registration, certification or certificate shall be deemed the postmarked date.

(f) Deficiency: If it be determined by the department that the tax reported by any special fuel dealer or special fuel user is deficient, it shall proceed to assess the deficiency on the basis of information available to it and there shall be added to this deficiency interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month or fraction thereof from the date the return was due.

(g) Determination if no return made: If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user, whether or not he is licensed as such, fails, neglects, or refuses to file a special fuel tax return when due, the department shall, on the basis of information available, to it, determine the tax liability of the special fuel dealer or special fuel user for the period during which no return was filed, and to the tax as thus determined, the department shall add the penalty and interest provided in subsection (d) above.

An assessment made by the department pursuant to this subsection or to subsection (f) of this section shall be presumed to be correct, and in any case where the validity of the assessment is drawn in question, the burden shall be on the person who challenges the assessment to establish by a fair preponderance of the evidence that it is erroneous or excessive as the case may be.

(h) Fraudulent return: If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax imposed by this act, there shall be added to the amount of deficiency determined by the department a penalty equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the deficiency together with interest at one per cent (1%) per month, or fraction thereof, on such deficiency from the date such tax was due to the date of payment, in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law.

Allocation of Overhead Costs

City has general budgetary authority in financing construction of city shop complex and has implied power to allocate proportionate share of costs among the various city departments using the facility. Greener v. City of Great Falls, 157 M 376, 485 P 2d 932.

Funds from Sources other than Gasoline Tax

Prohibition against expenditure of gasoline tax revenues for nonhighway purposes has no application to street funds derived from other sources; thus proceeds of levy under another statute could be committed to finance proportionate share of construction costs of city shop complex to be used by various city departments. Greener v. City of Great Falls, 157 M 376, 485 P 2d 932.

84-1840.1. Allocation of funds—participation in railroad grade crossing protection on public highways, roads or streets, other than those designated on the interstate, primary or urban system. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may be allocated from the earmarked revenue fund, state highway account for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973, and so much for each succeeding fiscal year as may be necessary to reimburse the fund for expenditures and commitments made and to maintain the fund at one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) at the beginning of each fiscal year thereafter, for participation by the department of highways with railroads in construction of railroad grade crossing protection on any public highway or road, except those designated on the interstate, primary or urban systems, within the state of Montana. The department of highways shall select those grade crossings in the state which in the opinion of the department are most in need of additional crossing protection and shall finance the cost thereof solely from this fund. Signal protection provided under the fund shall be limited to electric or automatic flashing lights or gates depending on the amount and nature of the hazards present at the crossing and participation in construction of such signals shall be on the same basis and under the same standards as are applicable and used in connection with protection of grade crossings on federal-aid roads within the state, provided, however, the fund shall not be used for protection of grade crossings on the secondary system where the protection is considered necessary and the cost thereof is financed in part with federal-aid highway funds. In addition to the funds allocated, counties and cities may authorize the use of funds available to said counties and cities under the provisions of section 84-1840 for participation of installation in grade crossing protection within the county or city.

The 1967 amendment substituted the present first sentence of the section for a former first sentence which read "A temporary permit shall be issued to all unlicensed users of all special fuel vehicles operating within the state of Montana."

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the end of the section.

The temporary special fuel permits shall cost the special fuel vehicle user a fee of twenty dollars ($20.00); said permit shall be valid for a period of time not to exceed seventy-two (72) hours and will be automatically void should said vehicle leave the state of Montana during the seventy-two (72) hour period. All fees collected will be remitted to the state department of revenue. 84-1845. Short title. This act may be cited as the "Distributor's Gasoline License Tax Act."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 369, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1971, once by Ch. 13 and once by Ch. 204. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the changes made by the two acts do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendatory acts.

Amendments

Chapter 13, Laws of 1971, deleted from the end of paragraph (7)(b) a provision reading, "and no refund shall be allowed of that portion of the tax per gallon upon aviation gasoline allocated to the state aeronautics commission by section 1-501."

Chapter 204, Laws of 1971, added subdivision (9) and made minor changes in style.

84-1847. Gasoline license tax—amount. Every distributor shall pay to the state department of revenue a license tax for the privilege of engaging in and carrying on business in this state in an amount equal to one cent (1¢) for each gallon of aviation gasoline, which shall be allocated to the aeronautics commission as provided by section 1-501, R. C. M. 1947, as amended, and seven cents (7¢) for each gallon of all other gasoline distributed by him within the state and upon which the gasoline license tax has not been paid by any other distributor. Gasoline exported or sold for export out of the state of Montana shall not be included in the measure of the distributor's license tax.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1971, once by Ch. 202 and once by Ch. 204. Both acts were approved by the governor on March 3, 1971. Chapter 204 incorporated the change made by Ch. 202 and the title to Ch. 204 referred to "the present seven cents." Therefore, the compiler has used the text of Ch. 204 above.

Amendments

Chapter 202, Laws of 1971 increased the tax from six and one-half cents to seven cents per gallon.

Chapter 204, Laws of 1971, included the change made by Ch. 202; reduced the tax on aviation gasoline to one cent; and inserted the clause providing for allocation to the aeronautics commission.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning of the section.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 202, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 3, 1971.

84-1848. Repealed.

Repeal

Each distributor shall, not later than the twenty-fifth day of each calendar month render a true statement to the state department of revenue, duly signed, of all gasoline distributed and received by him in this state during the preceding calendar month, and containing such other information as the state department of revenue may reasonably require in order to administer the gasoline license tax law. The statement shall be accompanied by a payment in an amount equal to the tax imposed by section 3 (84-1847) of this act, less any refund credit issued under section 11 (84-1855) of this act, and less two per cent (2%) of the first six cents (6¢) tax which shall be deducted by the distributor as an allowance for evaporation and other loss of gasoline distributed by such distributor; provided, however, that no such allowance shall be deducted from the one cent (1¢) tax on aviation gasoline.

Any distributor engaged in or carrying on his business at more than one (1) place or location in this state may include all such places of business in one (1) statement.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted the proviso at the end of the first paragraph for a separate sentence reading "In addition a distributor may deduct for each gallon of aviation gasoline sold by him and for which he submits a valid gasoline tax exemption certificate, an amount equal to the tax per gallon except the portion thereof allocated to the state aeronautics commission by section 1-501"; and made minor changes in style.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the middle and end of the first sentence of the first paragraph.

84-1850. Examination of records. The department, or its authorized representative is hereby empowered to examine the books, papers, records and equipment of any gasoline distributor or any person dealing in, transporting, or storing gasoline as defined in this act and to investigate the character of the disposition which any person makes of such gasoline in order to ascertain and determine whether all excise taxes due hereunder are being properly reported and paid. If such books, papers, records and equipment are not maintained in this state at the time of demand they shall be furnished to the department for review or such dealer shall bear the reasonable cost of examination by an agent authorized or designated by the department at the place where such books or records are kept, provided the taxpayer shall not be liable for such costs for a period exceeding one (1) week or for such longer period as he may consent to in writing, unless the result of such examination is the payment of a tax deficiency.

The records, receipts and invoices and any other pertinent papers supporting sales of every distributor or any person dealing in, transporting or storing gasoline shall be open and subject to inspection by the state department of revenue or any of its employees or assistants during business hours in order to ascertain the amount of license tax due.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 369, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 94, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the end of the section.

84-1853. Invoice of distributors and aviation dealers. Each distributor and aviation dealer in this state shall at the time of delivery, except where authorized by the department, issue to the purchaser an invoice in which shall be stated the number of gallons of gasoline covered by such invoice and such other information as the state department of revenue may require.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 369, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 204, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 95, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "and aviation dealer."

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization near the middle and end of the section.

84-1854. Information reports. Any person receiving gasoline, including every common carrier, private carrier and contract carrier of property who shall haul, receive, transport, or ship any gasoline, from any other state or foreign country into this state or from this state to any other state or foreign country or from any refinery or pipeline terminal in this state to another point within this state, shall submit to the department of revenue upon its request and within the time specified a statement showing the number of gallons of gasoline contained in each shipment in interstate commerce and the movement of such products from any refinery or pipeline terminal located within this state to another point within this state during the preceding calendar month, the names and addresses of the consignor and the consignee and the date of delivery to the consignee.

In case of any person, except licensed distributors, who refuses or fails to file a statement as herein provided for, there is hereby imposed a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each failure or refusal, provided, however, that if any person shall establish to the satisfaction of the department that his failure to file a statement as prescribed by the department was due to reasonable cause, the department shall waive the penalty.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 369, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 96, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization in four places.

84-1855. Refund of gasoline license tax—procedure. (1) Any person who shall purchase and use any gasoline, on which the Montana gasoline license tax has been paid, for operating or propelling stationary gasoline engines, tractors used off the public highways and streets, motorboats, or for cleaning or dyeing, or for any commercial use other than propelling vehicles upon any of the public highways or streets of this state, shall be allowed a refund of the amount of tax paid directly or indirectly on the gasoline so used. Provided, that such refund or drawback should in no instance exceed the tax paid or to be paid, to the state of Montana [, and no refund shall be allowed of that portion of the tax per gallon upon aviation gasoline allocated to the board of aeronautics by section 1-501, R. C. M. 1947].

Any distributor paying the gasoline license tax to this state erroneously shall be allowed a credit or refund of the amount of tax so paid.

(2) The application for refund shall be a signed statement on a form furnished by the department, accompanied by the original invoice or invoices issued to the claimant at the time of purchase and delivery, showing the total amount of gasoline purchased, the total amount of gasoline on which a refund is claimed, and the amount of the tax claimed for refund. Such further information pertaining to such claim shall be furnished as required by the department, provided that gallons of gasoline used off the roadways, where not verifiable by records of actual use, may be estimated by the applicant according to the following schedule:

(a) on the first one thousand (1,000) gallons of gasoline purchased, or any part thereof, forty-five per cent (45%) of gasoline purchased.

(b) on the next one thousand (1,000) gallons of gasoline purchased, or any part thereof, sixty per cent (60%) of gasoline purchased.

(c) on the next one thousand (1,000) gallons of gasoline purchased, or any part thereof, sixty-five per cent (65%) of gasoline purchased.

(d) on any gasoline purchased in excess of three thousand (3,000) gallons, seventy per cent (70%) of gasoline purchased.

If any invoice is either lost or destroyed, the purchaser may support his claim for refund by submitting an affidavit relating the circumstances of such loss or destruction and by producing such other evidence as may be required by the department.

(3) Any applicant who does not elect to estimate the off-highway use of gasoline according to the schedule in subsection (2) shall maintain records as provided for in this subsection.

(a) Highway and off-highway use of gasoline from common storage. Gasoline purchased and delivered into bulk storage for use in motor vehicles on public roads and nonhighway use must be fully accounted for by detail withdrawal records to accurately show the manner in which used. Gasoline on hand, determined by actual measurement, shall be deducted from a claim and shall be reported as an opening inventory on the next claim. Credit for the inventory is allowed on the next claim if filed within fourteen (14) months from the filing date of the claim which established the inventory.

(b) Highway and off-highway use of gasoline from separate storage. If separate storage tanks are maintained for highway use and off-highway use, the bulk purchase invoices shall be so marked by the dealer at the time of delivery. No further record is required, provided that no gasoline is withdrawn from the off-highway tank for licensed vehicles. Withdrawal of gasoline from the off-highway tank for licensed vehicles will invalidate this method of determining refundable gallonage.

(c) Use of gasoline from restricted use storage. Special storage facilities in the woods, or in farm fields, or for other uses for certain periods, must be identified and explained. If such storage is used entirely for off-highway purposes and is not used in licensed vehicles, no records will be required other than purchase invoices showing the delivery into such storage.

(d) Gasoline purchased for other than bulk storage. Fuel purchased in small containers for nonhighway use must be identified on the purchase invoice and no further record is required.

(e) Resellers. Service stations, bulk dealers and marinas must prepare a separate and complete invoice for each withdrawal of gasoline for own use upon which a refund is to be claimed.

(f) Proof of highway use. When no highway use of gasoline is deducted from the claim, the applicant must substantiate purchases of gasoline and miles traveled for licensed motor vehicles upon request of the department.

(g) Any person who operates a licensed motor vehicle on and off the public roads for commercial purposes may claim refund of the state license tax on the gasoline used to operate the vehicle on roads or property in private ownership, if such person has maintained the following records:

(i) the total number of highway miles operated by each licensed motor vehicle, including private passenger cars;

(ii) total gallons of gasoline used in each vehicle to include both refund and nonrefund use;

(iii) purchase invoices supporting all gasoline handled through bulk storage, as well as all fuels purchased at service stations or received from other sources. Highway use for each vehicle may be determined by actual measurement, or may be computed by dividing the average miles per gallon highway operation consumption rate into the number of highway miles operated.

(4) All applications for refunds shall be filed with the department of revenue within fourteen (14) months after the date on which the gasoline was purchased as shown by invoices or after the date on which the tax was erroneously paid. Provided, however, that a distributor may file a claim for refund of taxes erroneously paid within three (3) years after the date of such erroneous payment. Except in the case of a claim for refund of taxes erroneously paid by a distributor, no claimant may make more than one (1) application for refund during any calendar year. The department shall have one hundred twenty (120) days after receiving the claim to approve or reject it. If approved, the department shall issue a credit in lieu of refund for the amount of the claim, if the claimant is a distributor. For all other persons, a warrant shall be drawn upon the state treasurer for the amount of the claim.

(5) Should the department of revenue find that the statement contains errors which are not fraudulently inserted, it may correct the statement and approve it as corrected, or the department may require the claimant to file an amended statement. If the state department of revenue determines that any claim has been fraudulently presented or is supported by invoice or invoices fraudulently made or altered or that any statement in the claim or affidavit is willfully false and made for the purpose of misleading, the department may reject such claim in full. If a claim is rejected, the department may suspend claimant's right to refund for a period not to exceed one (1) year.

(6) Any person, other than a licensed distributor, shall obtain a license from the state department of revenue prior to selling gasoline on which a refund may be claimed. The application for license shall contain the applicant's name, address, place or places of business in the state of Montana, and other information which may be required by the department. Licenses issued shall bear a license number and the date of issuance. The department shall keep a record of all licenses issued, canceled, or suspended. Licenses shall be issued for the calendar year upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1) and must be renewed annually before the first day of January.

Any person failing to comply with this subsection shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) or more than two hundred dollars ($200) or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not less than ten (10) days or more than sixty (60) days, or both fine and imprisonment.

Chapter 400, Laws of 1971, inserted "the total amount of gasoline purchased" in the first sentence of the third paragraph of subsection (1); deleted "and the reason" following "gasoline on which a refund is claimed" in the first sentence of the third paragraph of subsection (1); added the proviso to the second sentence of the third paragraph of subsection (1); inserted the third and fourth sentences in the third paragraph of subsection (1); deleted from the third paragraph of subsection (1) a sentence reading: "Each separate delivery shall constitute a purchase"; extended the time for filing applications, as set forth in the first sentence of subsection (2) from 13 to 14 months after the date of purchase or tax payment; and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 200, Laws of 1973, substituted "board of aeronautics" for "state aeronautics commission" at the end of the first paragraph of subsection (1); divided former subsection (1) into subsections (1) and (2); substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization throughout the section; inserted "original" and "at the time of the purchase and delivery" in the first sentence of subsection (2); substituted the proviso and new subdivisions (a) through (d) for the end of the second sentence in subsection (2) and the third, fourth and fifth sentences of that paragraph; inserted subsection (3); renumbered former subsection (2) as (4); inserted the third sentence in subsection (4); renumbered former subsection (3) as (5); deleted former subsections (4) and (5); and substituted "license" for "permit" throughout subsection (6).

Motorboat Fuel

Under prior law which did not provide for tax refund for gasoline used in motorboats, one who consumed gasoline in motorboat in off-highway use was not entitled to refund on basis of due process and equal protection clauses of constitution, since dealer, rather than the consumer, is the taxpayer, and since consumer, as a boat user, was not proper party to represent all nonhighway users. Harvey v. Blewett, 151 M 427, 443 P 2d 902.

84-1855.1. Unlawful use of aviation gasoline. It shall be unlawful for any person to use aviation gasoline, or to sell such gasoline for use, in any motorized vehicle operated upon the public highways or streets of this state. Violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor subject to the penalties provided in section 84-1859, R. C. M. 1947.

Title of Act

An act providing simplified administrative procedures in the taxation of aviation gasoline for allocation to the aeronautics commission by subjecting such gasoline to a one cent (1¢) per gallon tax rather than the present seven cents (7¢) and by allowing no deduction, refund, or exemption from the tax; deleting aviation gasoline from those provisions of the gasoline license tax laws which provide evaporation allowances and credit refunds; providing a definition of "aviation dealer"; providing a new section numbered 84-1855.1, R. C. M. 1947, imposing a penalty; amending sections 84-1846, 84-1847, 84-1849, 84-1851, 84-1853 and 84-1855, R. C. M. 1947; repealing section 84-1848, R. C. M. 1947, pertaining to aviation gasoline tax exemption certificates.

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 204, Laws 1971 read "Section 84-1848, R. C. M. 1947, is hereby repealed in its entirety."

84-1856. Timely mailing treated as timely filing and paying. Any claim, statement, remittance, or other document which is transmitted to this state through the United States mail, shall be deemed filed and received by this state on the date shown by the post-office cancellation mark stamped upon the envelope or other appropriate wrapper containing it. Any claim, statement, remittance, or other document which is mailed but not received by this state or where received with a cancellation mark that is illegible, erroneous, or omitted, shall be deemed filed and received on the date mailed if the sender establishes by competent evidence that the claim, statement, remittance, or other document was deposited in the United States mail on or before the date due for filing. In cases of such nonreceipt of a claim, statement, remittance, or other document, the sender must file with the state a duplicate within thirty (30) days after written notification is given to the sender by the state of its nonreceipt of such claim, statement, remittance, or other document.

If any claim, statement, remittance, or other document is sent by United States registered mail, certified mail or certificate of mailing, a record authenticated by the United States post office of such registration, certification or certificate shall be considered competent evidence that the report, claim, tax return, statement, remittance or other document was mailed to the addressee, and the date of registration, certification or certificate shall be deemed the postmarked date.

If the date for filing any claim, statement, remittance, or other document falls upon a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the filing shall be considered timely if done on the next business day.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 369, L. 1969.

84-1857. License and bond of gasoline distributors. All gasoline distributors prior to the commencement of doing business shall file an application for a license with the state department of revenue on forms prescribed and furnished by the department setting forth the information as may be requested by the department. Each distributor shall at the same time file a corporate surety bond or such collateral security or indemnity as may be deemed sufficient by the state department of revenue, but in no case more than twice the estimated amount of gasoline taxes the distributor will pay to this state each month. Upon approval of the application, the state department of revenue shall issue to the distributor a nonassignable license which shall continue in force until surrendered or canceled.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 369, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 98, Ch. 516, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization in four places.

84-1858. Penalties—delinquent payment—procedure in case of failure to file statement or pay tax—lien for tax. Any license tax not paid within the time provided shall be delinquent and a penalty of ten per cent (10%) shall be added to the tax and the tax shall bear interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date of delinquency until paid. Upon a showing of good cause by the distributor, the department may waive penalty.

If any distributor or other person subject to the payment of such license tax shall willfully fail, neglect, or refuse to make any statement required by this act, or shall willfully fail to make payment of such license tax within the time provided, the state department of revenue shall be authorized to revoke any license issued under this act. In addition, the department shall inform itself regarding the matters required to be in such statement and determine the amount of the license tax due the state from such distributor, and shall add thereto a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) or ten per cent (10%) thereof, whichever is greater, together with interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date such statements should have been made and said license tax paid. The state treasurer shall proceed to collect such license tax with penalties and interest. Upon the request of the state treasurer, the attorney general shall commence and prosecute to final determination in any court of competent jurisdiction an action to collect such license tax. All license taxes, penalties and interest due from any distributor under the provisions of this act, shall be a lien upon any and all property of such distributor or other person upon the filing by the state department of revenue of a copy of its statement, or a certified copy of any statement filed with the department, in the office of the county clerk of the county where the distributor's property is situated. The lien shall have precedence over any other claim, lien or demand filed or recorded thereafter. The lien may be enforced in the name of this state in the same manner as judgment liens are enforced. No action shall be maintained to enjoin the collection of all or any part of the license tax. When the amount due is paid in full before the entry of foreclosure decree, the state treasurer shall release the lien by filing in the office of the county clerk where the lien was filed, a written release. If the registrar's decision be that the licensee has been guilty of any of such acts or omissions, said registrar shall suspend the contractor's license. At any time within twenty days thereafter the complainant or the contractor may petition the registrar for a rehearing. In the order granting or denying such rehearing the registrar shall set forth a statement of the particular grounds and reasons for said registrar's actions on such petition and shall mail a copy of such order to the parties who have appeared in support of or in opposition to the petition for rehearing. If a rehearing be granted, the registrar shall set the matter for further hearing on due notice to the parties, and within thirty days after submission of the matter, serve said registrar's decision after rehearing in like manner as an original decision.

The filing of such petition for rehearing as to the registrar's actions in suspending or canceling such license shall suspend the operation of such action and permit the licensee to continue to do business as a public contractor pending final determination of the controversy.

Within thirty days after the decision on rehearing, any party aggrieved by such decision of the registrar may appeal therefrom to the district court in and for the county in which the licensee under this act resides or does business as a public contractor, by serving upon the registrar a notice of such appeal. The matter shall thereupon be heard de novo by the district court. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the district court in the same manner as appeals in other civil cases.

In all cases where the licensee has filed his notice of appeal from the decision of the registrar or from the decision of the district court, such licensee shall be entitled to continue to do business as a public contractor pending final decision of the controversy.

Extent of Lien

This section does not permit mortgagee who had previously purchased certificates of tax sale to retain a lien upon the real estate for the amount of certificates after sheriff's sale. Stallings v. Erwin, 148 M 227, 419 P 2d 480, 483.

Where, subsequent to purchase of tax certificates, mortgagee foreclosed the mortgage, the foreclosure sale cut off any lien asserted by mortgagee for taxes paid although the mortgage permitted the mortgagee to pay taxes and collect the same upon foreclosure. Mineral Rights Reservation

County has implied power under proviso of this section to make mineral reservation in deeds to tax-title lands sold by it. Smith v. County of Musselshell, 155 M 376, 472 P 2d 878.

In action to determine rights under deed, evidence that all parties to county's deed regarded reservation in deed as royalty interest and not mineral interest and language in deeds that "all minerals contained in and hereafter mined, produced, extracted, or otherwise taken" supported finding that such reservation was royalty interest. Superior Oil Co. v. Vanderhoof, 307 F Supp 84.

84-4822. Ad valorem tax basis—complaints—notice—testimony—hearing—refunds—valuation of cars as unit. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the legislature that the tax herein imposed be not greater than the amount of tax such freight line company would pay if its cars were taxed on an ad valorem basis. No tax other than as in this act imposed shall be assessed against the business or income of any such freight line company. Any such freight line company or railroad company, on or before June 1st of the year in which the tax herein imposed has been paid, may file written complaint with the state tax appeal board concerning the correctness of the rate used, or the correctness of the amount of the tax imposed, or any other matter affecting the complainant under the provisions of this act. Upon filing such complaint, the state tax appeal board shall set the same for hearing, and shall give written notice thereof to the complainant at least ten (10) days before the date set for hearing thereon. Upon the hearing of any such complaint, the state tax appeal board shall take testimony to determine whether the amount of the tax, as computed and determined by the department of revenue, is greater than the general ad valorem tax for all purposes would be on the cars of such freight line company subject to taxation in Montana, if assessed and taxed on an ad valorem basis. In such cases the state tax appeal board shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to lower or raise the rates herein specified to conform to the facts disclosed at such hearing and to make the amount of the tax due equivalent to such ad valorem tax. If the state tax appeal board shall then determine that the amount of the tax imposed and collected was excessive, the claimant shall be entitled to a refund to the extent of such excess. Within six (6) months after such determination the claimant may present to the state department of revenue a sworn claim for such refund, setting forth the amount thereof. The state auditor shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount of such claim and the same shall be paid out of the freight line company tax fund created by this act, in the same manner as other claims against the state are paid. In order to determine the amount of tax such freight line company would pay, the department may value all cars of any such company as a unit and allocate to Montana that proportion of the total value which the Montana car mileage bears to the total car mileage of the cars of any such freight line company during the twelve (12) months' period ending December 31 of the preceding year, and may then apply to such value, the average total rate of all general property taxes levied for the preceding year by the taxing authorities of the state, counties, school districts, municipalities and other taxing subdivisions for state, county, school and muncipal and other purposes.

In the event the state tax appeal board under its authority to raise or lower the rate of the taxes which would be payable on the cars of such freight line company if taxed upon an ad valorem basis, shall, after a hearing as herein provided, find taxes due from any such freight line company in excess of the five per cent (5%) of all gross revenue in this state which is required to be paid by the railroad companies, such additional tax as so determined shall be due and payable by the freight line company upon which the assessment is made, and if such tax shall remain unpaid for more than ninety (90) days after notification of such assessment by the state tax appeal board, the board shall cause an action to be brought to recover the amount of such additional tax in the district court of any county within the state of Montana in which service can be had on the freight line company liable for the tax or in which the property of such delinquent freight line company can be seized under attachment or garnishment proceedings in the manner prescribed by law.

Amendments

84-4914. (2295.14) Returns and payment of tax—penalty and interest—refunds—credits. (1) Every single individual and every married individual not filing a joint return with his or her spouse and having a gross income for the taxable year of more than six hundred sixty-five dollars

($665), and married individuals not filing separate returns and having a combined gross income for the taxable year of more than one thousand three hundred thirty dollars ($1,330), shall be liable for a return to be filed on such forms and according to such rules and regulations as the department of revenue may prescribe. The gross income amounts referred to in the preceding sentence shall be increased by six hundred dollars ($600) for each additional personal exemption allowance the taxpayer is entitled to claim for himself and his spouse under section 84-4910(c) and (d). A nonresident shall be required to file a return if his gross income for the taxable year derived from sources within Montana exceeds the amount of the exemption deduction he is entitled to claim for himself and his spouse under the provisions of section 84-4910(b), (c) and (d), as prorated according to paragraph (i) of said section.

(2) In accordance with instructions set forth by the department, every taxpayer who is married and living with husband or wife and is required to file a return may, at his or her option, file a joint return with husband or wife even though one of the spouses has neither gross income nor deductions. If a joint return is made, the tax shall be computed on the aggregate taxable income and the liability with respect to the tax shall be joint and several. If a joint return has been filed for a taxable year, the spouses may not file separate returns after the time for filing the return of either has expired, unless the department so consents.

(4) All taxpayers, including, but not limited to those subject to the provisions of sections 84-4939 and 84-4943, shall compute the amount of income tax payable and shall at the time of filing the return required by this act, pay to the department any balance of income tax remaining unpaid after crediting the amount withheld as provided by section 84-4943, and/or any payment made by reason of an estimated tax return provided for in section 84-4939; provided however, the tax so computed is greater by one dollar ($1) than the amount withheld and/or paid by estimated return as provided in this act.

If the amount of tax withheld and/or payment of estimated tax exceeds by more than one dollar ($1) the amount of income tax as computed, the taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund of the excess.

(5) As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the department shall examine and verify the tax.

(6) If the amount of tax as verified is greater than the amount theretofore paid, the excess shall be paid by the taxpayer to the department within thirty (30) days after notice of the amount of the tax as computed with interest added at the rate of nine per centum (9%) per annum or fraction thereof on the additional tax. In such case there shall be no penalty because of such understatement, provided the deficiency is paid within thirty (30) days after the first notice of the amount is mailed to the taxpayer.

If payment is not made within thirty (30) days or if the understatement is due to negligence on the part of the taxpayer, but without fraud, there shall be added to the amount of the deficiency five per centum (5%) thereof, provided, however, that no deficiency penalty shall be less than two dollars ($2). Interest will be computed at the rate of nine per centum (9%) per annum or fraction thereof on the additional assessment. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this subdivision, the interest shall in all cases be computed from the date the return and tax was originally due (as distinguished from the due date as it may have been extended) to the date of payment.

If the time for filing a return is extended, the taxpayer shall pay in addition, interest thereon at the rate of nine per centum (9%) per annum from the time when the return was originally required to be filed to the time of payment.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 450 and once by Ch. 516. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment, in subsection (1), substituted "not filing a joint return with his or her spouse and" for "filing a separate returns" and "not filing separate returns" for "filing a joint return"; in subsection (2), added the last sentence; in subsection (4), made minor changes in punctuation; and in subsection (6), raised the interest rate on delinquent income taxes from "six per centum (6%)" per annum to "nine per centum (9%)."

Chapter 450, Laws of 1973, increased the amounts of income specified in the first sentence from $600 and $1,200 to $665 and $1,330; added the second and third sentences to subsection (1); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 516, Laws of 1973, substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization throughout the section.

Effective Dates

Section 2 of Ch. 450, Laws 1973 read "This act shall be effective for all taxable years ending on and after December 31, 1972."

Section 3 of Ch. 450, Laws 1973 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 23, 1973.

84-4919. (2295.19) Time for filing—affidavit—forms. Returns shall be made to the department on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year, or, if the return is made on the basis of the calendar year, then the return shall be made on or before the fifteenth day of April in each year. The department may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing returns whenever in its judgment good cause exists and shall keep a record of every such extension and the reason therefor. Except in the case of persons who are abroad, no such extension shall be granted for more than six (6) months. Such returns shall set forth such facts as the department may deem necessary for the proper enforcement of this act. There shall be annexed to such return the affidavit or affirmation of the persons making the return, to the effect that the statements contained therein are true. Blank forms of return shall be furnished by the department upon application, but failure to secure the form shall not relieve any taxpayer from the obligation of making any return herein required; provided, that every taxpayer liable for a tax under this law shall pay a minimum tax of one dollar ($1.00).

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department" for "board" in four places.

84-4920. (2295.20) Revision of return—time for determining tax—examination of records and persons. If, in the opinion of the department of revenue, any return of a taxpayer is in any essential respect incorrect, it may revise such return, or if any taxpayer fails to make return as herein required, the department is authorized to make an estimate of the taxable income of such taxpayer from any information in its possession, and to audit and state an account according to such return or the estimate so made by it for the taxes, penalties and interest due the state from such taxpayer. Except in the case of willfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, the amount of tax due under any return shall be determined by the department within five (5) years after the return was made, and the department thereafter shall be barred from revising any such returns or recomputing the tax due thereon and no proceeding in court for the collection of such tax shall be instituted after the expiration of said period notwithstanding the provisions of section 84-4929. In the case of a willfully false or fraudulent return, the amount of tax due may be determined at any time after the return is filed and the tax may be collected at any time after it becomes due, and where no return has been filed, the tax may be assessed at any time.

The department, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making an estimate of taxable income of any person where information has been obtained, may also examine or cause to have examined, by any agent or representative designated, by it for that purpose, any books, papers or records of memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any person having knowledge in the premises, and may take testimony and require proof material for its information, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization throughout the section.

84-4920.1. Suspension of running of statute of limitations—grounds. The running of the statute of limitations provided for under section 84-4920 shall be suspended during any period that the federal statute of limitations for collection of federal income tax has been suspended by (1) written agreement signed by the taxpayer or, (2) when the taxpayer has instituted an action which has the effect of suspending the running of the federal statute of limitations, and for one (1) additional year. If the taxpayer fails to file a record of changes in federal taxable income or an amended return as required by section 84-4938, the said statute of limitations shall not apply until five years from the date the federal changes become final or the amended federal return was filed. If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of adjusted gross income stated in the return the said statute of limitations shall not apply for two additional years from the time specified in section 84-4920.

84-4922. (2295.22) Revision — application — hearing — adjustment. An application for revision may be filed with the department of revenue by a taxpayer within five (5) years from the original due date of the return. If the taxpayer is not satisfied with the action taken by the department, he may appeal to the state tax appeal board as provided therein, which shall have authority to grant the claim or any part thereof.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 405 and once by Ch. 516. Because of the comprehensive nature of the amendment by Ch. 405, the earlier enactment, the changes made by Ch. 516 were no longer applicable. The compiler has therefore used the language of Ch. 415 above.

Amendments

Chapter 405, Laws of 1973 completely rewrote this section. For prior law, see parent volume.

Chapter 516, Laws of 1973, substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization.

The determination of the state department of revenue may be reviewed in the district court for Lewis and Clark county or the county in which the taxpayer resides or has his principal office or place of business, by a complaint filed by the taxpayer against the state department of revenue within six (6) months after the receipt of notice of the decision of the state department of revenue. Upon the serving of summons upon the state department of revenue as in civil action, the cause shall proceed as other civil cases. Service upon the state department of revenue may be made by serving one copy upon the director of the department of revenue. The remedies provided by this chapter for the collection of the tax shall be stayed and no assessment, distraint or proceedings in court for collection of the taxes shall be made, begun or prosecuted until ninety (90) days after such court action is finally determined. From any determination of such court, an appeal to the supreme court may be taken by either party.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted references to the department of revenue for references to the state board of equalization; substituted "director of the department of revenue" for "secretary of the state board of equalization" at the end of the third sentence; and deleted "or one copy upon the chairman of the state board of equalization" at the end of the third sentence.

(2295.24) Penalties for violations of act. (1) If any person, without intent to evade any tax imposed by this act, fails to make a return of income at the time required by or under the provisions of this act, there shall be imposed a minimum penalty of ten dollars ($10) for such failure, or, if a tax in excess of two hundred dollars ($200) is due, a penalty in an amount equal to five (5) per centum thereof, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to neglect. If any person, without intent to evade any tax imposed by this act, fails to pay any tax if one is due at the time required by or under the provisions of this act, there shall be added to the tax an additional amount equal to ten (10) per centum thereof, but not less than ten dollars ($10), unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to neglect. Interest at the rate of nine per centum (9%) per annum shall be added to the tax for the entire period it remains unpaid.

(2) If any person fails with intent to evade any tax imposed by this act, to make a return of income or to pay a tax if one is due at the time required by or under the provisions of this act there shall be added to the tax an additional amount equal to twenty-five per centum (25%) thereof, but such additional amount shall in no case be less than twenty-five dollars ($25), and interest at one (1) per centum for each month or fraction of a month during which the tax remains unpaid.

(3) Any individual, corporation or partnership, or any officer or employee of any corporation, or member or employee of any partnership, who, with intent to evade any tax or any requirement of this act or any lawful requirement of the department thereunder, fails to pay the tax, or to make, render, sign or verify any return, or to supply any information, within the time required by or under the provisions of this act, or who, with like intent, makes, renders, signs, or verifies any false or fraudulent return or statement, or supplies any false or fraudulent information, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), to be recovered by the attorney general, in the name of the state, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed one (1) year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

84-4928. (2295.26) Levy upon and sale of property for payment of income taxes. If any tax imposed by this act or any portion of such tax is not paid within sixty (60) days after the same becomes due, the department shall issue a warrant under its official seal directed to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the person owing the same, found within his county, for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties, interest and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the department and pay to it the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not more than sixty (60) days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall within five (5) days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of the district court of his county a copy thereof, and thereupon the clerk shall enter in the judgment docket, in the column for judgment debtors, the name of the taxpayer mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns, the amount of the tax or portion thereof and penalties for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed, and thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in real property or chattels real of the person against whom it is levied in the same manner as a judgment docketed in the office of such clerk. The said sheriff shall thereupon proceed upon the same in all respects, with like effect, and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. In the discretion of the department a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any agent authorized to collect income taxes, and in the execution thereof, such agent shall have the powers conferred by law upon sheriffs, but shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess of actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a warrant be returned not satisfied in full, the department shall have the same remedies to enforce the claim for taxes against the taxpayer as if the people of the state had recovered judgment against the taxpayer for the amount of the tax.

84-4956. Credits and refunds. If the department of revenue discovers from the examination of a return, or upon claim duly filed by a taxpayer, or upon final judgment of a court, that the amount of income tax is in excess of the amount due, or that any penalty or interest was erroneously or illegally collected, the amount of the overpayment shall be credited against any income tax, penalty or interest, then due from the taxpayer, and the balance of such excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

Effective with taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1959, no such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after five (5) years from the date prescribed by statute for filing the return, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, or the department of revenue has determined the existence of the overpayment and has approved the refund or credit thereof. Within six (6) months after a claim for refund is filed the state department of revenue shall examine said claim and either approve or disapprove it. If said claim is approved, the credit or refund shall be made to the taxpayer within sixty (60) days after the claim is approved; if the claim is disallowed, the state department of revenue shall so notify the said taxpayer and shall grant a hearing thereon upon proper application by the taxpayer. If the department disapproves a claim for refund, review of the determination of the department may be had as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Except as hereinafter provided for, effective with taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1962, interest shall be allowed on overpayments at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the due date of the return or from the date of the overpayment (whichever date is later) to the date the department of revenue approves refunding or crediting of the overpayment. With respect to tax paid by withholding or by estimate, the date of overpayment shall be deemed to be the date on which the return for the taxable year was due. No interest shall accrue on an overpayment if the taxpayer elects to have it applied to his estimated tax for the succeeding taxable year; nor shall interest accrue during any period the processing of a claim for refund is delayed more than thirty (30) days by reason of failure of the taxpayer to furnish information requested by the state department of revenue for the purpose of verifying the amount of the overpayment. No interest shall be allowed (a) if the overpayment is refunded within six (6) months from the date the return is due or the date the return is filed, whichever date is later; or (b) if the overpayment results from the carryback of a net operating loss; or (c) if the amount of interest is less than one dollar ($1.00). An overpayment not made incident to a bona fide and orderly discharge of an actual income tax liability, or one reasonably assumed to be imposed by this law, shall not be considered an overpayment with respect to which interest is allowable.

[The said valuation for the purpose of taxation shall be an amount equal to the average net proceeds from such mine for the five calendar years next preceding, or for as many years next preceding as the mine has produced gross yield, or for as many years next preceding as this act has been in effect, whichever is less. The average net proceeds for valuation shall be computed by dividing the total net proceeds for such period by the number of years for which such net proceeds were taken into account. In determining net proceeds of each individual year for averaging to determine valuation for purposes of taxation, the actual annual net proceeds as defined in section 84-5403, including losses, if any, from such mines and mining claims shall be taken for each year rather than the average valuation for such year. In no event shall there be valuation for the purpose of taxation for a year when there has been no gross yield from such mines and mining claims for the preceding average years and such years shall not be taken into account in computing the net proceeds for any year.] The county assessor shall immediately enter the same upon an assessment roll called "assessment roll of net proceeds of mines," alphabetically arranged, and in which shall be specified in separate columns and under the following heads:

The form of said assessment roll shall be prescribed by the state department of revenue in conformity with the provisions of this act.

Assessments of royalty on production of metals, and minerals other than petroleum and natural gas, shall be entered by the county assessor in the personal property assessment book in the name of the recipient or owner of such royalty. The county treasurer shall proceed to give full notice thereof to such recipient or royalty owner, and to collect the taxes thereon in the same manner as taxes on net proceeds of mines.

2. Promote uniformity or compatibility in significant components of tax systems.

3. Facilitate taxpayer convenience and compliance in the filing of tax returns and in other phases of tax administration.

4. Avoid duplicative taxation.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS.

As used in this compact:

2. "Subdivision" means any government unit or special district of a state.

5. "Capital stock tax" means a tax measured in any way by the capital of a corporation considered in its entirety.

6. "Gross receipts tax" means a tax, other than a sales tax, which is imposed on or measured by the gross volume of business, in terms of gross receipts or in other terms, and in the determination of which no deduction is allowed which would constitute the tax an income tax.

7. "Sales tax" means a tax imposed with respect to the transfer for a consideration of ownership, possession or custody of tangible personal property or the rendering of services measured by the price of the tangible personal property transferred or services rendered and which is required by state or local law to be separately stated from the sales price by the seller, or which is customarily separately stated from the sales price, but does not include a tax imposed exclusively on the sale of a specifically identified commodity or article or class of commodities or articles.

8. "Use tax" means a nonrecurring tax, other than a sales tax, which (a) is imposed on or with respect to the exercise or enjoyment of any ARTICLE III. ELEMENTS OF INCOME TAX LAWS.

Taxpayer Option, State and Local Taxes.

1. Any taxpayer subject to an income tax whose income is subject to apportionment and allocation for tax purposes pursuant to the laws of a party state or pursuant to the laws of subdivisions in two or more party states may elect to apportion and allocate his income in the manner provided by the laws of such state or by the laws of such states and subdivisions without reference to this compact, or may elect to apportion and allocate in accordance with Article IV. This election for any tax year may be made in all party states or subdivisions thereof or in any one or more of the party states or subdivisions thereof without reference to the election made in the others. For the purposes of this paragraph, taxes imposed by subdivisions shall be considered separately from state taxes and the apportionment and allocation also may be applied to the entire tax base. In no instance wherein Article IV is employed for all subdivisions of a state may the sum of all apportionments and allocations to subdivisions within a state be greater than the apportionment and allocation that would be assignable to that state if the apportionment or allocation were being made with respect to a state income tax.

Taxpayer Option, Short Form.

2. Each party state or any subdivision thereof which imposes an income tax shall provide by law that any taxpayer required to file a return, whose only activities within the taxing jurisdiction consist of sales and do not include owning or renting real estate or tangible personal property, and whose dollar volume of gross sales made during the tax year within the state or subdivision, as the case may be, is not in excess of $100,000 may elect to report and pay any tax due on the basis of a percentage of such volume, and shall adopt rates which shall produce a tax which reasonably approximates the tax otherwise due. The multistate tax commission, not more than once in five years, may adjust the $100,000 figure in order to reflect such changes as may occur in the real value of the dollar, and such adjusted figure, upon adoption by the commission, shall replace the $100,000 figure specifically provided herein. Each party state and subdivision thereof may make the same election available to taxpayers additional to those specified in this paragraph.

Coverage.

3. Nothing in this Article relates to the reporting or payment of any tax other than an income tax.

ARTICLE IV. DIVISION OF INCOME.

1. As used in this Article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, co-operative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, investment company, or any type of insurance company.

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

(f) "Public utility" means any business entity (1) which owns or operates any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, transportation of goods or persons, except by pipeline, or the production, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water or steam; and (2) whose rates of charges for goods or services have been established or approved by a federal, state or local government or governmental agency.

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under paragraphs of this Article.

(h) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(i) "This state" means the state in which the relevant tax return is filed or, in the case of application of this Article to the apportionment and allocation of income for local tax purposes, the subdivision or local taxing district in which the relevant tax return is filed.

2. Any taxpayer having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state, other than activity as a financial organization or public utility or the rendering of purely personal services by an individual, shall allocate and apportion his net income as provided in this Article. If a taxpayer has income from business activity as a public utility but derives the greater percentage of his income from activities subject to this Article, the taxpayer may elect to allocate and apportion his entire net income as provided in this Article.

3. For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this Article, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if (1) in that state he is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or (2) that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

4. Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains, interest, dividends or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income, shall be allocated as provided in paragraphs 5 through 8 of this Article.

5. (a) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this state: (1) if and to the extent that the property is utilized in this state, or (2) in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the state in which the property is utilized.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, tangible personal property is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

6. (a) Capital gains and losses from sales of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Capital gains and losses from sales of tangible personal property are allocable to this state if (1) the property had a situs in this state at the time of the sale, or (2) the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property had a situs.

(c) Capital gains and losses from sales of intangible personal property are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

7. Interest and dividends are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

8. (a) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this state: (1) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this state, or (2) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(b) A patent is utilized in a state to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in the state or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the state. If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the patent is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(c) A copyright is utilized in a state to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the state. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

9. All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

10. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period.

11. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals.

12. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the tax administrator may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

13. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere during the tax period.

14. Compensation is paid in this state if:

(a) the individual's service is performed entirely within the state;

(b) the individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

(c) some of the service is performed in the state and (1) the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or (2) the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

15. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period.

16. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(a) the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) the property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and (1) the purchaser is the United States government or (2) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser.

17. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if:

(a) the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or

(b) the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

18. If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this Article do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax administrator may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) separate accounting;

(b) the exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(c) the inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or

(d) the employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

ARTICLE V. ELEMENTS OF SALES AND USE TAX LAWS.

Tax Credit.

1. Each purchaser liable for a use tax on tangible personal property shall be entitled to full credit for the combined amount or amounts of legally imposed sales or use taxes paid by him with respect to the same property to another state and any subdivision thereof. The credit shall be applied first against the amount of any use tax due the state, and any unused portion of the credit shall then be applied against the amount of any use tax due a subdivision.

Exemption Certificates. Vendors May Rely.

2. Whenever a vendor receives and accepts in good faith from a purchaser a resale or other exemption certificate or other written evidence of exemption authorized by the appropriate state or subdivision taxing authority, the vendor shall be relieved of liability for a sales or use tax with respect to the transaction.

ARTICLE VI. THE COMMISSION.

Organization and Management.

1. (a) The Multistate Tax Commission is hereby established. It shall be composed of one "member" from each party state who shall be the head of the state agency charged with the administration of the types of taxes to which this compact applies. If there is more than one such agency, the state shall provide by law for the selection of the commission member from the heads of the relevant agencies. State law may provide that a member of the commission be represented by an alternate but only if there is on file with the commission written notification of the designation and identity of the alternate. The attorney general of each party state or his designee, or other counsel if the laws of the party state specifically provide, shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the commission, but shall not vote. Such attorneys general, designees, or other counsel shall receive all notices of meetings required under paragraph 1 (e) of this Article.

(b) Each party state shall provide by law for the selection of representatives from its subdivisions affected by this compact to consult with the commission member from that state.

(c) Each member shall be entitled to one vote. The commission shall not act unless a majority of the members are present, and no action shall be binding unless approved by a majority of the total number of members.

(d) The commission shall adopt an official seal to be used as it may provide.

(e) The commission shall hold an annual meeting and such other regular meetings as its bylaws may provide and such special meetings as its executive committee may determine. The commission bylaws shall specify the dates of the annual and any other regular meetings, and shall provide for the giving of notice of annual, regular and special meetings. Notice of special meetings shall include the reasons therefor and an agenda of the items to be considered.

(f) The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall appoint an executive director who shall serve at its pleasure, and it shall fix his duties and compensation. The executive director shall be secretary of the commission. The commission shall make provision for the bonding of such of its officers and employees as it may deem appropriate.

(g) Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any party state, the executive director shall appoint or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission and shall fix their duties and compensation. The commission bylaws shall provide for personnel policies and programs.

(h) The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any state, the United States, or any other governmental entity.

(i) The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any governmental entity, and may utilize and dispose of the same.

(j) The commission may establish one or more offices for the transacting of its business.

(k) The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form, and shall file a copy of the bylaws and any amendments thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(l) The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering its activities for the preceding year. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission or services borrowed shall be reported in the annual report of the commission, and shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, gift, grant or services borrowed and the identity of the donor or lender. The commission may make additional reports as it may deem desirable.

Committees.

2. (a) To assist in the conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall have an executive committee of seven members, including the chairman, vice-chairman, treasurer and four other members elected annually by the commission. The executive committee, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall function as provided in the bylaws of the commission.

(b) The commission may establish advisory and technical committees, membership on which may include private persons and public officials, in furthering any of its activities. Such committees may consider any matter of concern to the commission, including problems of special interest to any party state and problems dealing with particular types of taxes.

(c) The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

Powers.

3. In addition to powers conferred elsewhere in this compact, the commission shall have power to:

(a) Study state and local tax systems and particular types of state and local taxes.

(b) Develop and recommend proposals for an increase in uniformity or compatibility of state and local tax laws with a view toward encouraging the simplification and improvement of state and local tax law and administration.

(c) Compile and publish information as in its judgment would assist the party states in implementation of the compact and taxpayers in complying with state and local tax laws.

(d) Do all things necessary and incidental to the administration of its functions pursuant to this compact.

Finance.

4. (a) The commission shall submit to the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that state for presentation to the legislature thereof.

(b) Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states. The total amount of appropriations requested under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party states as follows: one-tenth in equal shares; and the remainder in proportion to the amount of revenue collected by each party state and its subdivisions from income taxes, capital stock taxes, gross receipts taxes, sales and use taxes. In determining such amounts, the commission shall employ such available public sources of information as, in its judgment, present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party states. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the sources used in obtaining information employed in applying the formula contained in this paragraph.

(c) The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under paragraph 1 (i) of this Article: provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it under paragraph 1 (i), the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

(d) The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the commission.

(e) The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any person authorized by the commission.

(f) Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VII. UNIFORM REGULATIONS AND FORMS.

1. Whenever any two or more party states, or subdivisions of party states, have uniform or similar provisions of law relating to an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales or use tax, the commission may adopt uniform regulations for any phase of the administration of such law, including assertion of jurisdiction to tax, or prescribing uniform tax forms. The commission may also act with respect to the provisions of Article IV of this compact.

2. Prior to the adoption of any regulation, the commission shall:

(a) As provided in its bylaws, hold at least one public hearing on due notice to all affected party states and subdivisions thereof and to all taxpayers and other persons who have made timely request of the commission for advance notice of its regulation-making proceedings.

(b) Afford all affected party states and subdivisions and interested persons an opportunity to submit relevant written data and views, which shall be considered fully by the commission.

3. The commission shall submit any regulations adopted by it to the appropriate officials of all party states and subdivisions to which they might apply. Each such state and subdivision shall consider any such regulation for adoption in accordance with its own laws and procedures.

ARTICLE VIII. INTERSTATE AUDITS.

1. This Article shall be in force only in those party states that specifically provide therefor by statute.

2. Any party state or subdivision thereof desiring to make or participate in an audit of any accounts, books, papers, records or other documents may request the commission to perform the audit on its behalf. In responding to the request, the commission shall have access to and may examine, at any reasonable time, such accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents and any relevant property or stock of merchandise. The commission may enter into agreements with party states or their subdivisions for assistance in performance of the audit. The commission shall make charges, to be paid by the state or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.

3. The commission may require the attendance of any person within the state where it is conducting an audit or part thereof at a time and place fixed by it within such state for the purpose of giving testimony with respect to any account, book, paper, document, other record, property or stock of merchandise being examined in connection with the audit. If the person is not within the jurisdiction, he may be required to attend for such purpose at any time and place fixed by the commission within the state of which he is a resident: provided that such state has adopted this article.

4. The commission may apply to any court having power to issue compulsory process for orders in aid of its powers and responsibilities pursuant to this Article and any and all such courts shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders. Failure of any person to obey any such order shall be punishable as contempt of the issuing court. If the party or subject matter on account of which the commission seeks an order is within the jurisdiction of the court to which application is made, such application may be to a court in the state or subdivision on behalf of which the audit is being made or a court in the state in which the object of the order being sought is situated. The provisions of this paragraph apply only to courts in a state that has adopted this Article.

5. The commission may decline to perform any audit requested if it finds that its available personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the commission, on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to a number of party states or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits, the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the commission.

6. Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this Article shall be confidential and available only for tax purposes to party states, their subdivisions or the United States. Availability of information shall be in accordance with the laws of the states or subdivisions on whose account the commission performs the audit, and only through the appropriate agencies or officers of such states or subdivisions. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to require any taxpayer to keep records for any period not otherwise required by law.

7. Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on behalf of the party states or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated by this Article.

8. In no event shall the commission make any charge against a taxpayer for an audit.

9. As used in this Article, "tax," in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in Article II, means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

ARTICLE IX. ARBITRATION.

1. Whenever the commission finds a need for settling disputes concerning apportionments and allocations by arbitration, it may adopt a regulation placing this Article in effect, notwithstanding the provisions of Article VII.

2. The commission shall select and maintain an arbitration panel composed of officers and employees of state and local governments and private persons who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in matters of tax law and administration.

3. Whenever a taxpayer who has elected to employ Article IV, or whenever the laws of the party state or subdivision thereof are substantially identical with the relevant provisions of Article IV, the taxpayer, by written notice to the commission and to each party state or subdivision thereof that would be affected, may secure arbitration of an apportionment or allocation, if he is dissatisfied with the final administrative determination of the tax agency of the state or subdivision with respect thereto on the ground that it would subject him to double or multiple taxation by two or more party states or subdivisions thereof. Each party state and subdivision thereof hereby consents to the arbitration as provided herein, and agrees to be bound thereby.

4. The arbitration board shall be composed of one person selected by the taxpayer, one by the agency or agencies involved, and one member of the commission's arbitration panel. If the agencies involved are unable to agree on the person to be selected by them, such person shall be selected by lot from the total membership of the arbitration panel. The two persons selected for the board in the manner provided by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall jointly select the third member of the board. If they are unable to agree on the selection, the third member shall be selected by lot from among the total membership of the arbitration panel. No member of a board selected by lot shall be qualified to serve if he is an officer or employee or is otherwise affiliated with any party to the arbitration proceeding. Residents within the jurisdiction of a party to the arbitration proceeding shall not constitute affiliation within the meaning of this paragraph.

5. The board may sit in any state or subdivision party to the proceeding, in the state of the taxpayer's incorporation, residence or domicile, in any state where the taxpayer does business, or in any place that it finds most appropriate for gaining access to evidence relevant to the matter before it.

6. The board shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings. The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The board shall act by majority vote.

7. The board shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents, and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the board, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the state in which the board is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoenas, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt. The provisions of this paragraph apply only in states that have adopted this Article.

8. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the expenses and other costs of the arbitration shall be assessed and allocated among the parties by the board in such manner as it may determine. The commission shall fix a schedule of compensation for members of arbitration boards and of other allowable expenses and costs. No officer or employee of a state or local government who serves as a member of a board shall be entitled to compensation therefor unless he is required on account of his service to forego the regular compensation attaching to his public employment, but any such board member shall be entitled to expenses.

9. The board shall determine the disputed apportionment or allocation and any matters necessary thereto. The determinations of the board shall be final for purposes of making the apportionment or allocation, but for no other purpose.

10. The board shall file with the commission and with each tax agency represented in the proceeding: the determination of the board; the board's written statement of its reasons therefor; the record of the board's proceedings; and any other documents required by the arbitration rules of the commission to be filed.

11. The commission shall publish the determinations of boards together with the statements of the reasons therefor.

12. The commission shall adopt and publish rules of procedure and practice and shall file a copy of such rules and of any amendment thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

13. Nothing contained herein shall prevent at any time a written compromise of any matter or matters in dispute, if otherwise lawful, by the parties to the arbitration proceedings.

ARTICLE X. ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL.

1. This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any seven states. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment thereof. The commission shall arrange for notification of all party states whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.

2. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

3. No proceeding commenced before an arbitration board prior to the withdrawal of a state and to which the withdrawing state or any subdivision thereof is a party shall be discontinued or terminated by the withdrawal, nor shall the board thereby lose jurisdiction over any of the parties to the proceeding necessary to make a binding determination therein.

ARTICLE XI. EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS AND JURISDICTION.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to:

(a) Affect the power of any state or subdivision thereof to fix rates of taxation, except that a party state shall be obligated to implement Article III [paragraph] (2) of this compact.

(b) Apply to any tax or fixed fee imposed for the registration of a motor vehicle or any tax on motor fuel, other than a sales tax: provided that the definition of "tax" in Article VIII [paragraph] (9) may apply for the purposes of that Article and the commission's powers of study and recommendation pursuant to Article VI [paragraph] (3) may apply.

(c) Withdraw or limit the jurisdiction of any state or local court or administrative officer or body with respect to any person, corporation or other entity or subject matter, except to the extent that such jurisdiction is expressly conferred by or pursuant to this compact upon another agency or body.

(d) Supersede or limit the jurisdiction of any court of the United States.

ARTICLE XII. CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY.

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States or of the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

(1) When it appears to the department that the person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in any act or practice declared to be unlawful by this act, or when the department believes it to be in the public interest that an investigation should be made to ascertain whether a person in fact has engaged in, is engaging in or is about to engage in, any act or practice declared to be unlawful by this act, the department may execute in writing and cause to be served upon any person who is believed to have information, documentary material or physical evidence relevant to the alleged or suspected violation, an investigative demand requiring such person to furnish, under oath or otherwise, a report in writing setting forth the relevant facts and circumstances of which he has knowledge, or to appear and testify or to produce relevant documentary material or physical evidence for examination, at such reasonable time and place as may be stated in the investigative demand, concerning the advertisement, sale or offering for sale of any goods or services or the conduct of any trade or commerce that is the subject matter of the investigation.

(2) At any time before the return date specified in an investigative demand, or within twenty (20) days after the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, a petition to extend the return date, or to modify or set aside the demand, stating good cause, may be filed in the district court where the person served with the demand resides or has his principal place of business or in the district court of Lewis and Clerk county.

For the purposes of this section, the district court issuing an injunction retains jurisdiction, and the cause continued, and in such cases the department acting in the name of the state may petition for recovery of civil penalties.

(2) In any action brought under section 5 [85-405] of this act, if the court finds that a person is willfully using or has willfully used a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section 2 [85-402] of this act, the department, upon petition to the court, may recover, on behalf of the state, a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) per violation.

85-501. Purpose. The purpose of this act is to afford consumers, subjected to high pressure door-to-door sales tactics, a "cooling-off" period.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 426, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to provide for a three (3) day cooling-off period on door-to-door sales contracts.

85-502. Definitions. As used in this act:

(1) "Consumer transaction" means a transaction where the money, property, or service which is the subject of the transaction is primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

(2) "Home solicitation sale" means a consumer transaction in which the purchase price is twenty-five dollars ($25) or more, and the seller or a person acting for him, is a person doing business who engages in a personal solicitation of a sale at a residence of the buyer and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is there given to the seller or a person acting for him. A sale which but for the fact that it is a cash sale would be a home solicitation sale shall be deemed a home solicitation sale if the seller makes or provides a loan to the buyer or obtains or assists in obtaining a loan for the buyer to pay any part of the purchase price. The term "home solicitation sale" does not include a transaction

(a) made pursuant to a pre-existing revolving charge account, or pursuant to prior negotiations between the parties at a business establishment at a fixed location where goods or services are offered or exhibited for sale, or

(b) in which the buyer has a right of cancellation pursuant to federal law.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 426, L. 1973.

85-503. Buyer's right to cancel home solicitation sale—time allowed —notice—return of goods. (1) Except as provided in subsection (5), in addition to any right otherwise to revoke an offer, the buyer or any other person obligated for any part of the purchase price may cancel a home solicitation sale until midnight of the third business day after the day on which the buyer has signed an agreement or offer to purchase relating to such sale.

(2) Cancellation occurs when written notice of cancellation is given to the seller.

(3) Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, shall be deemed given when deposited in a mailbox properly addressed and postage prepaid.

(4) Notice of cancellation need not take the form prescribed and shall be sufficient if it indicates the intention of the buyer not to be bound.

(5) A home solicitation sale may not be canceled if in the case of goods, the goods cannot be returned to the seller in substantially the same condition as when received by the buyer.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 426, L. 1973.

85-504. Notice to buyer of right to cancel—form and contents—notice of cancellation. (1) The seller shall furnish the buyer a notice which shall contain the statement set forth in paragraph (a) and printed in capital and lower case letters of not less than twelve (12) point bold-faced type with the seller's name and business address and the statement set forth in paragraph (b),

(a) YOU MAY CANCEL THIS SALE WITHIN THREE BUSINESS DAYS.

If you decide within three days that you want to cancel the sale, tear off and mail the bottom of this card. To cancel, the card must be mailed BY CERTIFIED MAIL within three days after you sign the contract.

(b) CONTRACT SIGNED

I hereby cancel this sale.

(Buyer's signature)

(2) Until the seller has complied with this section the buyer or any other person obligated for any part of the purchase price may cancel the home solicitation sale by notifying the seller in any manner and by any means of his intention to cancel; provided, however, that failure to mail the cancellation by certified mail does not nullify the cancellation as long as the cancellation is mailed within the prescribed time period. The period prescribed by section 3 [85-503] shall begin to run from the time the seller complies with this section.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 426, L. 1973.

85-505. Repayment to buyer canceling—liability for failure to repay—retention of goods by buyer. (1) Except as provided in this section, within ten (10) days after a home solicitation sale has been canceled or an offer to purchase revoked, the seller shall tender to the buyer any payments made by the buyer and any note of other evidence of indebtedness.

(2) If the down payment includes goods traded in, the goods shall be tendered in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller. If the seller fails to tender the goods as provided by this section, the buyer may elect to recover an amount equal to the trade-in allowance stated in the agreement.

(3) If the seller refuses within the period prescribed by subsection (1) to return the cash down payment or goods tendered as down payment, he shall be liable to the buyer for the entire down payment and if the buyer is successful in his action therefor the court shall also award him one hundred dollars ($100) plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(4) Until the seller has complied with this section the buyer may retain possession of goods delivered to him by the seller and shall have a lien on the goods in his possession or control for any recovery to which he may be entitled.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 497, L. 1973.

85-506. Redelivery of goods—care of goods by buyer. (1) Except as provided by subsection (4) of section 5 [85-505], within a reasonable time after a home solicitation sale has been canceled or an offer to purchase revoked, the buyer upon demand shall tender to the seller any goods delivered by the seller pursuant to the sale but need not tender at any place other than his residence. If the seller fails to demand possession of such goods within a reasonable time after cancellation or revocation, the goods shall become the property of the buyer without obligation to pay for them. For the purpose of this section, forty (40) days shall be presumed to be a reasonable time.

(2) The buyer shall take reasonable care of the goods in his possession both before cancellation or revocation and for a reasonable time thereafter, during which time the goods are otherwise at the seller's risk and such goods must be returned in substantially the same condition as received.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 426, L. 1973.

TITLE 86—TRUSTS AND USES

Chapter 3. Trustee's obligations—sale, mortgage or lease of trust property, 86-327.
5. Trusts for benefit of third persons—obligations, powers and rights of trustees, 86-511, 86-513.
8. Management of institutional funds, 86-801 to 86-809.

CHAPTER 1—TRUSTS AND USES IN RELATION TO REAL PROPERTY

86-103. (6785) Transfer to one for money paid by another, etc.

Conveyances between Persons in Confidential Relationships

In suit by beneficiaries to recover from deceased's brother stock allegedly belonging to estate, exception to general rule raising presumption of gift in favor of person to whom property is transferred when person making payment and transferee stand in confidential relation did not apply to transfer from deceased to brother. Detra v. Bartoletti, 150 M 210, 433 P 2d 485.

CHAPTER 2—TRUSTS IN GENERAL—NATURE AND CREATION

Parent and Child

Constructive trust would not be imposed on lands deeded son by aged mother in absence of evidence that son gained land by accident, mistake, undue influence, violation of trust or other wrongful act or by constructive fraud. Bodine v. Bodine, 149 M 29, 422 P 2d 650.

Pastoral Relationship

Evidence supported findings of fraud and undue influence constituting pastor an involuntary trustee of land conveyed to him, where the grantor had made substantial contributions to grantee's ministry, had financed a missionary trip for him, and had conveyed the land, intending it for use in the church work, on grantee's promise to reconvey a portion of it, but the grantee had failed to keep promises to take grantor on the missionary trip and to reconvey a portion of the land, and the conveyance of land, prepared by grantee's attorney, had been to grantee and himself personally rather than to his church; under these circumstances, cancellation of the conveyance was proper. Hensley v. Stevens, 156 M 486, 481 P 2d 694.

Transfer in Contemplation of Death

Where deceased, engaged in cattle partnership with his sister and her husband, during his last illness transferred bank account and interest in cattle to his sister and her husband, obligating them to pay all bills and expenses surrounding his illness and transfer some money to deceased's son, the sister and her husband were involuntary trustees of the property transferred from which they had paid expenses of deceased's last illness. Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "created by will or otherwise"; inserted "or the rate or amount of" before "compensation"; substituted "such compensation as may be reasonable under the circumstances" for "the same compensation as an executor"; and deleted second and third sentences, for text of which see parent volume.

86-513. Trustee appointed by will, deed or agreement—income trust beneficiary—annual statement. The trustee or trustees appointed by any will, deed or agreement heretofore or hereafter executed shall mail or deliver at least annually to each income trust beneficiary a written itemized statement of all current receipts and disbursements made by the trustee of the funds of the trust, both principal and income, and upon the request of any such beneficiary shall furnish him an itemized statement of all property then held by such trustee, and may also file any such statement in the district court of the county in which the trustee or one of the trustees resides.

In addition thereto any such trustee or trustees, whenever it or they so desire, may file in the district court of the county in which the trustees or one of the trustees resides an intermediate account under oath showing:

(1) the period covered by the account;

(2) the total principal with which the trustee is chargeable according to the last preceding account or the inventory if there is no preceding account;

(3) an itemized statement of all principal funds received and disbursed during such period;

(4) an itemized statement of all income received and disbursed during such period, unless waived;

(5) the balance of such principal and income remaining at the close of such period and how invested;

(6) the names and addresses of all living beneficiaries, including contingent beneficiaries, of the trust, and a statement as to any such beneficiary known to be under legal disability;

(7) a description of any possible unborn or unascertained beneficiary and his interest in the trust fund.

In addition thereto, after the time for termination of the trust shall have arrived, the trustee or trustees may file a final account in similar manner.

Upon the petition of any settlor or of any beneficiary of such a trust, after due notice thereof to the trustee, the district court in the county where the trustee or one of the trustees resides may direct the trustee or trustees thereof to file in said court such an account at any time subsequent to one year from the day on which such a report was last filed, or if none, then after one (1) year from the inception of the trust.

When any such account shall have been filed, the clerk of the court where filed shall fix a return day therefor and issue a notice as provided for herein. If each of the beneficiaries and the guardians and guardians ad litem, if any, is personally served with a copy of the notice, whether within or outside the state of Montana, at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the return day, then no publication of the notice shall be required; otherwise the trustee or trustees shall cause notice as provided for herein to be given by publishing the same at least once a week for three (3) successive weeks preceding the return day, the first publication to be at least twenty-five (25) days preceding the return day, such publication to be in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, or if none, then in adjoining county. And in any event, at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the return day, a copy of the notice shall be either served upon each beneficiary not represented by guardian or guardian ad litem or mailed to each such beneficiary not so served at such beneficiary's address last known to the trustee; and shall be either served upon each guardian and guardian ad litem, or mailed to each such guardian and guardian ad litem not so served at such guardian's or guardian ad litem's address last known to the trustee. Proof of service of the notice may be made by affidavit, as provided for service of summons in civil actions, or by written admission of service signed by the person served. The notice shall state the time and place for the return day, the name or names of the trustee or trustees who have filed the account, that the account has been filed, that the court is asked to settle such account, and that any objections or exceptions thereto must be filed with the clerk of said court on or before such return day.

Upon or before the return day, any beneficiary of the trust may file his written objections or exceptions to the account filed or to any action of the trustee or trustees set forth therein. The court may appoint either the legal guardian of a beneficiary, or a guardian ad litem to represent the interest of any such beneficiary who is an infant or of unsound mind or otherwise legally incompetent, or who is yet unborn or unascertained, and such beneficiary shall be bound by any action taken by such representative. Every unborn or unascertainable beneficiary shall be concluded by any action taken by the court for or against any living beneficiary of the same class or whose interests are similar to the interests of such unborn or unascertainable beneficiary.

At the same time, or at some later day fixed by the court if so requested by one or more of the parties, the court, without the intervention of a jury and after hearing all the evidence submitted, shall determine the correctness of the account and the validity and propriety of all actions of the trustee or trustees set forth therein including the purchase, retention and disposition of any of the property and funds of the trust, and shall render its decree either approving or disapproving the same or any part thereof, and, in addition, may surcharge the trustee or trustees for all losses, if any, caused by negligent or willful breaches of trust.

The decree so rendered shall be deemed final, conclusive and binding upon all the parties interested including all incompetent, unborn and unascertained beneficiaries of the trust, subject only to the right of appeal hereinafter stated.

The decree so rendered shall be a final order from which any party in interest may appeal as in civil actions to the district court of the state of Montana.

This chapter shall not apply to resulting trusts, constructive trusts, business trusts where certificates of beneficial interest are issued to the beneficiaries, investment trusts, voting trusts, insurance trusts prior to the death of the insured, trusts in the nature of mortgages or pledges, trusts created by judgment or decree of a federal court or of the district court when not sitting in probate, liquidation trusts or trusts for the sole purpose of paying dividends, interest or interest coupons, salaries, wages or pensions; nor shall this chapter apply to executors, administrators or guardians.

The settlor of any trust governed by this chapter may waive any or all of the provisions of this act requiring periodical statements to beneficiaries or may add additional duties in the instrument creating the trust; and any beneficiary entitled to an accounting under this act may waive such an accounting by a separate instrument delivered to the trustee or trustees.

CHAPTER 8—MANAGEMENT OF INSTITUTIONAL FUNDS

Section 86-801. Definitions.
86-802. Endowment funds subject to appropriation and expenditure.
86-803. Donor's intention restricting expenditure of net appreciation.
86-804. Allowable investments.
86-805. Delegation of investment authority—advisory service.
86-806. Ordinary business care and prudence.
86-807. Release of restrictions in gift instrument.
86-808. Uniformity of construction.
86-809. Citation of act.

86-801. Definitions. In this act:

(1) "Institution" means an incorporated or unincorporated organization organized and operated exclusively for educational, religious, charitable or other eleemosynary purposes, or a governmental organization to the extent that it holds funds exclusively for any of these purposes.

(2) "Institutional fund" means a fund held by an institution for its exclusive use, benefit, or purposes, but does not include

(a) a fund held for an institution by a trustee that is not an institution, or

(b) a fund in which a beneficiary that is not an institution has an interest, other than possible rights that could arise upon violation or failure of the purposes of the fund.

(3) "Endowment fund" means an institutional fund, or any part thereof, not wholly expendable by the institution on a current basis under the terms of the applicable gift instrument.

(4) "Governing board" means the body responsible for the management of an institution or of an institutional fund.

(5) "Historic dollar value" means the aggregate fair value in dollars of

(a) an endowment fund at the time it became an endowment fund,

(b) each subsequent donation to the fund at the time it is made, and

The determination of historic dollar value made in good faith by the institution is conclusive.

(6) "Gift instrument" means a will, deed, grant, conveyance, agreement, memorandum, writing or other governing document (including the terms of any institutional solicitations from which an institutional fund resulted) under which property is transferred to or held by an institution as an institutional fund.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to establish guidelines for the management and use of investments held by eleemosynary institutions and funds.

86-802. Endowment funds subject to appropriation and expenditure. The governing board may appropriate for expenditure for the uses and purposes for which an endowment fund is established so much of the net appreciation, realized and unrealized, in the fair value of the assets of an endowment fund over the historic dollar value of the fund as is prudent under the standard established by section 6 [86-806]. This section does not limit the authority of the governing board to expend funds as permitted under other law, the terms of the applicable gift instrument or the charter of the institution.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-803. Donor's intention restricting expenditure of net appreciation. Section 2 [86-802] does not apply if the applicable gift instrument indicates the donor's intention that net appreciation shall not be expended. A restriction upon the expenditure of net appreciation may not be implied from a designation of a gift as an endowment, or from a direction or authorization in the applicable gift instrument to use only "income," "interest," "dividends," or "rents, issues or profits," or "to preserve the principal intact," or a direction which contains other words of similar import. This rule of construction applies to gift instruments executed or in effect before or after the effective date of this act.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-804. Allowable investments. In addition to an investment otherwise authorized by law or by the applicable gift instrument, and without restriction to investments a fiduciary may make, the governing board, subject to any specific limitations set forth in the applicable gift instrument or if the applicable law other than law relating to investment by a fiduciary, may:

(1) invest and reinvest an institutional fund in any real or personal property deemed advisable by the governing board, whether or not it produces a current return, including mortgages, stocks, bonds, debentures and other securities of profit or nonprofit corporations, shares in or obligations of associations, partnerships or individuals, and obligations of any government or subdivision or instrumentality thereof;

(2) retain property contributed by a donor to an institutional fund for as long as the governing board deems advisable;

(3) include all or part of any institutional fund in any pooled or common fund maintained by the institution; and

(4) invest all or any part of an institutional fund in any other pooled or common fund available for investment, including shares or interests in regulated investment companies, mutual funds, common trust funds, investment partnerships, real estate investment trusts or similar organizations in which funds are commingled and investment determinations are made by persons other than the governing board.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-805. Delegation of investment authority—advisory service. Except as otherwise provided by the applicable gift instrument or by applicable law relating to governmental institutions or funds, the governing board may:

(1) delegate to its committees, officers or employees of the institution or the fund, or agents, including investment counsel, the authority to act in place of the board in investment and reinvestment of institutional funds;

(2) contract with independent investment advisers, investment counsel or managers, banks, or trust companies, so to act; and

(3) authorize the payment of compensation for investment advisory or management services.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 389, L. 1973.

86-806. Ordinary business care and prudence. In the administration of the powers to appropriate appreciation, to make and retain investments and to delegate investment management of institutional funds, members of a governing board shall exercise ordinary business care and prudence under the facts and circumstances prevailing at the time of the action or decision. 87-103. Benefits. (a) Payment of benefits. Benefits are payable from the fund to any individual who is or becomes unemployed and eligible for benefits as is herein prescribed; provided, however, that wages earned for services performed as an employee representative as defined in the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (52 Stat. 1094), or for services performed for an employer, as defined in said act, shall not be included for the purposes of determining eligibility or weekly benefit amount under this act. All benefits shall be paid through public employment offices in the state of Montana, or other agencies designated by the division, in accordance with such rules and regulations as the division may prescribe.

(b) Weekly benefit amount. Any individual whose benefit year begins on or after July 1, 1971, shall receive as his weekly benefit amount, an amount equal to one twenty-sixth (1/26) of his total wages for insured work paid during the calendar quarter of his base period in which his wages were highest. Such weekly benefit amount, if not a multiple of one dollar ($1), shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of one dollar ($1).

On or before May 31 of each year, the total wages paid by all employers as reported on contribution reports submitted on or before such date for the preceding calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly number of individuals employed during the same preceding calendar year as reported on such contribution reports. The amount thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two (52) and the average weekly wage, rounded to the nearest cent, thus determined. Fifty per cent (50%) of the average weekly wage shall constitute the maximum weekly benefit amount and shall apply to all maximum weekly benefit amount claims for benefits filed to establish a benefit year commencing on or after July 1 of the same year. Such maximum weekly benefit amount if not a multiple of one dollar ($1), shall be computed to the nearest multiple of one dollar ($1).

The minimum weekly benefit amount shall be twelve dollars ($12).

The division shall prepare and publish annually a benefit schedule in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

(c) Qualifying wages. To qualify as an insured worker an individual must have been paid wages for insured work in the quarters of his base period, other than the quarter in which his wages were highest, an amount totaling not less than thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount.

(d) Wage record. The division shall maintain a record of the wages paid to an individual in accordance with wages earned by him for employment by employers during each quarter.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment made substantial deletions at the beginning and end of the first sentence in subsection (a); rewrote the benefits schedule, generally increasing the amounts payable; increased the maximum weekly benefit from $34 to $42; reduced the minimum weekly benefit from $15 to $13; rewrote subsection (c) to substitute the requirement of earnings totaling one and one-half times the high-quarter earnings for a requirement of $100 in earnings other than in the high quarter; and made numerous minor changes in phraseology.

The 1971 amendment completely rewrote subsections (b) and (c), slightly reducing benefits in the lower wage brackets and slightly increasing benefits in the higher wage brackets, reducing the minimum weekly benefit from $13 to $12, and increasing the maximum weekly benefit from $42 to $47 effective July 1, 1971 and to $52 effective January 1, 1972.

The 1973 amendment substituted "division" for "commission" throughout the section; deleted from subsection (b) first and second paragraphs setting minimum and maximum weekly benefit amounts; added new second, third and fourth paragraphs to subsection (b); substituted "in the quarters of his base period, other than the quarter in which his wages were highest, an amount" in subsection (c) for "in his base period"; and substituted "thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount" at the end of subsection (c) for "one and one-half (1½) times his high-quarter wages during his base period including the high quarter."

87-104. Duration of benefits. The maximum total amount of benefits payable to any eligible individual during any benefit year shall be:

(a)(1) Thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount if he is qualified as an insured worker as defined in section 87-103 (c), and does not qualify under subsection (2) or (3) below.

(2) Twenty (20) times his weekly benefit amount if in addition to meeting the requirements of section 87-103 (c), he has been paid wages of one hundred dollars ($100) or more for insured work in each of two (2) quarters in his base period other than the quarter in which his wages were highest.

(3) Twenty-six (26) times his weekly benefit amount if in addition to meeting the requirement of section 87-103 (c), he has been paid wages of one hundred dollars ($100) or more for insured work in each of three (3) quarters in his base period other than the quarter in which his wages were highest.

(4) Extended benefits if he is qualified as provided under the provisions of this subsection.

(A) begins with the third week after whichever of the following weeks occurs first:

(i) a week for which there is a national "on" indicator, or

(ii) a week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

(B) ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs later:

(i) the third week after the first week for which there is both a national "off" indicator and a state "off" indicator, or

(ii) the thirteenth consecutive week of such period;

Provided, that no extended benefit period may begin by reason of a state "on" indicator before the fourteenth week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

Secretary of Labor determines that for each of the three (3) most recent completed calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and one-half per cent (4½%).

(3) There is a "national 'off' indicator" for a week if the U. S. Secretary of Labor determines that for each of the three (3) most recent completed calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and one-half per cent (4½%).

(4) There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the commission determines, in accordance with the regulations of the U. S. Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this act—

(A) equaled or exceeded one hundred and twenty per cent (120%) of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen (13) week period ending in each of the preceding two (2) calendar years, and

(B) equaled or exceeded four per cent (4%).

(5) There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if the commission determines, in accordance with the regulations of the U. S. Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this act—

(A) was less than one hundred and twenty per cent (120%) of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen (13) week period ending in each of the preceding two (2) calendar years, or

(B) was less than four per cent (4%).

(6) "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of paragraphs (4) and (5) of this subsection, means the percentage derived by dividing

(i) the average weekly number of individuals filing claims in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent thirteen (13) consecutive-week period, as determined by the commission on the basis of his reports to the U. S. Secretary of Labor, by

(ii) the average monthly employment covered under this act for the first four (4) of the most recent six (6) completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such thirteen (13) week period.

(7) "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this act or under any other state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than extended benefits.

(8) "Extended benefits" means benefits (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) payable to an individual under the provisions of this section for weeks of unemployment in his eligibility period.

(9) "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(10) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(A) has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this act or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such week;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this subparagraph an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although (i) as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits.

(B) his benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no, or insufficient, wages on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such week; and

(C) (i) has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965 and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the U. S. Secretary of Labor; and (ii) has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands or of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law he is considered an exhaustee.

(11) "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the U. S. Secretary of Labor under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(b) Effect of state law provisions relating to regular benefits on claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits.—Except when the result would be inconsistent with the other provisions of this section, as provided in the regulations of the commission, the provisions of this act which apply to claims for, or the payment of, regular benefits shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits.

(c) Eligibility requirements for extended benefits.—An individual shall be eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any week of unemployment in this eligibility period only if the commission finds that with respect to such week:

(1) he is an "exhaustee" as defined in subsection (a)(10),

(2) he has satisfied the requirements of this act for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits.

(d) Weekly extended benefit amount.—The weekly extended benefit amount payable to an individual for a week of total unemployment in his eligibility period shall be an amount equal to the weekly benefit amount payable to him during his applicable benefit year.

(e) Total extended benefit amount.—The total extended benefit amount payable to any eligible individual with respect to his applicable benefit year shall be the least of the following amounts:

(1) fifty per cent (50%) of the total amount of regular benefits which were payable to him under this act in his applicable benefit year;

(2) thirteen (13) times his weekly benefit amount which was payable to him under this act for a week of total unemployment in the applicable benefit year.

(f)(1) Beginning and termination of extended benefit period.—Whenever an extended benefit period is to become effective in this state (or in all states) as a result of a state or a national "on" indicator, or an extended benefit period is to be terminated in this state as a result of state and national "off" indicators, the commission shall make an appropriate public announcement.

(2) Computations required by the provisions of subsection (a)(6) shall be made by the commission, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the U. S. Secretary of Labor.

(3) The effective date of subsection (a)(4) of this section shall be January 1, 1972.

(b) An individual disqualified by and pursuant to section 87-106, subsections (a), (b) and (c), shall have his maximum weekly duration reduced by the number of weeks equal to the number of weeks of disqualification.

The service may be in either covered or noncovered employment, however, the individual must have earned the lesser of three-thirteenths (3/13) of his high quarter of his second benefit year or six (6) times his weekly benefit amount of that same year.

(f) Benefits based on service in employment defined in section 87-148 (j)(6) and (7) and section 87-110 (d) shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as compensation payable on the basis of other service subject to this act; except that benefits based on service in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity in an institution of higher education (as defined in section 87-148 (n)) shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment which begins during the period between two successive academic years, or during a similar period between two regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual has a contract or contracts to perform services in any such capacity for any institution or institutions of higher education for both such academic years or both such terms.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added subdivisions (e) and (f); and made a minor change in phraseology.

Burden of Proof

Unemployment compensation claimant has the burden of showing that he is not disqualified from the receipt of benefits. Ollila v. Reeder, 148 M 134, 417 P 2d 473, 475.

Type of Work

Under statute providing that claimant must be available for work and seeking work, claimant was not eligible where all his applications were either for work in which he had no experience or work which he had no prospect of securing; claimant voluntarily removed himself from only then-existing labor market in area for which he was qualified by refusal to accept farm or ranch work because he despised it. Noone v. Reeder, 151 M 248, 441 P 2d 309.

Withdrawal from Labor Market

Claimant, who voluntarily withdrew himself from the active labor market, rendered himself ineligible to receive unemployment compensation benefits. Ollila v. Reeder, 148 M 134, 417 P 2d 473, 475.

87-106. Disqualification for benefits. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits—

(a) If he has left work without good cause attributable to the employment for a period of not less than two (2) nor more than five (5) weeks (in addition to and immediately following the waiting period), as determined by the division according to the circumstances in each case; but, he shall not be disqualified if the division finds that:

(1) He left his employment because of personal illness or injury not associated with misconduct, or left his employment upon the advice of a licensed and practicing physician, and after recovering from his illness or injury when recovery is certified by a licensed and practicing physician, he returned to his employer and offered his service and his regular or comparable suitable work was not available, if so found by the division, provided he is otherwise eligible.

(b) If he has been discharged:

(1) For misconduct connected with his work, or affecting his employment, for a period of not less than two (2) nor more than nine (9) weeks (in addition to and immediately following the waiting period), as determined by the division in each case according to the seriousness of the misconduct.

(2) For gross misconduct connected with his work or committed on the employer's premises, as determined by the division, for a period of twelve (12) months.

(c) If he failed, without good cause, either to apply for available and suitable work when so directed by the employment office or the division or to accept suitable work offered to him which he is physically able and mentally qualified to perform, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the division. Such disqualification shall continue for the week in which such failure occurred and for not less than two (2) nor more than five (5) weeks in addition to the waiting week which immediately follow such week as determined by the division according to the circumstances in each case.

(1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the division shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and previous earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(d) For any week with respect to which the division finds that his total unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which he is or was last employed, provided that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the division that—

(1) and (2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Provided, that if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purpose of this subsection, be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises; provided, further, that if the division, upon investigation, shall find that such labor dispute is caused by the failure or refusal of any employer to conform to the provisions of any law of the state wherein the labor dispute occurs or of the United States pertaining to collective bargaining, hours, wages or other conditions of work, such labor dispute shall not render the workers ineligible for benefits.

(e) For any week with respect to which he is receiving or has received payment in the form of—

(1) Wages in lieu of notice or separation or termination allowance;

(2) Compensation for disability under the Workmen's Compensation Law or the Occupational Disease Law of this or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, provided, however, that when an injured claimant has ceased to draw compensation benefits and shall have returned to the labor market, he shall then be entitled to receive unemployment compensation benefits under this title, if he shall be otherwise qualified. Provided further, that compensation which is received as a payment for a permanent partial disability shall not be computed to be spread over a period of weeks in advance so as to bar the recipient from receiving unemployment compensation benefits under this title, provided the recipient has returned to the labor market and is otherwise qualified;

(3) Benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act or any state unemployment compensation act or similar laws of any state or of the United States. This disqualification does not apply to any week with respect to which an individual is receiving or has received benefits under an unemployment compensation law of another state or of the United States, if such benefits are paid pursuant to section 87-129.

Receipt of any wages, compensation or benefits as set forth in subsection (1), (2), or (3) above, after payment of unemployment benefits, and with respect to the same week for which unemployment benefits were received, will thereupon require such individual to repay such unemployment benefits and the division may collect such unemployment benefits in the same manner as provided for collection of benefits under section 87-145 (d).

(f) During the school year (within the autumn, winter and spring seasons of the year) or the vacation periods within such school year or during any prescribed school term if claimant is a student regularly attending an established educational institution. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this subsection, no otherwise eligible individuals shall be denied benefits for any week because he is in training approved by the division, nor shall such individual be denied benefits with respect to any week in which he is in training approved by the division by reason of the application of provisions in subsection (c) of this section or the application of provisions in section 87-105 (c).

(g) Where retired and receiving retirement compensation paid in whole or in part from funds furnished by an employing unit, which when prorated on a weekly basis, exceeds the average weekly benefit amount paid during the last fiscal year, such disqualification to be applied as follows: All wages earned by such individual in the employment from which he has been retired shall not be considered or included in determining his wage credits or weekly benefit amount under sections 87-103 and 87-105. This disqualification does not extend to the receipt of benefits under the Federal Social Security Act, as amended.

(h) For any week wherein claimant leaves her most recent employment during pregnancy, and due to such pregnancy, and such disqualifications shall continue through the period of pregnancy unless claimant presents evidence of her physical ability to work at such employment. At any time after the seventh month of pregnancy a claimant, to establish eligibility, must present evidence of physical ability to work at such employment. Further, at any time during the first two (2) months following childbirth, a claimant, to establish eligibility, must present evidence of her physical ability to work at such employment. In any of the cases set forth hereinbefore, such evidence of eligibility must be in the form of certificate of a duly licensed physician that such claimant is physically able to work at her most recent employment, and such evidence must be presented as often as requested by the division.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 369 and once by Ch. 498. Neither amendatory act mentioned or incorporated the changes made by the other. Since the amendments do not appear to conflict the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment inserted "in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per calendar month" in the first sentence of subd. (h); substituted "retired individual" for "individual after such retirement" near the beginning of the present third sentence of subd. (h); inserted "and entitled to receive retirement compensation," following "individual is retired" in the present third sentence of subd. (h); and made a minor change in punctuation.

The 1967 amendment inserted in subdivision (e) (3) a second paragraph reading: "Compensation as set forth in subsection (2) above, which is received as a lump-sum payment for a permanent disability shall not be computed to be spread over a period of weeks in advance so as to bar the recipient from receiving benefits under this act for any week except the one in which the lump-sum payment is made, providing recipient has earned sufficient new wage credits following settlement."

The 1969 amendment, in subdivision (a), substituted "nor" for "or" in the first sentence; in the second paragraph of item (e) (3), substituted "the date of injury" for "settlement"; and in subdivision (h), substituted "87-103 and 87-105" for "87-103 or 87-105."

Chapter 38, Laws of 1971, added the two provisos to subdivision (e) (2); and deleted the paragraph inserted in subdivision (e) (3) by the 1967 amendment.

Chapter 415, Laws of 1971, included the changes made by Ch. 38; deleted the second sentence of subdivision (a); deleted the second paragraph of subdivision (b) (2); added the second sentence to subdivision (f); deleted former subdivisions (g) and (j); redesignated former subdivisions (h) and (i) as subdivisions (g) and (h); deleted "and no benefit * * * in good faith" after "87-105" in the first sentence of subdivision (g), formerly subdivision (h); deleted the last sentence of subdivision (h), formerly subdivision (i); and made a minor change in punctuation.

Chapter 369, Laws of 1973, substituted references to the division for references to the commission throughout the section; substituted "receiving" for "entitled to" near the beginning of subsection (g); substituted "which when prorated on a weekly basis, exceeds the average weekly benefit amount paid during the last fiscal year" for "in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per calendar month" in the first sentence of subsection (g); and made a minor change in arrangement.

Chapter 498, Laws of 1973, substituted references to the division for references to the commission; added the phrase following the semicolon in subsection (a); and inserted subsection (a)(1).

Prior Workmen's Compensation Settlement

Claimant was barred from receiving unemployment compensation benefits by reason of prior lump-sum workmen's compensation settlement during the period which lump-sum settlement was intended to cover. Keller v. Reeder, 149 M 322, 425 P 2d 830.

87-107. Claims for benefits. (a) Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of such regulations in places readily accessible to individuals in his service and shall make available to each such individual at the time he becomes unemployed, a printed statement of such regulations. Such printed statements shall be supplied by the division to each employer without cost to him.

(b) Initial determination. A representative designated by the division, and hereinafter referred to as a deputy, shall promptly examine the claim and, on the basis of the facts found by him, shall either determine whether or not such claim is valid, and if valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and the maximum duration thereof, or shall refer such claim or any question involved therein to an appeals referee which shall make its decisions with respect thereto in accordance with the procedure prescribed in subsection (c) of this section. No determination or redetermination of an initial or additional claim shall be made under this section unless five (5) days notice of the time and place of the claimant's interview for examination of the claim is mailed to each interested party. The deputy shall promptly notify the claimant and any other interested party of the decision and the reasons therefor. The deputy may for good cause reconsider his decision and shall promptly notify the claimant and such other interested parties of his amended decision and the reasons therefor.

(c) Finality of determination. A determination or redetermination shall be deemed final unless an interested party entitled to notice thereof applies for reconsideration of the determination or appeals therefrom within five (5) days after delivery of such notification or within seven (7) days after such notification was mailed to his last known address provided, that such period may be extended for good cause.

(d) Appeals referee. To hear and decide disputed claims, the division shall appoint such impartial appeals referee as are necessary for the proper administration of this act, consisting of salaried examiners selected in accordance with section 87-123. No person shall participate on behalf of the division in any case in which he is an interested party. The division may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of an appeals referee.

(e) Notice of decision of appeals referee and time for appeal. After a hearing an appeals referee shall make findings and conclusions promptly and on the basis thereof affirm, modify, or reverse the deputy's determination or redetermination. Each interested party shall be furnished promptly a copy of the decision and the supporting findings and conclusions; this decision shall be final unless further review is initiated pursuant to subsection (g) of this section within five (5) days after delivery of such notification or within seven (7) days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, provided, that such period may be extended for good cause.

(f) Prompt payment of claims. Notwithstanding any provision in subsection (b), (c) or (g) of this section, benefits shall be paid promptly in accordance with a determination or redetermination under this section, or the decision of an appeals referee, the board of labor appeals or a reviewing court under subsection (g) of this section upon the issuance of such determination, redetermination or decision (regardless of the pendency of the period to apply for reconsideration, file an appeal, or petition for judicial review that is provided with respect thereto in subsection (g) of this section, as the case may be, or the pendency of any such application, filing, or petition), unless and until such determination, redetermination, or decision has been modified or reversed by a subsequent redetermination or decision, in which event benefits shall be paid or denied for weeks of unemployment thereafter in accordance with such modifying or reversing redetermination or decision.

If a deputy's determination or redetermination allowing benefits is affirmed in any amount by an appeals referee, or by the board of labor appeals, or if a decision of an appeals referee allowing benefits is affirmed in any amount by the board of labor appeals, such benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of any further appeal or the disposition of such appeal and no injunction, supersedeas, stay or other writ or process suspending the payment of such benefits shall be issued by the board or any court; but if such decision is finally modified or reversed to deny benefits, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. Benefits shall not be paid for any weeks of unemployment involved in such modification or reversal that begins after such final decision.

(g) Appeal to board of labor appeals and judicial review. Any interested party dissatisfied with a decision of an appeals referee is entitled to appeal to the board of labor appeals. The division will promptly transmit all records pertinent to the appeal to the board. When a decision is rendered by the board with copies of such decision to all interested parties, including the division, that decision shall become final unless an interested party requests a rehearing or initiates judicial review by filing a petition in district court within thirty (30) days of the date of mailing of the board's decision to his last known address.

87-108. Procedure and appeals.

Findings of Commission

Finding of unemployment compensation commission that claimant was not available for and seeking work as required by section 87-105 was proper where the evidence showed that claimant quit his job to protect his social security retirement benefits; he knew that his employer would not rehire him if he failed to report off from work; he went to Minnesota to take a rest; and he failed to seek full-time employment. Ollila v. Reeder, 148 M 134, 417 P 2d 473, 475.

Scope of Judicial Review

Under that portion of statute relating to court review, findings of fact by commission, if supported by substantial evidence, are conclusive and confine scope of judicial review to questions of law. Noone v. Reeder, 151 M 248, 441 P 2d 309.

87-109. Contributions. (a) Payment. (1) Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer for each calendar year in which he is subject to this act, with respect to wages, as defined in section 87-149 (c), paid for employment (as defined in this act) occurring during such calendar year. Such contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the division for the fund in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the wages of individuals in his employ.

(b) Rate of contribution.

(1) Each employer shall pay contributions at the rate of three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%) of wages, as defined in section 87-149 (c) paid by him with respect to such employment, except as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

Nonprofit organizations defined in section 501 (c) (3) of the federal internal revenue code and which are exempt from tax under section 501 (a) of such code may elect to make payments in lieu of contributions; the state and its political subdivisions specifically covered by this act and those electing coverage shall make payments in lieu of contributions.

A group of nonprofit organizations may elect with the approval of the division to act as a group in fulfilling the requirements of this subsection or of this act.

(2) Employers required or eligible to elect to make payments in lieu of contributions shall pay into the fund an amount equivalent to the full amount of regular benefits plus one-half (½) of the amount of extended benefits paid to individuals based on wages paid by such employing unit. If benefits paid an individual are based on wages paid by both such employer and one (1) or more other employers, the amount payable by such employer to the fund shall bear the same ratio to total benefits paid to the individual as the base period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total amount of base period wages paid to the individual by all his base period employers. If the base period wages of an individual include wages from more than one (1) such employer, the amount to be paid into the fund with respect to the benefits paid to such individual shall be prorated among the liable employers in proportion to the wages paid to such individual by each such employer during the base period. The amount of payment required from such employers shall be ascertained by the division quarterly and shall become due and payable by such employer quarterly as directed in this act. Penalty and interest for delinquency shall be assessed such employers as specified in section 87-135.

(3) Any nonprofit organizations as defined in subsection (b) (1) of this section electing to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions must file with the division a written notice of its election not later than thirty (30) days immediately following the date of the determination of subjectivity to this act. This election shall be for a period of not less than two (2) years.

(A) Any nonprofit organization may terminate its election to make payments in lieu of contributions after two (2) calendar years from the effective date of such election by filing a written notice with the division not later than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the taxable year for which such termination is effective.

(B) Any nonprofit organization defined in subsection (b) (1) of this section which has been paying contributions for at least two (2) taxable years may change to payments in lieu of contributions by filing with the division a written notice to that effect within thirty (30) days before the beginning of the taxable year for which the change is effective.

(C) If the nonprofit organization is delinquent in making payments in lieu of contributions, the division may terminate the election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next taxable year, and such termination shall be effective for that and the next taxable year.

(4) Payments in lieu of contributions by the state and its political subdivisions shall be an amount equivalent to the amount of benefits paid to individuals based on wages paid by the state and its political subdivisions. The method of determining benefits attributable shall be the same as that set forth in subsection (b)(2) of this section. The amount of payments shall be paid in such manner as the division may prescribe.

(c) Experience rating.

The division shall for each calendar year, classify employers in accordance with their actual contributions and unemployment experience and shall determine for each employer the rate of contributions which shall apply to him throughout the calendar year in order to reflect said experience and classification. The division shall apply such form of classification or experience rating system which is best calculated to rate individually and most equitably the employment for each employer and to encourage the stabilization of employment.

In making such classification, the division shall take account, each to an equal extent, of the following factors relating to the unemployment hazard shown by each employer on the basis of (1) average annual net percentage declines in total payrolls for the last three (3) years prior to computation date; (2) number of years the employer has paid contributions; and (3) chargebacks to the individual employer account upon the last employer basis. The computation date is hereby fixed as of the close of business on June 30 of the preceding calendar year.

The rates for the first calendar quarter of calendar year 1972 and thereafter, except as hereinafter provided, shall be so fixed that they would, if applied to all employers (except those employers making payments in lieu of contributions) and their total taxable annual payrolls for the preceding calendar year, have yielded total paid contributions equaling approximately one and five-tenths per centum (1.5%) of the total of all such payrolls.

The division shall determine the contribution rate applicable to each employer for any calendar year subject to the following limitations:

(1) Each employer's rate shall be three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%) unless and until there have been three (3) years prior to the computation date throughout which the employer has paid contributions at the maximum tax rate set by law for each of such years and has reported and paid contributions during each of the three (3) calendar years immediately preceding the computation date and with respect to such three (3) calendar years has filed all contribution reports prescribed by the division and paid all contributions due with respect to the three (3) calendar years before March 31 of the rate year. Upon payment of past-due contributions the division shall, for the current year, compute a rate for the next succeeding quarter following the payment.

(2) The classified contribution rates for the calendar year 1969, and thereafter, except as hereinafter provided, shall be: five-tenths of one per centum (.5%), seven-tenths of one per centum (.7%), nine-tenths of one per centum (.9%), one and one-tenth per centum (1.1%), one and three-tenths per centum (1.3%), one and five-tenths per centum (1.5%), one and seven-tenths per centum (1.7%), one and nine-tenths per centum (1.9%), two and one-tenth per centum (2.1%), two and three-tenths per centum (2.3%), two and five-tenths per centum (2.5%), two and seven-tenths per centum (2.7%), two and nine-tenths per centum (2.9%), and three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%).

(3) No employer shall be assigned a classified contribution rate higher than the second classified rate above the rate which was assigned to him for the last preceding calendar year except for the year 1961 and further as hereinafter provided. This subsection shall not apply when the employer's chargeback ratio exceeds one hundred per cent (100%).

(4) An employer whose benefit payments (charged as most recent employer) in the last three (3) years preceding the computation date exceeded the amount of his contributions for those years, may have the option of making a voluntary contribution to the unemployment compensation fund to cancel the amount by which the benefit payments charged to him under section 87-109 (c) during the last three (3) completed fiscal years exceed his contributions for the same three (3) years. Such voluntary contribution shall be applied first to cancel the amount by which benefits exceed contributions in the earliest of the three (3) years preceding the computation date, any remaining to cancel the excess in the second earliest year preceding the computation date, and any further remaining to cancel the excess in the most recent year preceding the computation date. Whenever the benefit payments charged to an eligible employer in the last three (3) fiscal years exceed his contributions for the same period, the division shall notify him of the amount of such excess and the rate which would be applicable to him for the ensuing calendar year, if he exercises the option. Such employer must exercise the option of making the voluntary contribution allowed by this section within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice.

(5) Rates as fixed by the division shall stand and be in effect unless and until the cash reserves in the unemployment compensation trust fund at any time in the future fall below, and remain below, eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) continuously for a period of one (1) year, then employer rates effective at the beginning of the next succeeding calendar quarter shall be so fixed that they would, if applied to all employers and their total taxable annual payrolls for the preceding calendar year, have yielded total paid contributions equaling approximately two per centum (2%) of the total of all such payrolls, and shall continue at the two per centum (2%) average rate until cash reserves in the unemployment compensation trust fund exceed twenty-six million dollars ($26,000,000) at which time all employer rates shall again be so fixed to bring an average return of one and five-tenths per centum (1.5%) as in this section hereinabove provided; if reserves remain below eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) continuously for a period of two (2) years, then the contribution rate of all employers subject to this act shall return to a uniform rate of three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%) effective at the beginning of the next succeeding calendar quarter, and shall continue at the three and one-tenth per centum (3.1%) rate until cash reserves in the unemployment compensation trust fund exceed twenty-six million dollars ($26,000,000) at which time all employer rates shall again be so fixed to bring an average return of one and five-tenths per centum (1.5%) as in this section hereinabove provided.

(6) The division shall by regulation adopt such procedures as may be necessary for the substitution, merging or acquisition of an employer account by an employing unit, and the transfer of such employer account, rights, contributions, benefit experience and ratings to the successor employing unit or units.

(7) The division shall by regulation provide for the proper notification of employers of the classification and rate of contribution applicable to their accounts. Such notification shall be final for all purposes unless and until such employer files a written request with the division for a redetermination or hearing thereon within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice.

(8) "Annual total payroll" means the total of the four (4) quarters of total payrolls of an employer preceding the computation date as fixed herein.

(9) No employer's account shall be charged with benefits paid to any claimant in determining the contribution rate of such employer;

(A) If the claimant has been disqualified under section 87-106 (a), (b), (g), or (h), as a result of separation from such employer;

(B) If the claimant left work for nondisqualifying reasons as provided in section 87-106 (a);
